

CAMPUS

PARAGRAPHS

DEMAND

Demand is heavy for the best "White Banners" in the Lib here. This latest creation of Douglas has caused many to reserve for the book weeks ahead of time.

AMBITIOUS

An ambitious program has been led by members of the Drama-play producing unit of the session department, that includes besides participation in the Festival at Carolina, group in arranging and presenting Shakespearean Drama this Spring.

LIKED

Of the many papers exchanged the Hilltop and passed on to library for others to read, the following papers in order are the popular and best liked, Los Junior Collegian, Wake Old Gold and Black, and Hurman Hornet.

ELEMENTARY

An artistic (?) display of tution on the window of the Art room, faded and dismal in the that have past since some red soul painted their likeness on the pane, have caused entering the Oscar Sams Hall to look up and mumble "Elementary."

BATH

The Chief of Police of Mars Hill, and abetted by the Mars Hill macy proprietor, gathered of hose from the Fire Department and gave the main drag, freeing the street from red, red clay that had collected after the long siege of

BUSY

Members of "Beowulf" Huff's sic group were more than last week, meeting Asheville al, ASTC, and Wake Forest sides participating in an in-legiate speech tournament at

WOLFPACK

Mars Hill watches with inter-assuming of the N. C. coaching duties by Doc on. A former student here, popular coach will find Walt Mars Hill four letter man also in the Wolfpack. Rabb a great record in the West school last year, both stically and as one of the shortstops on a State base- team in years.

LUNCHEON

February 20th will find would- rnalists and successful news- at one table at the Hilltop luncheon. Young ladies will arm and beauty to the gath- by their presence.

TOURING

There, and everywhere is Blackwell, director of the ment program now in prog- gratifying results are expect- his efforts and the great- Mars Hill looms closer on the

HIT

Hatcher, who brought Wake Forest Baby Deacons

Debaters Meet Wake and Asheville Normal

Four Go To Boone Tournament; Chapman Wins Two Seconds.

The intercollegiate debating team had a full week, debating Asheville Normal the first of this week and winding up with the Appalachian State tournament at Boone. On Tuesday, February 2, four teams went to Asheville to take part there in a debate with the fairer sex. Bill Fleming and G. G. Morgan, Clarence Sinclair, and Edwin Spangler represented the affirmative Mars Hill team. On the negative side of the query were Bob Bellinger and Haynes Brown.

On the following day the same eight Asheville Normal girls met the attack of two more Lion teams. Frances Summerlin and Ruby Hopkins, Warren Smith and John Chapman debated affirmatively; the negative girls' team was made up of Dorothy Walker and Lillian Linney, and the men's team of Robert Howard and James Randleman. These were non-decision debates, held before critic judges.

On Friday of the same week part of the inter-collegiate forensic team made the trip to Boone to participate in a tournament in which about twelve colleges were represented. Professor J. B. Huff used debaters who did not attend the tournament at Rock Hill. Twenty-one speaking contests were entered. The participants and events entered were: John Chapman, debate, extemporaneous speaking, oration, and after-dinner speaking; Warren Smith, debate and extemporaneous speaking; Robert Howard, debate and extemporaneous speaking; James Randleman, debate, impromptu, and extemporaneous speaking. Chapman won second places in debate and after-dinner speaking. The total team average was 88% and the total debate average was 90%.

The debaters who remained here came up against a keen Wake Forest team of experienced speak-

(Continued on Page 4)

Study Courses Draw Over 450 Students

Of the 634 students in school, 450 took advantage of the study courses in Sunday School work offered here the week of February 1. The nine courses offered were taught both by faculty members, and by workers from outside the college.

Those teachers coming to Mars Hill from the Baptist headquarters at Raleigh were: Mr. N. C. Brooks, the new state B. T. U. secretary, Mr. L. L. Morgan, secretary of the Sunday School board, Miss Velma Presslar, and Mrs. A. V. Washburn.

Faculty members teaching courses were: Dr. R. L. Moore, Professor V. E. Wood, R. M. Lee, S. B. King, and the Rev. William Lynch.

Two classes, "Outlines of Bible History," and "The Baptist Faith" proved to be so popular as to warrant one extra class each which were taught respectively by the Rev. Paul Fox of Louisville, a visitor on the campus, and Professor J. A. MacLeod.

The number who will receive awards is not yet known.

Dr. Frank Leavell to Speak Mon.

Speaks at IRC

AMY HEMINWAY JONES

Five To Attend IRC February 19 And 20

A conference of International Relations Clubs from colleges and universities in the southeast will be held February 19 and 20 at Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Alabama, by invitation of the institute and in cooperation with the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. This conference will be known as the southeast International Relations Clubs Conference.

The principal speakers will be Major C. Douglas Booth, traveler, publicist and lecturer; Miss Carol Riegelman, Carnegie Endowment speaker who is on the staff of the International Labor Office in Geneva, and Miss Amy Heminway Jones, Division Assistant of the Carnegie Endowment. Miss Jones is in charge of the International Relations Clubs work and will take part in the program as the Endowment's representative.

Professor O. T. Ivey, faculty adviser of the International Relation Club of Alabama Polytechnic Institute is in charge of the conference. International Relations Clubs in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Tennessee, and Virginia are expected to send representatives.

Colleges and universities in North Carolina which will be represented at the conference are: Asheville Teachers College, Biltmore College, Boiling Springs College, Appalachian State Teachers College, Brevard College, Campbell College, University of North Carolina, Queens-Chicora College, Western Carolina Teachers College, Davidson College, Duke University, Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, Guilford College, Lenoir-Rhyne College, Louisburg College, Mars Hill College, Meredith College, North Carolina State College, Catawba College, Atlantic Christian College, and Wingate Junior College.

Representing the I. R. C. of Mars Hill at the conference will be Dorothy Haigler, Harold Robinson, Helen Gibson, Alma Brooks, Billie C. Henderson, with Assistant Dean R. M. Lee as chaperon.

The group expects to leave Mars Hill Thursday morning, February 18, and will return the following Sunday.

Honor Clubs Draw Many New Members

Ninet New Students Are Enrolled in High Scholastic Honor Clubs.

The Scriblerous Club met February 9. As new officers they have: Emmett Davis, president; Mildred Hardin, vice president; and Frances Ward, secretary and treasurer.

The new members of the club are Frances Ward, Catherine Etheridge, Mildred Hardin, Alexander Bellinger, Robert Bellinger, James Sawyer, Robert Howard, G. G. Morgan, Elizabeth Lee, Billy Po-teat, Ruth Ellen, Agnes Isenhour, John Ball, Virginia Drake, and Marian Sprinkle.

The Science club met February 9, in the Science Lecture Room at 7:30. It boasts a large new membership. The new members are: Cecil Aderholt, Gordan Heath, Eugene Brissie, Council Pinnell, Russell Harris, Adlai Hoyle, Glen Beare, Oliver Summerlin, Ralph Ashworth, Paul Hinkle, Rebecca Hollowell, Eleanor Cashwell, Julia Childs, Sara Darrough, Marie Compton, Lucille Gillespie, Roberta Ford and Eugene Cornatzer. Some of the old members failed to rejoin. The officers are: Bob Jordan, president; Adele Simpson, vice president; and Fred Taylor, secretary.

The Foreign Language Club had its regular meeting on Tuesday, February 9. French McCain was re-elected president by unanimous choice. The other officers are: Eranda McLendon, vice president; Louise Lane, secretary and treasurer; Ruth Clark, reporter; and Eleanor McElwain, poster chairman.

The new members are: Floy Benfield, Julia Rhodes, Rachel Kelly, Ferne Hudson, William Bates, Elmer Thomas, M. P. Lankford, Estelle Councilman, Mary Lee Ernest, Lucile Beare, James Jones, and Evelyn Newman.

The I. R. C. Club had its regular meeting on February 9. The new officers are: Charles Weaver, president; Winifred Greene, secretary and treasurer; Dorothy Hagler, vice president; and J. C. Anderson, reporter.

The new members are: Mack Ray, Billie C. Henderson, Lena

(Continued on Page 4)

Phis Pick Declaimers For Commencement

Boyd Ray, Harold Robinson, and W. R. Wagner won the right to represent the Philomathian Literary Society at commencement in the declamation contest preliminaries held Friday February 5 in lieu of the regular society program. Woodrow Wall was chosen as alternate. Chosen for Anniversary declaimers for next year were W. R. Wagner and Richard Mansfield, with Clyde Tilson as alternate. Others who entered the contest were: Philip Dixon, Ernest Berry, James Powell, Joseph Prevette, Glen Cagle, Joseph Radford, Leonard Carter, and Gordan Heathe.

The Clios will hold their temperance reading contest on the 25 of this month.

TALKS ON ORIENT

Editor Of "Baptist Student" Concludes Extensive Lecture Tour Here Mon.

Dr. Frank Leavell, southwide Baptist student secretary, on a lecture tour of the colleges of North Carolina, will speak in chapel here on February 15th. Dr. Leavell, who is editor of the publication, Baptist Student, is recognized throughout the South as a leading figure in Baptist activities.

His message to the students will be based on his recent travels in the Orient where he made a study of the B. S. U. activity and worked toward bringing about a closer relationship between American students and those in the Orient. His purpose in speaking here is to acquaint the students with the situation in China and Japan and to stress the importance of the Baptist Student Union.

His lecture tour, which began February 7, has included in its scope such colleges as Wake Forest, Meredith, State College, Chapel Hill, and Duke. Mars Hill, which is next to the last college on the speaking tour, is fortunate in having such a speaker as Dr. Leavell, and looks forward with interest to his arrival on the campus.

634 Students Mark New Enrollment High

According to reports issued by the Registrar's office the addition of 27 new students at the start of the second semester brings the total enrollment for the spring session to 634, the highest ever recorded for Mars Hill. The new students are: Mary Lou Almond, J.N. Barnette, Howard C. Charles, Annette Cushwa, Margie Davis, J. R. Evans, Joe Henderson, Oscar L. Martin, Albert Myer,

Russell Henry, Carl G. Ray, J. B. Roberts, Onnie E. Robinson, Hobert R. Rogers, Mrs. H. R. Rogers, Jose Romero, Robert C. Sieg, James P. Stephenson, Lester A. Watson, Virginia Grubbs, John B. Le Gwin, John Van Hoy, Walter Francis Pollard, C. L. Roberts, Lloyd Brothers, Paul E. Johnson, and Sidney Windham.

Laurel Ads Mount As Publication Nears

The advertising staff of the Laurel has made rapid progress since beginning its duties at the start of the spring semester, bringing in two hundred and forty dollars to the advertising fund. The goal of four hundred dollars is expected to be reached in the near future. Maurice Morgan has been added to the staff as assistant advertising manager.

All group pictures will be made the week of the eighth. All pictures must be in by February 10. As the Laurels will be held until all individual picture fees have been paid, it is requested that these be taken care of as soon as possible. The contracted engraver will be here next week to complete the plans for the year book.