R. L. MURPHY CHOSEN MINISTERIAL PRESIDENT

Succeeding Harold Lindsay, Robert L. Murphy was elected by the Ministerial Conference Thursday, October 13, to serve as its president during the second term of the year.

Elected at the same time were Elmus Hallford, vice-president; Charles Trentham, secretary and treasurer; James Kirk, chorister; Billy Hearn, organist; Ivan Kizer, corresponding secretary; and Willis Bennett, reporter.

During the program the second of a series of research papers in pastoral problems and duties was presented by Harold Lindsay. His paper had as its subject "How to Conduct a Worship Service" and proved very interesting to the members present. At the previous meeting Robert Murphy presented the first paper on the subject "The Minister's Preparation."

Covering THE Campus

Sincere Thanks

The Hilltop wishes to express its most sincere thanks to all those who contributed cakes to the cake run on Founders' Day, October 15th. The editors will personally vouch for their excellent taste and the boys who won them include their appreciations.

Dog Denied by Dean

A shaggy, white, poor, dumb-looking dog wanted to sit in the window of Dean Carr's 2 o'clock American history class October 17, and "catch the crumbs of learning" about the Constitutional Convention, but was denied permission by the Dean. He was removed by "Chile" Summey. When he returned later he had the window shut in his face as he was listening to a discussion of the electoral college and Hoover's majority. For shame!!!

Let's Frolic

How about a snake dance??!! These beautiful football days call for some real football fan gymnastics! While the band plays next game during the half how about a nice, slow snake dance all over the field? — What do you say, cheerleaders?

Societies to Celebrate

On November 12 the Philomathian Literary society will celebrate its Anniversary with the annual program. For four weeks then they will take charge of entertainment. The Clio Reception will be held November 19, the Euthalian Anniversary, November 26; and the Nonpareil Reception, December 3.

Demon Deacons

What a bang-up game Mars Hill's brother college played last week against big Duke! As this was written, the final gun was sounding on the 7-0 victory which Duke eeked out over Wake Forest. (Continued on page 4)

PRESIDENT-EMERITUS MOORE'S OPERATION BELIEVED SUCCESS

As The Hilltop goes to press, President-emeritus R. L. Moore, who is in the Memorial hospital at Richmond, Virginia, is reported to be recovering as well as could be expected from his operation of last Wednesday morning.

At the hour of his operation, as well as the night before, the faculty and students united their prayers for his welfare. All class work and study were forgotten and all thoughts were turned to the great Christian leader.

Mrs. Moore and their son, Ernest, of Enka, along with Miss Velma Shaw, nurse at the college, accompanied Dr. Moore to Richmond. His daughter, Mrs. Roberts, left Tuesday night and arrived in time for the operation. His friends wish for him a speedy recovery.

TWENTY-ONE MARS HILL DELEGATES ATTENDING ANNUAL BAPTIST STUDENT UNION CONFERENCE

Philomathians Elect J. E. Tate President

Joe Radford, Harry Cook, David Hooks And Charles Taylor Also Elected

J. E. Tate, of Winston-Salem, was elected president of the Philomathian Literary society for the anniversary term, Friday evening, October 14, to succeed John Lewis.

Other officers elected were Joe Radford, vice-president; Harry Cook, recording secretary; David Hooks, corresponding secretary; Charles Taylor, censor; E. R. Higgins, seer; Harold Lindsay, chaplain; Frances Owen, chorister; Clyde Carr, pianist; Pete Merrill and Charles Radford, marshals.

The new president, J. E. Tate, is a member of the International Relations club and vice-president of the Gideon Sunday School class. He was a member of the intercollegiate debating team last year and will be an anniversary debater this year. He was vice-president of the society under the administration of John Lewis.

The new officers will serve for a nine-weeks period and on November 12 will lead in the celebration of the Philomathian Anniversary.

Dean Carr Honored

In a recent teachers meeting in Asheville, Dean I. N. Carr was chosen to represent higher educational institutions on a committee of three members. This is a signal honor for our Dean and for Mars Hill. Congratulations!

Students Represent College At Capital

On November 4-5, Chairman Willis Bennett, Roger Bell, Horace Chamblee, Bob Murphy, and Mr. J. Howard Hall will compose a group to represent Mars Hill at a Student Legislature held in the state capital at Raleigh and sponsored by State college.

Members participating in the legislature are students from colleges all over the state. This is the only legislature of its kind anywhere in the United States being held primarily for student participation and experimentation in legislative procedure. The meetings are conducted just as though they were regular meetings of the state legislature, with measures introduced and discussed by the students and involving the ethics of parliamentary procedure.

Last year's team from Mars Hill efficiently introduced several bills and received a very favorable decision in the passage of their measure.

October Leaves

October leaves are sad to see
Their brilliant splendor all ignored,

To realize they may not be Permitted to remain the lord
Of beauty to their mother tree.
Reluctant fingers loose their hold
With rustlings of sad assent;
And shivering earth, with bosom
cold,

Lies listening to their last lament.
For here below at last they meet—
A blanket for their mother's feet.

—John W. Ball.

All-Southern Student Meet Being Held At Memphis October 27-30

STATE SENDS 150

"My Maximum For Christ" Is The Convention Theme

Twenty-one Mars Hill students left Wednesday, October 26, for Memphis, Tennessee, where they are attending the All-Southern Student Conference being held October 27-30.

The party left Asheville Wednesday night on a special train carrying about one hundred and fifty students representing colleges and universities from all over North Carolina.

The conference is composed of ten sessions in which noteworthy speakers and delegates representing students, faculties, and denominational leaders, portray the conference theme, "My Maximum for Christ". The program began Thursday evening, October 27, at seven, and will adjourn Sunday night, October 30, at ten o'clock.

The speakers at the convention are: Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, famous polar regions explorer; Geo. W. Truett, president of the Baptist World Alliance; Charles A. Wells; T. L. Holcombe; Charles E. Maddry; Mrs. Owen J. Herring; M. E. Dodd; Theodore J. Adams; Mrs. J. M. Dawson; John L. Hill; Edna Geister; L. R. Scarborough; Daniel A. Poling; and T. G. Dunning.

The representative - delegate group from Mars Hill, believed to be the largest group from any North Carolina college, includes W. R. Waggoner, Anne Cochran, Paul Early, Kathleen Frink, McLeod Bryan, Mabel Ruth Harrell, Miss Mildred Bingham, Louise

Dr. J. Clyde Turner Leads Revival Here

Heart - Searching Messages Are Being Given By Minister

Dr. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist church of Greensboro, is the main speaker at the revival meetings now being held at Mars Hill college. Rev. W. L. Lynch, pastor of the Mars Hill Baptist church, is presiding over these meetings.

Dr. Turner's messages are most heart-searching and stir one to become an active, useful Christian. He is emphasizing personal loyalty to Christ and the saving power of our Lord. It is hoped that he may continue his stay through ten or fourteen days.

Dr. Turner, by his sincere and earnest messages, has established for himself the reputation as being the "Truett" of North Carolina. Dr. Turner, in 1931, was a speaker at the Baptist World Alliance held in Toronto, Canada.

This is the first of a series of meetings held in the church since it has been enlarged by the addition of two balconies. These balconies add approximately two hundred seats to the present capacity.

Many Regional Clubs Formed On Campus

On Thursday, October 20, the various county and state clubs met and organized at the chapel hour and elected their officers and faculty sponsors.

The purposes of the clubs are to unite students of various sections of the state and nation so that they may know one another better and to create a more congenial relationship among themselves and others on the campus.

At times during the year the different clubs will be given the opportunity to conduct chapel services with programs featuring visiting speakers, musicals, or any other type of worthwhile entertainments approved by the faculty program committee. Also, the clubs will be allowed one social function during each semester.

The following clubs met and organized, electing their officers and faculty sponsors for the year:

Catawba-Lincoln — pres., Orville Campbell; vice-pres., Alma Chronister; sec., Lila Ruth Sullivan; treas., Fred Ellis; Cherokee — pres., Clyde Jarrett; vice-pres., Nat Kinney; sec., Geraldine Shields; sponsor, Mr. Stringfield; Cleveland — pres., Kays Gray; vice-pres., Ada Wall; sec. and treas., Lorene Hamrick; Cosmopolitan — pres., John Ball; vice-pres., Tommy Evans; sec., A.
