

LIONS DEFY BULLDOGS TONIGHT

SIDE ON SPORTS

JOHN S. FARRAR

Sebren's Show

Evans, noble president of the society, seen the halves of the Brens to be lame, Mr. Herbert Sebren state an exhibition of his skill as is noted technist. With the use of upon there-lighted batons, Mr. Se-re his amazed the crowd as he one gir his arms with rhythm and from dat'n. Mr. Sebren is well cul-the city along this line, having had cal chara training. He is quite inter-ribed as n forming a class in which ck eyes, t of pyrothenics may be inches in If any are interested in t, they should contact Mr. REENE- If a sufficient number Lincolnes formed.

Joliff Wounded

Hilltop a the Philby Joliff, sturdy guard, re-A misof a bad cut over the left eye he is at first Brevard game. This hermitage" him to miss the second n. With with the Tornadoes. The he voice disabled him for only a ne is kn and he was back in and on the seven points when the gitude a met Valdese. Bill "Hard" tek are stray also received a split occasion, the Brevard game but was actor forced out of service. It o W. D. that it is rather difficult ill to muster over "two" per game. I suppose these have to be called the "faith-anion vo." Eh, Bill?

Tumblers' Debut

ry pres February 17th the tumbling Literary gave its first public per-of Bereñce at the intermission of ising m'ars Hill-Valdese game. The kes an agave a fine program and rs. Fad that they have received renditie instructions from their Ball, "i. An added feature was the drawn ynd of Mr. Sebren to have capacity ind and body cooperate. The d the R was kept in an uproar his frie prankish adoes of Mr. Se-the "fe The boys received a big n ascd for their fine exhibition. eristics- be looking for you again boys.

Spring Ahead!

him are won't be long until spring l lethal! The major league baseball t, he vs are encamping for their excellenting bases this week, and, in his's more, some of the boys on ures campus have already slipped wn out the ol' ball and glove and begun to whip her around. CK— That's a sure sign of spring! lier p'rh Roberts is expected to camp's a formal announcement mer sed't baseball plans in the near iterary're. You "fellas" who are incience ted should be ready for the colleg'ot's" call when it is made! Tantal's take Biltmore tonight. she is beat 'em twice last year, and y alim's no time to stop. Come out as th'help the boys drop the ball in f brow buckets! Only a game or two d the ains on the card before the stoerain falls on the '39-'40 edition ures. he Lions. The boys have play-y and well; so let's all be out there e her ight and help 'em battle. An-ers as r win, boys!! phys'ne needed two or three lines pon fill up this space, and here they n page

Last Home Game To Begin At 7:30

Biltmore Seeks Revenge For Last Season's Licking

In their last home game of the season the Lions will scrap the Biltmore college five of Asheville tonight. This is the first engagement between the mountain city boys and the locals this year.

Coach Dickerson's men have been playing some speedy ball games in the last six weeks and are expected to pour on the heat in tonight's contest. Biltmore has come a long way since their opening game with Asheville high early last December; and so have the Lions since their opening tussle with Tusculum. An exciting game is expected because Biltmore will be seeking revenge for two lickings handed them by the Lions last year.

A good crowd is expected to see the boys scrap as they ring down the curtain on the home schedule. The game begins at 7:30.

Possible Starters

Mars Hill	Biltmore
Whitaker..... F	Durner
Lambert..... F	Bennett
McMurray..... C	Duncan
Farrar..... G	Poole
Joliff..... G	Ebbs

Lions Take Double Win From Canton

The Lions ran roughshod over the Champion "Y" club of Canton Thursday, February 8. Jimmy Joliff and Fern Lambert paced the home team's offense with 17 and 16 points respectively. In the second half of the contest the Lions were able to score nearly at their own will. The final score was 54-38.

In the first game of the double-header, the "B" team walked off with a 45-24 victory from the Canton "B" team. John McMurray dropped in eight buckets for 16 points to lead the "Bees."

Lineup

Mars Hill (54)	Canton "Y" (38)
Farrar (6)..... F	Michael (10)
Joliff (17)..... F	Troutman (10)
McMurray (2)..... C	Wilson (10)
Lambert (16)..... G	Sutton (6)
Whitaker (10)..... G	Teague (2)

Pre-Ag Students Form Club Here

A new club consisting of pre-agriculture students was organized on the campus February 10 for the purpose of promoting leadership in agriculture and studying the activities of near-by poultry and dairy farms.

The officers elected were Quentin R. Harper, president; Dwight Brendle, vice-president; Lyman Hall, secretary; Paul Brown, treasurer; and Marion Nobles, reporter.

Hill And Prof's Are Champion Stunters

(Continued from page 1)

audience declared the songs of the "Dying Quintet" the high notes of stunt night No. 3. Two readings, by Gwen Reed and Louise Wall, and a student quartet were the other numbers on the last stunt night program.

TUMBLING TEACHER

H. L. Sebren

Maestro Sebren Directs Tumblers

Mr. Herbert Sebren, director of the band, has taken active charge of the tumbling squad. Mr. Sebren is well qualified to give valuable coaching to the boys along the line of tumbling, since he has had a course in it himself and is also an excellent performer.

Coach Sebren has a squad of about 15 boys who are under his tutelage about four days each week at about five o'clock in the afternoon. The boys have already learned several new phases of this back-bending sport. Tumbling requires a great deal of mind and body co-ordination, and several of the "greener" boys are fast becoming familiar with the finer points of the sport.

The boys who are on the squad at present are as follows: Wilbur Spillman, Charles Huff, Buell Fitzgerald, Paul Bruner, Lewis Stoney, Joe Woodruff, J. C. Jones, Pete Merrill, Caughy Culpepper, Alex Moore, Jack Miller, Kenneth Ward, Jesse Pollard, and Robert Garrison.

Lions Spin Win Over Textile Foes

Spartanburgers Woven To Defeat With Count Of 42-40

The Lions took a close scrap from Textile Institute in Spartanburg on Tuesday night by the score of 42-40.

The South Carolinians led at the half-time by an 18-14 count, but the Lions came back fast to take an early second-half lead. Lambert had 10 points to head the Mars Hill second half spurt.

With only four minutes to play, the Lions held a 13-point advantage, but the Textile boys came within two points of knotting the final count as the game ended.

Lambert and Whitaker with 12 apiece and Joliff with 10 were high scorers for Mars Hill. Bill McMurray played a nice defensive game for the Lions, holding Seay, Textile center, to only five points.

Textile's Wood was high scorer for the night with 14 points.

Substitution—Textile: Newton.

Patrick, Reed Win Temperance Honor

Hardin, Nonpareil, Bloodgood, Clio. Win Second Honors

Emily Patrick, of Newburn, with a reading entitled "The Old House," won first place in the temperance reading contest held Tuesday afternoon in the Non-Eu Hall. Gwen Reed, of Fort Balley, Georgia, using the reading "Hands," was chosen to represent the Clios at commencement. Mary Nell Hardin, a Non, with a reading entitled "Humpy" won second place, while Maude Bloodgood, a Clio, using "Sins of Our Fathers," was second best of her society. Elizabeth Stinson, a Non, and Ruth Jones, a Clio, were selected as alternates.

Other Non contestants in the finals were: Eleanor Fokes, Lucile Haywood and Dorothy Pearce. The other Clio contestants were Jerry Shields, Mary Louise Howell and Imogene Brown.

The contest between the two societies will probably be held next week in the chapel auditorium.

Springtime

The smack of a glove—the crack of a bat—
A new appearance of the "Hoot's" old hat;
It's springtime, pals, and not the fall—
The "Lions'" attention is on baseball.

Coach presents a team that does its best—
One which stands out from all the rest,
Which has a leader who always fights
In his picturesque uniform with red "tail lights."

A trip to the field will present a scene
Of baseball players, most of them "green";
Bats in a row—the catcher's mask,
And each boy striving to do his task.

Warm-ups are over; the game's about to start;
"Hoot's" pitcher goes out to do his part.
The game is close all the way through;
Until the ninth the score's tied at two.

The last of the ninth a burst of cheers
A single to right pins back the pitcher's ears;
The "Lions'" famous "Slugger," we see at a glance,
Is strolling to the plate to take his stance.

The first pitch is coming—it is a ball—
Not the best kind to put over the wall;
The next is coming as "Slugger" digs in his toe,
And the air is shattered by "Slugger's" blow.

He races to first and on to third,
Almost challenging Campbell's Bluebird;
The ball goes sailing high over the wall—
He crosses the plate, but, alas—a foul ball!

—Neil S. "Booger" Whitaker.

Tornadoes, Lions, Divide Four Games

Brevard Wins At Mars Hill; Dickersonmen Conquer At Brevard

First Game

In one of the closest and most hotly contested games seen on the home court this season, the Brevard Tornadoes took a 45-43 decision from the local Lions Saturday, February 10.

The game was rough throughout, and several men left the floor because of excessive fouling. Mars Hill led at the half by a 23-16 count, but Peterson and Roberts cut loose and put the Brevard club ahead soon after the second half had begun. A basket by York gave the Tornadoes their final tally in the waning moments of the game. Lambert with 11, Joliff and Whitaker with 10 each led the Lions. Peterson, with his famous overhead shot, and Roberts had 15 and 11 points respectively for Brevard.

The Brevard "B" team took a 25-23 decision from Mars Hill "B" in a game that required an extra period. This was a preliminary contest.

Lineup

Mars Hill (43)	Brevard (45)
Farrar (2)..... F	Peterson (15)
Joliff (10)..... F	Dalton (6)
McMurray (4)..... C	Roberts (11)
Lambert (11)..... G	York (6)
Whitaker (10)..... G	Young (4)

Substitutions—Mars Hill: Sams Leatherwood, Hornsby (3), Ponder (3).

Second Game

Mars Hill came back strong in their second encounter with Brevard, which was played at Brevard. "Booger" Whitaker, with six field goals and a free toss topped all scores for the night. "Lamie" Lambert trailed close behind with ten points. The Lions were out front at half time by 22-15. Whitaker and Farrer kept the Lions ahead in the second half by scoring twelve points between them. York, pint-sized guard, had five field goals to lead the Tornadoes' quint. Peterson, who led his club in the previous game, was able to gather only two baskets and a free throw. Final score: 43-36.

The "B" team also gained revenge from the previous defeat by grabbing a 25-21 victory from the Brevard "B." Walter Hornsby led the "Bees" in their win.

Lineup

Mars Hill (43)	Brevard (36)
Farrar (9)..... F	Peterson (5)
Edwards (5)..... F	Dalton (6)
McMurray (6)..... C	Roberts (8)
Lambert (10)..... G	York (10)
Whitaker (13)..... G	Young (7)

Substitutions—Mars Hill: Hollins.

Brevard: Green.

Mars Hill Visited By Celebrities

Edison, Ford, Firestone, And Burroughs Were Here

Thomas Alva Edison, the great inventor; Henry Ford, the automobile magnate; John Burroughs, the naturalist; and Harvey Firestone, of automobile tire fame, once visited Mars Hill. Many oldsters recall their coming, and a Hilltop published at the time of Mr. Edison's death described their visit.

"It was in the fall of 1913 or 1914 while on a research trip through North Carolina," runs the Continued on page 4)