

MARS HILL COLLEGE SCORES TOTAL OF 982 POINTS

V AND WILLIAMS ARE SCORERS OF SEASON

through the season our instructor shown excellent play and clean play have engaged all have not once let The Hilltop would recognize these fellows good.

which scorer of the year to hodge Bailey, who led disgust on those he "just couldn't Carol left Wednesday for where, N. C.) to discuss Train his draft board—ing at with no deferment. r privosports in general—successfully mean in general; but hety anything and has nter as hobby.

Brownsonville comes Brown. He is in the Mars Hill and plans to be was Ne by the navy to an Mars pool this summer. being a hobby other than hill above time, he likes stry at above other sports. chiganhe "O" jersey brings l counents as, "Hey, why try at give him a num- he me

Corbett is our choice outstade defensive player. His empart and soul are in the nute of play, and his any. It heaves to his for- rred take for fast action. ms col Garner, N. C., and along with Bailey igh way to soften up board. He likes sports ason, and gives base- me f- ight edge. He doesn't begi special hobby, but Bownh him have a big ne in anything he does!

Finch, of Spring Hope, only limited action, as understudy to Cor- Snow. He has re- d questionnaires and for his call for exami- y day. Sports in gen- ketball in particular, place for him.

Freeman hails from N. C. His 18th birth- nes April 6, which im fairly sure of fin- a semester. He saw a etal of substitute play ct ed in two games. embe the role of opposition of the All-Star game, up 4 points against Hew players. Basketball ference in his sports wed closely by hunt- fishing.

Hill's J. C. Ponder is with a deferment until ose on the cheering appreciated his play- more for knowing he bell for a place on onor roll last semes- played a steady game tributed greatly to the nt and enjoyment of on. J. C. is a lover of al S and had rather hunt when he's hungry!

Maded David Roberts e, for home-town boy. His uth birthday comes in in. no army worries for ve plans to attend Wake ers next year and has al- een accepted by the Gray School of Medi- enjoys the relaxation and plays a betterthan average game of base- ball.

Top scorer and our choice for best-all-round player is tall, versatile Hugh Snow of Dobson. His "deadpan" expression fully characterizes his sure, easy, play, and it is amazing the way he takes rebounds off the backboard. His filitary status is I-A, with a ninety-day referment attached. Naturally basketball is out in front in sports for him, but he also likes to bowl.

Billy "Edna Moore" Tate, who comes to us from the Mills Home of Thomasville, will turn eighteen March 11, and who knows what may become of a boy these days when he is 18? If he isn't in the army, he hopes to do defense work this summer. He prefers football to basketball, and his pet joy is keeping the girls warm up at Edna Moore. He stepped ably into the shoes vacated by Vernon Williams and showed brilliant ability in feeding the ball to his teammates.

We were glad to have Eddie Adelman back on our campus last week. He is now leading a life of leisure at his home in Wilkesboro, awaiting his call. His play in basketball was limited but showed great consistency. Last fall he distinguished himself as captain of one of the two football squads.

Frank Arrington, ladies' man of the team, is now in the U. S. navy. He played a great deal of high school ball and probably would have developed into an exceptional Lion with a little more time and experience. He was noted mainly for his shots from mid-court.

Kenneth Haynes was able to play in only six games. Mumps grabbed him as one of its many victims and kept him out of the last part of the season. He's a tall, hard-working boy from Lewisville and likes basketball and football.

Another visitor to our campus last week was another of the boys, Zack Whitesides. Despite his limited play he ranked 5th in the season's individual scoring. He's a Rutherfordton boy, and his civilian life terminated the first part of this week.

When Vernon Williams left Mars Hill for the Army Air Corps, he was high scorer of the team. He made beautiful long shots and could also handle the ball close under the basket. Vernon is interested in all sports and made himself known in football last fall.

Individual scoring stacks up something like this:

Snow	253
Williams	250
Bailey	198
Ponder	65
Whitesides	60
Corbett	40
Tate	30
Freeman	27
Brown	14
Roberts	13
Adelman	13
Haynes	9
Finch	6
Arrington	6

Let's Swap

By I. B. Gooif

Did you hear 'bout the teacher who graded his exams so strictly he flunked one of his students for having a period upside down?

Moron: A young one was watching his Moron girl, Francis, play the piano, "I can play by ear," he boasted. "So can I," she replied, "but I get the worst headaches that way!"

You kissed and told,
But that's all right;
The guy you told
Called up last night.

Jest Jottin'

Just Arrived

Little Helen Loretta Ashworth recently arrived to brighten the home of Prof. and Mrs. Ashworth, who live on Faculty Hill. If labs have seemed more cheerful and interesting than usual, now you know the reason.

Music in the Spring

Miss Fisher announced that nearly all groups have reported for the spring step-singing contests. Have you? If you haven't, you might be embarrassed when we gather to hear you sing on Edna Moore steps. Get busy! Spring's just around the corner hiding under a white blanket.

Music Lectures

Those who have been attending the series of discussions and renditions of the music of Franz Schubert, given by Miss Lois Fisher, have thoroughly enjoyed the time spent at these lectures on Tuesday afternoons. Our thanks to Miss Fisher for creating and developing our appreciation for great music.

Vive Brown! Vive Melrose!

Even though the boilers of the heating plant which heat Brown and Melrose dormitories has been "outa whack" since the first of the week, the boys are still carrying on as if nothing happened! Invitations to sleep and study have been received from the faculty and from several boys living in school buildings. The administration building has been turned into a "private den" for the boys of Melrose and Brown. The entire campus is proud to learn that there have been no complaints! That's the spirit, boys. Keep it up!

Visitor

(Continued from Page 1)
He said that U. S. forces there are going to drive the Japs from the Aleutian area in due time.

Intramural Standings

Through March 3

Team:	W	L
Dunn	4	0
Dorr	4	0
Hudson	2	1
Cox	2	2
Haynes	2	2
Harris	1	3
Laughlin	0	3
Davis	0	4

Tumblers Get "M's"

Seventeen Boys Receive School Letters

Tumblers George Buchanan, James Amos, Vance Lassiter, Charlie Brown, Bill Bryant, John Lee, Burdette Thomas, Leroy Pitts, Doug Davis, Roy Holton, Earl Jones, Paul Bradford, Ed Pitchford, Francis Morgan, Stahle Leonard, Ed Edney, and Wayne Richardson have passed requirements sufficient to receive their monograms. They have their certificates and the letters are in order.

A party is being planned soon in celebration of the triumph.

The tumbling team would like to recognize George Buchanan, who was the first of the group to make the Army grade. He is a quiet, likable fellow, and he was unconsciously a great inspiration to the rest of the boys. He spurned no task, great or small, and was always on the job with a smile. Good luck, Pvt. George!

Rambling With Robbie

I love . . . big shows . . . wind in tall pine trees . . . cozy rooms . . . to visit old friends . . . meet new people . . . pictures that are nothing but "hot" . . . to live . . . you . . .

But nothing bores me more than . . . soap radio programs . . . my ole ladies when they think they are singing . . . a dusty mailbox . . . dead flowers . . . "I'm going to do better next time" . . . empty candy boxes . . .

I would like to learn how to . . . make friends easily . . . write interesting letters . . . get this column in on time—just once . . . "cob" my teachers . . . say the right thing at the right time . . . get up when the alarm goes off . . .

Nothing, for me, will ever replace . . . Mars Hill . . . Society . . . Mt. Bailey . . . "Little Yellow Dog" . . . Beds scraping overhead . . .

I don't care to hear any more about . . . no spring holidays . . . my diary . . . bus wrecks on my big week-end . . .

But, on the other hand, I'd like to hear more about . . . all the former Mars Hillians, now in the service—and their experiences all over the world . . .

I can hardly wait until . . . graduation day . . . everyone is out of the infirmary again . . .

I don't see how we could live without . . . heat . . . ole ladies like mine . . . dirty shoes . . . swell friends . . .

I'm reduced to flooding tears by . . . Thoughts of leaving Mars Hill . . . being fussed at . . .

I have received much from this past week's . . . chapel messages . . . evening services . . . prayer services on the halls . . .

Lions Victors In Last Three Tilts

Mars Hill's hardwood five ended a rather mediocre session Saturday night with a win over Biltmore. Their last three contests resulted in triumphs, bringing their totals to 9 wins against 11 losses. Six of these losses may be accounted for by the fact that the opponents were four-year colleges: two each to Milligan, Tusculum, and W. C. T. C. Final results are:

Mars Hill	Opponents
46	Milligan	52
44	Champion 'Y'	51
41	Gradegg	39
33	Milligan	56
34	W.C.T.C.	61
41	Ashe. Sch.	40
44	Champion 'Y'	54
34	Brevard	36
36	Ashe. Sch.	47
53	28th Gen. Hos.	40
45	Moore Gen. Hos.	33
42	Tusculum	51
50	28th Gen. Hos.	52
58	W.C.T.C.	64
62	Morgan Candy	27
57	All-Stars	47
53	Tusculum	79
94	Young's	63
43	Gradegg	41
72	Biltmore	28

982 959

The Lions coasted to a 94-63 win over Young's of Asheville in their February 22 tilt. Snow broke the Mars Hill record for individual scoring with 40 points and Mars Hill's own "Ikey" Carr, substituting because of one player's failure to show up, led the visitors with 28 tallies.

February 25—A final-period rally by the Gradegg cagers fell shy of its mark and for the second time this season the strong city league club from Asheville dropped a two-point decision to Mars Hill's Lions. The tally was 43-41. In the third period Snow, Lions center, was forced to leave the game because of a bad knee. Bailey topped the Lions in scoring with 15 points. Jim Lyles paced Gradegg with 12.

February 27—In fine form the Lions finished it off with a victory over Biltmore college, 72-28. Bailey rang the bucket for 32 points to top Mars Hill's scoring, with Holcombe's 10 leading the boys from Biltmore.

Eight More Boys 'Caught In Draft'

Eight more Mars Hill boys have been "caught in the draft" and are now "gone with the wind." Jean Harris Thomasson, John Shearin, Bill Robertson, Graham Wright, Clifton Bowers, Percy Herman Shreve, Ed Soo, and Arthur Anderson left our campus this week for the armed services.

To each of these the entire student body and faculty send their best wishes. All are proud that they stood by their posts of duty until they were called into active service.