

PHI ANNIVERSARY TO BE CELEBRATED TONIGHT

Forensic Council To Attend Meet

Eight Representatives To Go To Charlotte

Eight students from the Mars Hill forensic council have been chosen to represent the college at Charlotte, December 2-4, in the Dixie tournament. Mr. and Mrs. DeShazo will accompany the group as coach and chaperone.

Mars Hill will be represented in eight contests: debating, extempore, impromptu, situation oratory, response to occasion oratory, poetry reading, and address reading.

Mars Hill forensic groups have won innumerable honors in previous Dixie tournaments and in similar contests. The goals of the group are high this year.

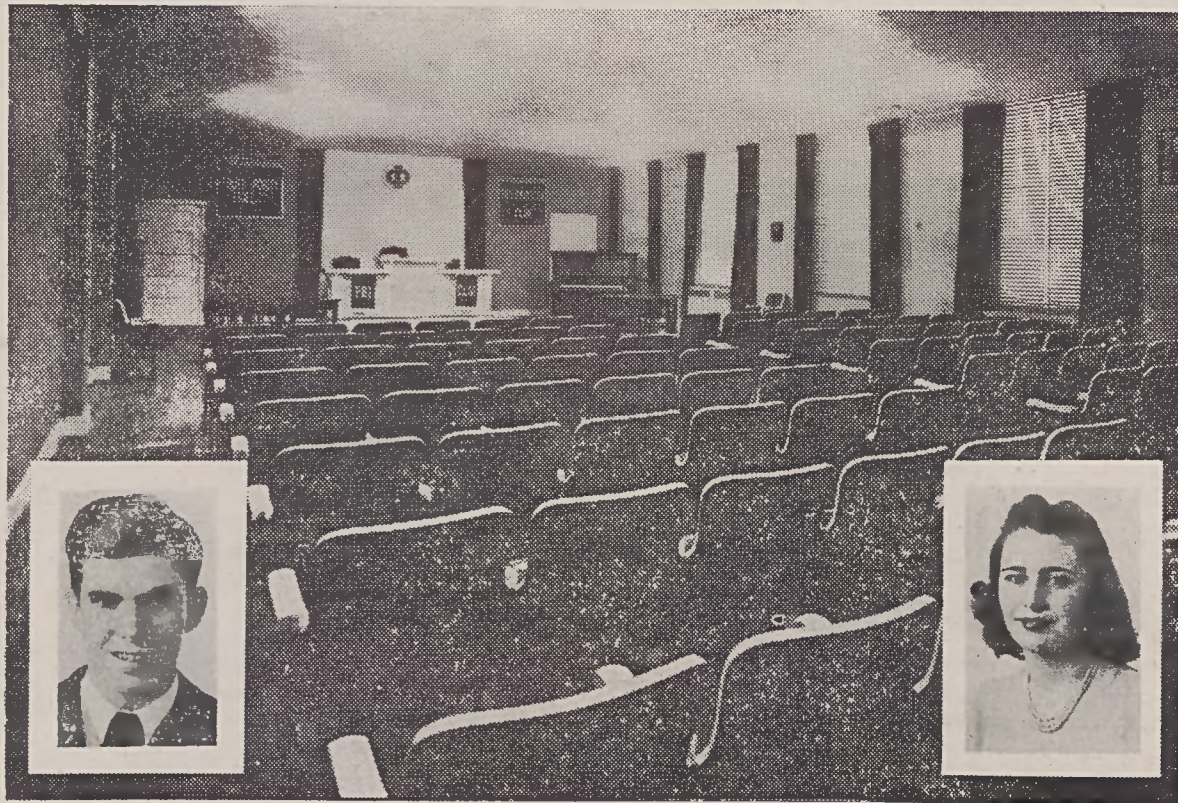

The forensic group further plans to enter the Grand Eastern contests in April.

Clio Reception To Be Held December 4

With fun and hard work the girls of the Clio literary society of Mars Hill College are now preparing for their forty-eighth annual reception. This reception is presented to the Phis by the Clios in return for the anniversary the Phis hold for the Clios the preceding week. A spirit of co-operation is dominating the society. The girls are working very hard for their Phi brothers, in order to present to them a reception that will never be forgotten.

Ellen Goforth, the president, has appointed the following chairmen for the committees: general theme chairman, Jane Lee; refreshments chairman, Carolyn Flynn; emblem chairman, Margie Mills; program chairman for Clio-Phi Hall, Frances Pope; program chairman for Non-Eu Hall, Grace Anderson; decoration chairman for Clio-Phi Hall, Florence Gordon; decoration chairman for Non-Eu Hall, Millicent Teague; chairman for meal and downstairs of science building, Joyce Howell; decoration chairman for Bible room and platforms, Jane Ozier; costume chairman, Anne Wall; invitation chairman, Jean Mills; the committee chairman in charge of printing the programs printed, Frances Hancock.

CLIO-PHI HALL AND ANNIVERSARY PRESIDENTS

Pictured above is the Clio-Phi Hall of Blue & White. The Phis celebrate their fifty-third anniversary tonight, and the Clios will present their forty-eighth reception program next Saturday night. Insets show Raeford Turner, Philomathian anniversary president, and Ellen Goforth, anniversary president of the Clios.

Rae Turner Leads Philomathians

This evening at eight o'clock the college auditorium will become the "Hall of Blue and White" when the Philomathian Literary society presents its 53rd Anniversary program.

The program for this evening, planned by Clios and Philomathians, will follow the general plan of past celebrations. It will include a debate, orations, declamations, musical selections, and will be climaxed, of course, with the grand finale.

Despite the fact that there are fewer Philomathians than in years past and that war conditions have caused many handicaps, the Phis have not been discouraged in their year's work nor in their plans for the Anniversary program. Many Phis will be present only in spirit tonight, because in body they will be fighting for their country, for human freedom, and for those ideals of Truth, Purity, and Fidelity that Clios and Phis all over the world love so dearly. But every Clio and Phi will pause tonight and silently pay tribute to their brothers in service.

Raeford Turner, of Leaksville, will preside tonight. With him at the dais will be Harold Spangler, Lawndale, secretary, and Lewis Coleman, Greensboro, S. C.

The marshals for the occasion will be Bill Edgerton, chief, Parke Sherrill, Clarence Stirewalt, and Bob Chapman.

Preceding the program the Clios will honor their Phi brothers with the formation of the Clio-Phi emblem on the little circle at 6:30.

All the students, faculty members, and friends are invited to enjoy this memorable evening in the life of Philomathia.

News Received Of Our Alumnae

Miss Martha Grayson, teacher in the commercial department at Mitchell, is giving up her position here. Miss Grayson is leaving November 12, and will become the wife of Walter Harvey of the air corps sometime during the first week of December. It is undecided at this time whether Miss Grayson will be married in Texas, where Mr. Harvey is stationed, or at Forest City. They will probably make their home in Texas, unless Uncle Sam changes his mind.

Miss Grayson came to Mitchell College in the fall of 1942, after her graduation from Mars Hill Junior College and Womans College at Greensboro. In addition to teaching in the commercial department, Miss Grayson was acting treasurer of the college this year.

Campus Comments.

Richie Harris, formerly a student at Mars Hill and now a senior at Meredith, has been chosen as one of the ten girls from Meredith who are listed in Who's Who Among Students and Colleges. Richie, an English major, is president of the Colton English Club and vice-president of the Phi Society.

Coach Roberts Tells Of Red Cross Work

In chapel on Monday morning, November 22, the students were privileged to hear Mr. O. E. Roberts—better known to all C-IIs and faculty members as "Coach" Roberts. For years "Coach" faithfully and energetically served on the college faculty. He is now general field representative for the American Red Cross. Coach's work takes him all parts west of Charlotte. He receives his orders directly from the war (See COACH—Page 4)

Nonpareils Have Fine Reception

The Nonpareil literary society held its forty-eighth annual reception, dedicated to its Euthalian brothers, Saturday evening, November 20, at 8:00 p. m. in the society hall. The event was successful in providing enjoyment for all those present, including former Nonpareil and Euthalian officers, parents, relatives, members of the faculty, the Euthalians, and the Nonpareils. ### Traditional Thanksgiving Program Given UNDER DIRECTION OF B.S.U. COUNCIL

Early on Thanksgiving morning the B.S.U. Council, assisted by the ensemble and others, all in Pilgrim and Indian costume, sang the traditional Thanksgiving hymns and had a feast at the various dormitories and at different homes in the community. The singing was continued in the dining hall during the breakfast hour.

The impressive program, given at the regular chapel hour in the college auditorium, was as follows:

- Processional.
- Hymn—"Faith Of Our Fathers."
- Prayer ..... Dr. Blackwell
- "Father, We Thank Thee" ..... Carol Kendall . Claudia Green
- Response ..... The Trio
- Scripture ..... The Speech Choir
- Prayer-Poem ..... Betty Crouch
- The President's Proclamation ..... Dean Lee
- "O Thank We All Our God" ..... The Pilgrims
- The Kennedy Home ..... Jack Resico
- The Mills Home ..... Oma Shew
- Thanksgiving Hymn ..... The Trio
- Taking of the Offering.
- Recessional.
- Benediction ..... Mr. Kendall

The Thanksgiving service, which is traditional, is one of the outstanding events of the college year.

Business Club Makes Annual Tour Of Asheville

On Tuesday, November 23, the Mars Hill College Business Club, accompanied by five faculty members, went to Asheville for its annual educational excursion. Of course the day was punctuated with bits of pleasure.

One of the interesting events of the day was the tour through the Asheville Citizen-Times building. There the guide showed the entire process of "running off" a state edition of The Asheville Times. This tour ended by an exciting observation of a radio program in one of the WWNC studios.

The chief clerk in the Wachovia Bank guided the group (See TOUR—Page 2)
