

BOXING TOURNAMENT GETS IN FULL SWING

Alumni

(Continued from Page 2)

The alumni enrollment of last semester, visited the campus last week-end. She is now a cadet nurse in her second quarter of training at Duke University and likes her work immensely. Ellen was Anniversary president of the Clios while a student here.

Pvt. Luther Jarvis, a graduate of '42, is on furlough with home-folk. Before entering Bowman Grey Medical School, he went to Emory University. As a student at Mars Hill, he was interested in dramatics, society, and forensic work.

Bob Dorr returned from the Navy V-12 school at Newberry College, South Carolina. Last year he was a C-I officer and was active in religious work.

Anna Frances Jinnette, '43, came from Cullowhee College to see her sister, Doris. Anna Frances is taking a teacher's course. At Mars Hill she was interested in society and religious organizations.

Mac Sellers, a C-II this year, returned after his recent stay at the naval school at Sampson, New York, at which he took his boot training. This student from Georgia studied pre-law and took an active part in forensics and society.

Mrs. June Bridges, wife of Lynn Bridge and sister of Polly Murray, visited the campus last week-end. As a C-I she was an interested member of May Day. Her husband is in the air corps in Pennsylvania.

Eleanor Ingram, '43, related on her visit that she is in Asheville doing secretarial work. As a student she was in the Business Club.

Leona Graham has been superintendent of public welfare in Catawba county after signing her position as superintendent of welfare in Catawba county.

William E. Dover has been missing in action since February 10, 1944 when he participated in a raid over Bougainville island. In all he has five Zeros to his credit and is a veteran of 100 missions in the South Pacific area.

After enjoying a much-needed and thoroughly deserved furlough with friends in North Carolina, Lt. Scarborough returned to active duty to increase his score.

Letters have been awarded this season to 23 boys for tumbling and basketball. Seventeen of these were awarded to the tumbling team, which gave a series of fine performances during the season. The team was led and coached by "Hook" Lee who is their captain. Letters were awarded the following: "Hook" Lee, Edgar Morton, Clarence Abernathy, Robert Dixon, Manning Jolly, Jimmie Williams, Adger Blackstone, Johnny Richardson, William Butler, John May, Charles Hendrick, Luther Beam, David Kimberly, Ray Turner, Orval Buckner, C. L. Walton, and Gilmer Snider.

The other six were awarded to members of the basketball team who had a fairly good season this year, winning five and losing seven. Reed Lawder, "Nip" Anderson, "Pet" Anderson, George Williams, Boyce Medlin, and Jimmy Winstead received letters for their performances during the season.

Bill Grimes, a popular visitor of last year, was here this week. After leaving Mars Hill, Bill attended radio in St. Louis and after-gunnery school at Fort Myers, Florida. For the present, Grimes is teaching at Fort Myers.

Thomas E. Belcher, class of '24, is now serving as chaplain in the army.

John N. C. Hartwell is Lt. (jg) N. C. Hartwell graduate from here in Mars Hill. He took special interest in writing. He taught in Durham City Schools before entering the navy.

FOR VICTORY

BUY UNITED STATES WAR BONDS AND STAMPS

Visitors

Ellen Goforth, one of the best loved students of last semester, visited the campus last week-end. She is now a cadet nurse in her second quarter of training at Duke University and likes her work immensely. Ellen was Anniversary president of the Clios while a student here.

Pvt. Luther Jarvis, a graduate of '42, is on furlough with home-folk. Before entering Bowman Grey Medical School, he went to Emory University. As a student at Mars Hill, he was interested in dramatics, society, and forensic work.

Bob Dorr returned from the Navy V-12 school at Newberry College, South Carolina. Last year he was a C-I officer and was active in religious work.

Anna Frances Jinnette, '43, came from Cullowhee College to see her sister, Doris. Anna Frances is taking a teacher's course. At Mars Hill she was interested in society and religious organizations.

Mac Sellers, a C-II this year, returned after his recent stay at the naval school at Sampson, New York, at which he took his boot training. This student from Georgia studied pre-law and took an active part in forensics and society.

Mrs. June Bridges, wife of Lynn Bridge and sister of Polly Murray, visited the campus last week-end. As a C-I she was an interested member of May Day. Her husband is in the air corps in Pennsylvania.

Eleanor Ingram, '43, related on her visit that she is in Asheville doing secretarial work. As a student she was in the Business Club.

Dramateers Attend Chapel Hill Festival

(Continued from Page 1)

Jane Lee ably assisted the players with the costumes and make-up.

With Miss Wengert, college director of dramatics, and Miss Logan, instructor in the English department, the group reports that the trip was immensely enjoyable and informative.

Summer Session To Open June 6

(Continued from Page 1)

The nine weeks session will close on Friday, August 4, at which time graduation exercises will be held. Additional information may be obtained from the April issue of the Quarterly.

WHERE QUALITY AND EXPERIENCE MEET

MARS HILL PHARMACY

Mars Hill North Carolina

Lt. Scarborough Cited For Distinguished Service

Lt. Hartwell Scarborough, U.S.M.C., a Mars Hill graduate of 1932, now wears the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and the Purple Heart.

After graduating from Mars Hill, Lt. Scarborough completed his B.S. degree in electrical engineering at State college in 1937. He worked for the General Electric company in Schenectady and Philadelphia and for the Carolina Power and Light Company in Asheville before entering the marine corps in December, 1941.

Since that date Lt. Scarborough has seen much action. His "big day" was August 16, 1943, for on that day he shot down three Zeros over Kihili on Bougainville island. In all he has five Zeros to his credit and is a veteran of 100 missions in the South Pacific area.

After enjoying a much-needed and thoroughly deserved furlough with friends in North Carolina, Lt. Scarborough returned to active duty to increase his score.

Varsity Letters Awarded

Letters have been awarded this season to 23 boys for tumbling and basketball. Seventeen of these were awarded to the tumbling team, which gave a series of fine performances during the season. The team was led and coached by "Hook" Lee who is their captain. Letters were awarded the following: "Hook" Lee, Edgar Morton, Clarence Abernathy, Robert Dixon, Manning Jolly, Jimmie Williams, Adger Blackstone, Johnny Richardson, William Butler, John May, Charles Hendrick, Luther Beam, David Kimberly, Ray Turner, Orval Buckner, C. L. Walton, and Gilmer Snider.

The other six were awarded to members of the basketball team who had a fairly good season this year, winning five and losing seven. Reed Lawder, "Nip" Anderson, "Pet" Anderson, George Williams, Boyce Medlin, and Jimmy Winstead received letters for their performances during the season.

Soaring to new heights . . . the assortment of things-worthwhile now on display at

CARPENTER MATTHEW
The Quality Jeweler
ONE HAYWOOD STREET

Students Organize Regional Clubs

(Continued from Page 1)

chairman; Mr. McLeod, sponsor.

Mitchell—Bob Norton, president; Mary Belle Buchanan, vice-president; Mary Frances Vincent, secretary; Miss Lunsford, sponsor.

Rutherford—Carl Westmoreland, president; Jimmie Sue Morgan, secretary; Ronald Hill, treasurer.

Wake—Boyce Medlin, president; Linda Kidd, secretary; Miss Lunsford, sponsor.

South Carolina—Idella Fallow, president; Earl Vaughn, vice-president; W. C. Byrd, secretary-treasurer; Mr. and Mrs. McLeod, sponsors; Lewis Coleman, program chairman.

Virginia—Sammy Clark, president; Jo Hildebrand, secretary; Nadine Paxton, vice-president; Hazel Thomas, treasurer; Coach Clayton, sponsor.

Florida—president, Margaret Shackelford; Frances Hobson, vice-president; Jane Wright, secretary; Miss Snelson, sponsor.

Georgia—Irving Cheney, president; Mary Mundy, secretary; Mr. King, sponsor.

Coastal Club including the counties of Beaufort, Brunswick, Chowan, Columbus, Craven, Cumberland, Duplin, Gates, Hertford, Hyde, Lenoir.

Pasquotank—D. T. Carowan, president; Nancy Lou Wells, vice-president; Alice Lou Flanner, secretary; Linda Edwards, treasurer; Dr. Pierce, sponsor.

Northwestern— including the counties of Ashe, Allegheny, Davie, Stokes, Surrey, Wilkes, Yadkin—Cecil Porter, president; Beth Jones, secretary; Mrs. Livingston, sponsor.

Eastern Carolina—Jack Hughes, president; Grace Anderson, vice-president; Ora Lee, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Livingston, sponsor.

Middle North Carolina— (See Students—Page 6)

Nine Bouts Are Fought

The boxing tournament opened Wednesday, March 15, with nine fights. There were some very good fights which were very close. The results follow: G. Williams, 172, decisioned Hill, 172, in the heavyweight; Thorne, 133, decisioned Hutchings, 132; Anderson, 190, decisioned Shaw, 250, in the heavyweight; Taylor, 142, decisioned Brown, 154, in the welterweight; Simpson, 152, decisioned Shoemaker, 153, in middleweight; J. Williams, 133, decisioned Baker, 135; Sherrill, 152, decisioned Westmoreland, 155, middleweight; Dixon, 138, decisioned Hendrick, 136; Jones, 125, decisioned Daniels, 125, in flyweight; Miller, 118, flyweight, drew a bye. In the semi-finals J. Williams decisioned Stirewalt. Dixon decisioned Kimberly.

The finals will be held at a future date. The pairings for the finals are: 125 pound class—Miller vs. Jones; 135 pound class—J. Williams vs. Thorne; 145 pound class—Taylor vs. Dixon; 155 pound class—Simpson vs. Sherrill; heavyweight—Anderson vs. G. Williams. In the 165 pound class, Medlin was unchallenged.

Mars Hillians To Participate In Tourney

Eight students from the Mars Hill forensic club will participate in the Grand Eastern Tournament which is a part of the Strawberry Leaf Festival sponsored by Winthrop college. Mars Hill students will take part in debates, orations, extempore, impromptu, address reading, after dinner speaking, poetry reading and response to the occasion. The festival will be held in Charlotte, April 6-8. Mr. Ramon DeShazo, coach of debate, and Mrs. DeShazo will accompany the group.

FOR TOPS

in

EASTER OUTFITS

it's always

Bon Marché