

Cupid's Beau

Ain't life grand? Thrill, thrill! Class Day and Junior-Senior and spring all on the same day! Did your S.P. ask you for a date for tonight? (Well, that's all right; mine didn't either.)

Dalton says he's really enjoyed working on the Junior-Senior. Could it be because Jo is on the same committee he is? And have you noticed those good-looking side burns he's been trying to grow for tonight. It is rumored that he has been putting fertilizer on them every night before he goes to bed!

Well, well—Morgan Robinson has finally been given the once-over and approved. And by that cute little Nickie Rogers. (He doesn't know it yet, but he does now, I betcha.)

Dear me, there's Bobby Jones and Trudy Allard back together again!! More power to you. But what we want to know is—Where are Trevathan and Waldrip?

Have you heard? Mert Simmons is going to take Fran Hobson to Junior-Senior tonight in a CAR with chauffeur and a footman. He says.

Gene Davis dates all visiting skirts and passes up about four hundred langushing, dateless females on our campus every single day. That ol' mean thing.

At last we have proof that spring is really here: Thomas Swann had a date the other night at the show! Congratulations, Thomas.

Dacus says, and we quote: Women sure are a lot of trouble. They notice whether your hair is combed or not. They notice whether or not your collar's clean, and they always notice when you've missed part of your shave! End of quotation. In spite of the Trouble, Mr. Clark seems to enjoy having a little blond number notice him!

Connie Peterson seems to make it a habit to date all retiring Phi presidents. First it was Rae, and now it's Spangler. Watch out, Nancy, Crate "retires" next. Remember?

Incidentally, did you sane-minded citizens get a load of Screwball Spangler's dogs (and we do mean feet) last Saturday night? He says that comfort is just one of life's little blessings. We think he's getting old!

We used to think that George Clayton went down to the Infirmary every night to see Miss Brewer; but guess what we found out last night: He really goes down to see Dot Avera! Can you beat that?

Nona Summers went home last week end to see "Edd", brought a sailor back with her to school, and had poor lil Parks waiting when she came back. Doesn't she rate, tho?

The Question: Which one of those town boys at Well's Market is Martha Goldson's S.P.?

Mary Ellis Reese, glamorous town gal, showed us last week end just why she doesn't date the guys on the campus. Her heart's all Snow-ed under by the army.

You can't tell us that Tommy Andrews is bashful. Or haven't you noticed him sitting on the bench on Little Circle with the ex-glamour gal, Gloria Nita Pruett?

Our sympathies are extended to Bob Gellerstedt and Raymond Martin. It hurt us to see their forlorn faces last week end when Rachael Mac. had her Company. Let's hope things are straightened out by now, and may we wish you all four a very happy future. Together?

Did you notice how Eldridge Johnson paraded Billie Wilson around at the show the other night, so that everyone could see him with a date? Come to think of it, it might have been the other way around.

Looks like spring has revived Pinky and Carol. To quote Pinky:

In spring—or, well, you've heard it:

How the young man's fancy's roused From its winter hibernation Where it previously was housed.

(Ed. note: Well, Pinky, you ought to know!!)

Gentlemen prefer blondes! If you don't believe it, just listen to this: Walton Connelly has decided to ditch two lovely brunettes—Howie and Margaret Lee, for that blond boomerang, Gerry Dayton.

Did you see the lovely corsage Moronica got from Charlie last Sunday? And it wasn't even Easter or anything! Ain't love grand?

Interested by-standers have expressed the desire to see Jack Hughes and Norma Jane make up and stay made up. At least for a week.

D. T. Carowan still seems to go all out for Noggles, but have you noticed the Crouch-ing position he has been trying to assume lately? Being on the B.S.U. together certainly helps people know each other better, eh Betty?

Lucky is trying to teach Jane to cook, by making her make salads for Junior-Senior. Miss Joyner, it seems, prefers a career to an apron and kitchen job.

Since the Junior-Senior banquet is to be held in the middle of the afternoon, so that the students can be bed by nine o'clock, we just wondering whether wear our tuxs and tails frills or not.

Yippee! Just one month 'till school's Ain't life grand?

Have a "Coke" = Sakabona (WHADDYA SAY?)

...from Bloemfontein to Buffalo

In South Africa, as in the U. S. A., the greeting Have a "Coke" helps the American sailor to get along. And it helps, too, in your home when you have Coca-Cola in your icebox. Across the Seven Seas, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes,—the friendly gesture of good-natured folks.

"Coke" = Coca-Cola
It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".
