

We've Been Missing You At Sunday School

Cupid's Beau

By Belle

It's here at last! That long-awaited Philomathian anniversary, the big event of the year for Clio and Phi. There'll be a lot of happy people (notice we don't say couples) strolling down the hills from the various dorms tonight. We hear that each Phi will have two Clios on each arm to protect him from any invasion from outside interference — the "town boys" fr instance.

Carlos Cooper is dragging—and we do mean dragging—Margie (Ry-Krisp) Williams. You've waited a long time for this, haven't you, boy?

Calahoun Hill (sometimes called Ronald) is dating two of the glamour gals of '44 tonight—Mary Stone Bennett and Jean Walker Lazaar.

Jimmy (President Emeritus) Taylor is bringing a Rowe of young ladies. That's not such a bad Pill to swallow, is it, Jim? Turk Turbeville will have his hands (no, not arms) full tonight with two red-heads on the string. Let's hope they don't get loose and start a fight. Or something.

We overheard Don Thorne-in-the-flesh asking Jack Phillips to look after Goldie tonight. Said Jackson: "O. K., if you'll shield my little Fran!" What's up, gents? Sadie had her day last Saturday. This week Junior Hawkins has his. He's dating the President's girl (Lib Jones to you ignoramusses) and Songbird Betty Rae Carter!

Betty "Shorty" Fowler informed Charles Billings that he'd better date her for anniversary on account of if he didn't she'd climb up on a step ladder and knock his block off.

Ott Boles will be a perfect wreck by the time this evening ends. We wonder if he didn't make a huge mistake by dating up both Evelyn Brookshire and Maggie Runion.

Gene Silvers, campus heart-breaker (heavy sarcasm), must have started early! Way back at the beginning of school, in fact! He's dating some of the best looking Clios on the campus tonight.

We notice that Bobbie Shope spent most of last week helping Cassanova Morgan Robinson find his four dates. We wonder why?

Lucky (that Manley man with the fallen chest) is having a tough time trying to decide who will help him marshal. Time alone will tell . . .

Bud Holland, we hope Polly gave her consent to the other fems you're escorting tonight. If not—well, we don't want to see you tomorrow.

Hunter has his bill more than filled for tonight; he's dating Caroline Boyles and Kitty Grinstead together and at once.

Why so glum, chum? Could it be Jay Stinkie Keeter envies Carl Westmoreland 'cause he's dating Jinx and Liza tonight? Mr. Keeter, we notice, got a cute little consolation prize in Peggy Chis-sion.

Incidentally, ask Mr. Westmoreland why the Home Ec girls call him "Grappe" (pronounced "frap" as in "sap").

Cheerful Earful: We hear that Steve Horne is not only dating Miss Jane Joyner, but also Cokey Burrows, Thelma Deal and Bet Miller; All that beauty going to one man!

This place sure is a 4-F's dream town . . . All these females floating around!

Boyd McGuire says he's new at this job, but he caught on quick enough to ask Beulah Hise, Esther Hollowell, and "Jo-Jo" Moody for dates.

We have so much to be thankful for this Thanksgiving—especially that J. C. Fagan isn't twins and Joyce Benfield, triplets.

If anyone has any suggestions as to any new initials which could be used in place of some old initials which we cannot use but which have the same initials as Slow Poke, and which initials were supposedly indispensable to the happiness and well-being of the rovers of this campus, will

FIVE JOIN SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, headed by Daniel Corugedo, met in Spilman parlor Tuesday night, November 14 at which time five new members were initiated.

The program began with the introduction of the new members. Then Daniel Corugedo explained the origin of the Spanish language. The Brazilian people were discussed by Mabel Clay and Daniel Corugedo sang "Beyond the Sea." After a conversational period the initiation was held. The program was concluded with Spanish games and refreshments.

Those who joined the Spanish club at the call meeting are Mary Jones Smith, Mary Elizabeth Thomas, Louise Harris, Ann Porter, Marguarite Miller, and Elizabeth Hayworth.

Mable Clay, Adene Mitchem, Christine Mitchem, Edith Ramsey and Talmage Smith were initiated Tuesday night.

The Spanish club officers are Daniel Corugedo, president; Beth Jones, secretary; and Sarah Coston, treasurer.

he please address his suggestions to Belle, Box 54.

We'd like to leave with you this little poem written by our own dear Pop Stringfield at a young and tender age. Juicy, ain't it?

"I love thee, I adore thee,
And my heart alone is thine.
My life would be much brighter
Could I only call thee mine."

P. S. Guess who the Phi President is dating tonight!!!!!!

Home Makers' Guild To Initiate 25

A candle-light initiation service for twenty-five new members is planned for the regular meeting of the Home Makers Guild on Monday night, November 20.

The initiation will be held in the Non-Eu hall. The president, Dot Lee Bunting, and the eight members of the guild will be in charge.

"Family Relationships" was the theme of the program on November 6, with Betty Hardin, Lillian Miller, and Marie Willoughby participating. Impromptus were given by Pinky McLeod and June Wilson.

A prospective "stuedde" interviewed an older victim of parental advice.

"Got a curfew in this here town?"

"We used to have one at 9:00 P.M. but we had to give it up."

"Yeah, how come?"

"The people complained that it woke 'em up."

Have a Coca-Cola = So glad you're back

...or offering a soldier the comforts of home

HOME! No place like it. And nobody knows it better than a fighting man back on furlough. Ice-cold Coca-Cola is one of the comforts of home that belongs in your family refrigerator. At the words Have a "Coke", refreshment joins the party. The good old American custom of the pause that refreshes is spreading in many lands around the globe,—a symbol of our friendly home-ways.
