

Non News (And Eu Too)

By "Belle"

"Hark the Sound Euthalian Voices" asking Nonpareils for Anniversary dates. It is rumored that each stag has to drag only one hag tonight. Such luck (for some couples). Ah well, with the man shortage situation and sugar rationing—as if that had anything to do with it—we can't all rate dates.

Did you know: that Erma "buffaloed" John Davenport into dating her tonight?

Ahoy! all you landlubbers! A spicy shipment of news just sailed in to us from secret ports: Skipper Earl Miller has taken a mate aboard and has headed for clear weather and smooth sailing tonight. . . . And every night.

"Boo" will have "Dust" in his eyes and Miss Davis on his hands tonight.

Mr. Lennon "lyns" his heart to be "gobbled" tonight by the proverbial Margie, who, pardon me, but she looks just like herself.

J. M(outh) Pegram is "warding" off trouble by bringing (Joy)ce with him to Anniversary.

Paul, dark, and Lunsford is beatin' the president's time. GOODIE! (Ruth)less isn't he?

Martalena McClain says her heart throb, Mr. Robertson, will "fill her bill."

Ed has waited a "long" time for this night. He ain't "aileen" either.

"Hortense" Taliaferro is ringing a merry little belle tonight, we see.

Alton was a little "harassed" about whom to date annie finally chose glamorous Laurie Smith.

Jack Cox is dating Ruby. Hope he doesn't make her "wade" those pud muddles on the way over from Brown.

Flash! Is Roy Ryan engaged? He's sporting a "jewel"—Hammit!! Who said that?

Some guy said "Go West, young man. Go West." Poor Mr. Kivette aint got no sense of direction, 'cause he went East. But Mildred is really a "good catch," Everette.

Wee Bet that Miss Allen will go strollin' along the "lane" tonight, eh Dub?

Is Jerry "datin" Neil tonight? "Jim doesn't ever bring me pretty flowers"—but he certainly makes a good anniversary date, doesn't he, Pinky? You have a "gem" of a nerve, Mr. Kelley.

"Mac" McSwain thinks John is awful sweet. We still say he rimes with Vinegar.

Big John will be in wonderland with Alice tonight, but we know that Womble and Wallace will have fun.

Beth Jones is going "South of the Border" tonight with Daniel.

"Every little breeze seems to whisper Louise"—anyway, that's who Mr. Stapleton is dating.

Mr. Barnes finally bobbed up from the masses of Eus and asked J. "Morganton" Benfield for a date.

"My love is like a red red Rose" Moody Roberson.

—Dickie the Moon Goon.

"Big Angus" McLeod is bringing Teeny tonight. Let's stay out of the gutter this time, kids.

Ah, how blissful! Milton finally penned Phyllis down for a date, and "Yes" it is.

Raymond thinks Betty Evans will be a cute Anniversary date. You are so Wyatt.

Charles Trammel is not a Free man tonight, is he Mildred?

Ha! my fine feathered friends. J. Byrd and R. Wrenn are gonna "straighten up and fly right" together tonight.

Harry Davis deserves a "pat" on the back for capturing this efficient little stenographer from the South(er)land.

Pete "Charlie horse" Peterson has the honor of escorting our one and only "dirty Lil" tonight. Them's the presidents.

In case you want to know who else is dating who else, we cordially invite you to the—come see!

They just allow us so much space, So if you're left out, it'll save your face! Thank us . . . Thank you.

Nonpareils Feature Thanksgiving Program

"Thanksgiving" was the theme for the program of the Nonpareil Literary Society at the regular meeting on Thursday, November 16, in the Non-Eu hall.

"What Thanksgiving Should Mean," an essay by Julie Munden, opened the program. This was followed by a solo, "Thanks" (Geoffrey O'Hara), rendered by Mrs. Elwood Roberts and accompanied by Mr. Roberts.

A humorous debate: "Resolved: That the corn of today is more desirable than the corn of our Pilgrim forefathers," was an entertaining part of the program. Gloria Abernathy and Mildred Leath spoke for the affirmative, and Dixie Ruth Hawkins and Billie Sue Triplett, dressed as Pilgrims, debated negatively.

The judges for the debate were Mickey Cato, Mrs. Elwood Roberts, and Cornelia Vann. Their decision went to the negative.

Preceding this, "A Prayer At Thanksgiving," an original poem, was presented by Betty Stinett.

The regular meeting of the society was given over to the Thanksgiving half-holiday on November 23.

Euthalian Anniversary

The Euthalian chorus composed of Tommy Stapleton, Franklin Hopkins, Everett Kivett, John McLeod, John Brinegar, Paul Lunsford, W. T. Lane, Neil Ellis, Jimmy Smithwick, Walton Connelly, John Wallace, and James Pegram, director, with Miss Forrestine Snider at the piano, gave several musical selections.

Vice president, Bob Jones, was chief of the Marshals. Those who assisted him were Jimmy Smithwick, Paul Lunsford, Earl Miller, Sigsbee Miller, William Bell, Neil Ellis, and Milton Bliss.

Wood Cottage Boys Organize Club

In an effort to build a better reputation for Wood Cottage, the members of this cottage have joined together in organizing a club.

Fines will be levied on anyone found smoking, using unbecoming language, not cleaning up rooms by eleven o'clock each day, disturbing study hours and anything else that may mar the reputation of the cottage.

Officers of the club are: Ed Dunlap, president; J. Livingston Green, censor; and John Davenport, secretary-treasurer.

"The Challenge of the Cross," a sacred drama directed by Wilhelmina Rish, will be presented at the regular meeting of the Dramateers Tuesday evening in the college auditorium.

Characters in the one-act play are: Evangel, Lillian Garland; disciples, Ruth Teague, Dovie Tallent, Minnie Hildebrand, Alice Lou Tallent, Betty Sue Sinclair, and Lois Harris.

Have a "Coke" = ¡Adelante con la musica! (GET IN THE GROOVE!)

...or getting along in Guatemala

Music and Coca-Cola spell friendship among our Latin-American neighbors just as they do here at home. Have a "Coke" is an invitation of welcome as quickly understood in Guatemala as in Georgia. In many lands around the globe, Coca-Cola has become the same symbol of friendliness that it is in your own living room.
