

Lions Topple Brevard in Final Grid Clash

Blank Tornadoes 4-0, in Tilt in Brevard Field

The Mars Hill Mountain Lions, playing their final game of the season, and their second with Brevard, swamped the Tornadoes 44-0 on the Brevard field, Saturday, November 17.

The first period went scoreless, but during the final minutes of the quarter Mitchell blocked a punt on the Brevard 20 and Kelly covered on the 5. Two plays later the second quarter Martin and Dunlap scored and converted, making the score 7 to 0. After an exchange of punts the Lions took over on their 39 and Martin on the next play raced 61 yards for the tally. The half ended 13 to 0.

After the kick off to Brevard, a punt runback Dunlap fleet-footed 70 yards for the next score. Again Brevard received the ball but lost it on a fumble, and several plays later Gouge took it over for the 15. Another setback, an intercepted pass, saw Brevard gain over on the 2. Kicking off again, Mars Hill held the tornadoes, who punted to the 30. A few plays later Winfree, finding an open field, went 6 yards for the score. Again working from a Brevard fumble, Loggins went over from the 16 and Holland added the conversion. The game ended, 44 to 0, with the Lions on the Brevard 13.

It was everyone's game, with all doing their share of blocking, tackling, and running. Beam and Cline high-lighted the game with their hard charging, fine blocking, and excellent tackling.

Nons Honor Eus

On the top of which there was an hour glass. On either side of the walkway to the building were huge numbers representing future years. The entire foyer was decorated as an outdoor garden, with lattice and rock walks leading to the landings. On the left landing a scene depicted a cobbler of past generations dreaming of the future. On the right landing the future was represented by a rocket ship.

A Bible was presented as a gift to Euthalia from Nonpareil. The Nonpareil orchestra, with Mildred Freeman as vocalist, played during the serving of refreshments. Decorations were in green and white. The receiving line consisted of Nonpareil and Euthalian officers.

The officers of the two societies are: Irene Austin and Charles Harris, presidents; Patsy Ingram and Livingston Greene, vice-presidents; Mary Evelyn Crook and James Kelly, secretaries; and Faye Jenkins and John McLeod, censors.

Guests included faculty members, officers of the other societies, and several former members of Nonpareil and Euthalia.

Clio-Phi Sweeps Twin Cage Victory

Playing the annual Thanksgiving basketball game Thursday, November 22, the Phis and the Clios were victors in their tilts with the Nons and Eus, the Clios winning 21 to 12, and the Phis taking their game by the score 21 to 20.

Both games were hard fought contests, with every player giving his all. The Clios got off to a flying start and remained in the lead throughout the game. The Phi-Eu game was a close affair, however, as the Eus went flying ahead in the first periods, only to be overtaken in the final minutes of play. The Phis held the wearers of black and gold to three points in the last half, after they had been out-played in the first half to the tune of 17 to 5. Lamar Brooks' field goal in the last minute of play was the deciding factor of the game and gave the Phis their one point lead, which they held for the last few seconds.

Hillians Drop Only 1 Game During Season

The Mars Hill Mountain Lions finished successfully their first football season in three years winning 5 games in 6 starts.

The Lions dropped their first game to Newberry College 31 to 0, but no other team crossed their goal line for the rest of the season. In their first home game, Coach Lance's boys proved themselves an able team by downing Brevard 19 to 0. At Cullowhee, the Western Carolina Teachers fell before the feline onslaught 25 to 0 in the Lions' first night game. The next week they journeyed to Hiwassee and returned with a 29 to 0 victory. Meeting the Hiwassee team the second time in two weeks on their home-field, they found a determined eleven whom they finally downed 14 to 0. In their final game of the season the Lions, against the Brevard team there, roared to a 44 to 0 victory, thus ending the season.

Dunlap, Martin, Greene, Gouge, and Ayers in the backfield, and Mitchel, captain, Kelly, and McLeod in the line sparked the team for the entire season.
