Advice:

If you want to remember things, tie a string around your finger. If you want to forget things, tie a rope around your neck.

"First to thine own self be true, Thou canst then be false to anyone."

To flirt is very wrong;

I don't.

Wild youths chase women, wine, and song;

I don't.

I kiss no girls, not even one.

I don't even know how it is done.

You wouldn't think I have much fun;

I don't.

Overheard:

What would you prefer in a husband; sense, appearance, or good manners?

Miss Able: Appearance, and the sooner the better!

Gee, you look all broken up. Whatsamatter?

I wrote home for some money to buy a study lamp.

So what?

The traitors sent me a lamp.

Miss Underwood, in discussing the importance of taking a negative stand in keeping up an interesting conversation, admitted that she could think of some cases in which yes would prove far more interesting. Well, we wouldn't know.

She: Is it dangerous to drive with one hand?
He: Yes, more than one fellow who's tried it has run into a church.

To Prove:

That a freshman is an affliction.
Proof: A freshman is new. New means not old. Not old means not stale. Not stale means fresh. Fresh means smart. A smart is a pain. A pain is an affliction. Therefore ... a freshman is an affliction.

The evolution of a college man is as follows:
Freshman: Embarrassed silence.

Sophomore: I don't know.

Junior: I'm not prepared.

Senior: I don't like to venture an opinion until I know more about the subject.

Grudge: A building for keeping a car.

Getting out a paper is no fun.
If we print silly jokes, people say we are silly.
If we clip things from other papers we are too lazy to write them ourselves; if we don't we are too fond of our own stuff.

If we don't print contributions, people meet us with a huff; if we do print them, the paper is filled with junk.

Now it wouldn't surprise us if someone would say that we swiped this from another paper.
Well, we did!
