

Locals Meet Canton

Last year's team was good, and this season's looks better already. But it cannot be denied that other schools will be "loaded" this year as well. This was proved by the football play of this season, and it will doubtless be the same through basketball and baseball and perhaps for some years to come. Nevertheless, the Lions are priming for any and all comers and will be ready to take them on en masse when the time comes. With only a few more days of practice before the regular season starts, Coach Ramsey is putting his boys through their paces for the Legion game Tuesday night. They too are expected to field a strong team with sharp-shooters all over the court. The Lions are working their defenses over, and when the opening night rolls 'round, they should be in shape to hold down the visitors and rack up plenty of points themselves.

... a La Non-Eu ...

Another anniversary has come and gone, (sigh!) Wasn't it wonderful, all those Euthalians speaking and singing and debating. Enough of that, however, we are really here to expose a few facts, or fiction. Did you see, one of the housemothers with a date! "May" looked good with son Tommy, didn't she? It looks like our red headed Y. W. A. president finally made up her mind. We saw her with Bobby Hanes Saturday night. Too bad, Jimmy. It afforded something of a surprise to some to see certain people together for anniversary such as David Ray and "Lib" Howard, Lee Franklin and Patsy Ashhurst.

Q. Harper and M. Pope make a good looking couple. Have you noticed how starry eyed she looks lately? Those other Clio-Phi officers seemed to be enjoying themselves on the front rows, too. There were lots of "steadies" there too, Pat and Phoebe, Ned and Doris, Clarence and Vanetta. My goodness, didn't Dean Trivette look handsome with that gold marshal band and brown suit! Too bad he's given his heart to a girl in W-S. Some M. H. girls (who, we shall not mention), will have to look elsewhere. Wasn't that "Mars Hill Ensemble" heavenly at joint meeting Friday? We'll bet that Jack Dyer's date swooned in ecstasy when he announced the numbers for the band.

It looked natural to see Betty Brooks with Hubert Saturday. In fact it looked natural to see all those old CII's back. I guess you all saw "Stu," R. L., Vickie, Pat Ingram, Betty Sue Wilson, Margia Gobble, "Dub" Lane, "Pinky" McLeod, "P. Willie" Lunsford, Elwood (Hold on to your hearts girls) Orr and many others too numerous to mention. "Have you noticed ... ! Ethel T. and Abie Norman are together a lot lately. Someone heard her say she didn't know whether she was in ... or not. Hm! We'll bet Gloria Hovis had to hold on to her seat when Harold Bennett got up to debate. We wonder what Gordon has to make Polly Yandell join Nonpareil when brother Frank joined Philomathia? Ann Dyer and Berkeley Ruiz make a good looking couple don't they? Did you notice, (or were you too busy wondering what made that big book open and shut?) that Clio Joanne Stephens and Phi Roy Beddingfield were together at Eu Anniversary? Rumors are flying. This isn't a rumor though, Hazel Holcomb won't be a Holcomb much longer. Bet she likes the sound of Wilfong.

This just about exhausts ye li'l snoopers of anniversary dirt so we'd better go. May we close with two last pertinent questions? What were Carl Westmoreland and Lib Cherry studying in Edna Moore parlor with Miss Underwood last Monday evening? Was it really history?

program the students and faculty made their annual gift to the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville. Following the chapel service, the Thanksgiving Day dinner, including turkey and all hte'fixings," was served in the college dining hall.

This year the annual football game was not played, as the college closed its season the previous Saturday with the game with Brevard college.
