trict championship, entered the State finals which awarded, as top prize, a scholarship to study at Julliard School of Music in New York city.

For over a month, the Glee Clubs have been preparing for their musical role in Mars Hill's Commencement and Baccalaureate program and All-Music night to be held in the college auditorium Thursday night, May 22.

In addition to the intensive practice schedule, the college singers have outside performances included on the calendar of events for the remainder of the year. Sunday, May 4, Miss Souther's group has a double feature. They will sing at Mt. Holly's First Baptist church eleven o'clock morning worship service, and render an evening performance in Albe-marle.

MAY DAY

Fout, Gretchen Philbeck, Ruth Scroggs, Jo Anne Stevens, and Joyce Wheeler; junior attendants, Lois Keller, Clea Whitaker, Ruth Childs, Polly Ann Yandell, and Betty Pringle; supporting cast, thirty-five to forty, and director, of course, Coach Virginia Hart, undertaking her second year as May Day coordinator.

Three programs which were presented by the group recently included the annual Glee Club spring concert, three performances at Veterans' Administration hospital, Oteen, and an entire service of sacred music at the eleven o'clock Sunday morning hour of Franklin, North Carolina's Baptist church where the Reverend Mr. Charles Parker is pastor.

Decorations, emphasizing the theme, dazzled the eyes from the Oscar E. Sams dining hall bulletin board to the far annex corner. Three trellises with couples representing the past, present, and future adorned the sidewalk and steps leading to the banquet hall. The dining hall, trimmed with the C-Is, green and white colors, was decorated with everything from wagon wheels to pictures, accentuating the occasion. The wagon wheel suspended from the ceiling in the center of the hall. Green and white streamers tapered from every glorified spoke. Behind the speakers' table, three pictures, depicting the past, present, and future, recalled the theme, "Through the Years." Also, in carrying out the theme to the nth degree, favors of green and white calenders were placed at every banquet plate. Three pages of the calendar represented the past, present, and future.

Committee Chairmen

The committee chairmen were: Jean Alexander, decorations; Walter Crawford, construction; Jerry Fields, food; Lois Keller, art; Ruth Childs, poster; Phil Weeks and Bill Smith, entertainment.

C-II Prophecy

—Dot Cox will be a great folk-song singer. (Remember the Varsity Show, Dot?)

—Ann Davis will have a Bunch of happiness.

—Hambone and Carrots will always go well together.

—Orion Townsend will not always Duck in time.

—Hester won't forget a certain "baptism" he experienced.

—John Alexander will always have Joy(ce) in his heart.

—Juan will always be "Cuddled."

—Carl Westmoreland will always love those sweet Georgia Peaches.

—Edna Palmer will have the love in her heart for that man "Ike" for some time.

—Ruth Winfree will manage to get that "Sleepy" guy of hers awake.)

There are many other C-IIs for which we can see wonderful futures ahead; we only wish we could mention all of them. Anyhow, we, the Class of 1948, wish for all of you the very best in the years to come. Good Luck!

a girl's school. The return of the boys brings back old times."

Mr. and Mrs. DeShazo were "dubbed" Mama and Papa De while acting "parents" to Brown and Melrose in 1941. They refer to each other affectionately as Mama De or Papa De. They are both very good tennis players and ardent admirers of the sport. Quiet evenings spent at home together are enjoyed very much by them.
