

MONTAGUE LIBRARY
Mars Hill College

The Hilltop

Published by the Students of Mars Hill College

Volume XXV

MARS HILL, N. C., MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1951

Number 10

IRC To Send Delegation To Meeting

Fourteen members and two advisors of the International Relations Club will represent Mars Hill at the annual regional meeting of this organization. The meeting will be held at Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tenn., on March 2-3, and will feature Dr. Inno Krache, of the University of Kentucky, as the principal speaker.

Two hundred delegates from the Southeastern Region will attend the two day event.

"World Peace and the Communist Menace," the general theme of the meeting, will be discussed in the form of four round table discussion groups. The four topics to be discussed on the panels will include "The Communist Threat in Europe and the Near East," "The Communist Threat in Asia," "Means of Defense Against Communism in the Western Hemisphere," and "Agencies for Combating Communism."

Mars Hill will be represented on the discussion panels by Bob Melvin who will present a paper on Iran, Palestine, and Egypt; Deane Blanton will deliver a reading on the Marshall Plan and James Greene will present a paper on the North Atlantic Pact.

The students who are to attend the meeting from Mars Hill are Anne Dillard, Jewel Beauford, Deane Blanton, James Greene, Edward McGowan Molly Stevens, Barbara Short, Gene Roberts, Henry Lucas, Homer Myers, Bob Elvin, Mary Lee Vickers, George Messley and Evelyn Massey.

Miss Underwood and Mr. Jolley will act as group advisors to the Mars Hill Delegation.

Pictured above are the second semester Honor Club presidents. They are, left to right: Talmadge Penland, I.R.C.; Brooksie McGee, Scriblerus; Mary Burch, Orpheon; Arthur Gillespie, Science; Jeannie Lynn, German; Janieve Mast, La Tertulia; and Doris Shirley, Business. (Jim Reeves, president of the French Club was not present when the picture was made.)

MHC Honor Clubs Initiate One Hundred Four Members

One hundred four students, because of high scholastic standings, obtained the distinction of becoming members of the various honor clubs. These were initiated during the first regular club meetings of the spring semester which were held on Monday and Tuesday nights, February 12-13. New officers have also been elected for the new semester.

New officers of the Orpheon Club are these: Mary Burch, president; Alda Jean Clark, vice-president; Jackie Ammons, secretary; John Humber, treasurer; Carolyn Redding, poster chairman; and Frances Willingham, social chairman.

The following new members were taken into the club; Gaynelle Chandler, Frances Willingham, Jean Luffman, Eugene Hudson, John Humber, Ellen Sprinkle, Edith Plemmons, Norma Jean Banner, Eleanor Gathings, Ruth Lennon, Gerry Ott, Jackie Ammons and Catherine Ray.

The program was based on the loves of three famous composers, Schubert, Schumann, and Grieg, and the influence this had on their compositions. Mary Burch told about Schubert, and Miss Weaver sang his "None but the Lonely Heart." Frances Willingham told about Schuman, and Worth Campbell played his "Traumeri." David Early gave a talk on Grieg, and Mrs. Roberts closed the program by singing his "I Love Thee."

The Scriblerus Club held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Edna Moore parlor. After a welcome by

(Continued on Page 4)

Georgians Give Piano Recital

Troupe Harris, Jr. and Miss Anne Mize, graduate students in the music department of The University of Georgia, will present a piano recital in the college auditorium on Saturday evening, Feb. 24. Mr. Harris was a student at Mars Hill College for one semester in the fall of 1947.

Miss Mize and Mr. Harris will present the following program: "Fugue in G Minor"—Bach; "Allegro from Sonata in C Major"—Mozart; Miss Mize. "Etude," opus 25, no. 10—Chopin; "Nocturne in E Minor"—Chopin; "Scherzo in B Flat Minor"—Chopin; Mr. Harris. "Four Preludes"—Debussy; Mr. Harris. And "Concert Etude (Un Sospiro)"—Liszt; "Rush Hour In Hong Kong"—Chasins; "Malaguena—Lecuona;" Miss Mize.

Harris And Gill Lead Emphasis Week Services

Home Ec Club To Sponsor Fashion Show

Mars Hill Home Economics Club will sponsor a fashion show in the Non-Eu Hall, February 28, at 8:00 P.M.

The show will feature garments made by Vogue patterns from Ivey's fabrics by the yard and modeled by Ivey models. Garments made in the Home Economics classes will also be shown.

Mr. Ralph P. Grant, general manager of Ivey's, or Mr. Garrett, also employed by Ivey's, is expected to attend and introduce Mrs. Turner, who is the buyer of fabrics for Ivey's third floor fabric department. The decorations for the fashion show will be furnished by Ivey's. Mrs. Turner is in charge of the fashion show and will introduce the models. Garments to be modeled include dresses, suits, evening clothes, and sports wear. Mother-daughter costumes will be among the clothes modeled, also.

All college students, faculty and families, and the community people are invited to attend. The program will last about one hour, after which refreshments will be served in Wall 35.

Students Attend Charlotte Meet

Sixteen members of the Mars Hill Ministerial Conference and Dr. Blackwell attended the Evangelistic Conference in Charlotte February 13-14.

Dr. J. C. Canipe, the State Baptist Convention Secretary of Evangelism, directed the conference, which was North Carolina's preliminary to the Simultaneous Crusade.

There was a very high spiritual note sounded, and each session was charged with evangelistic fervor. Dr. A. J. Criswell closed the conference.

(Continued on Page 3)

Religious Emphasis Week was launched by Rev. Harlan Harris Monday morning in the chapel service as he urged in a soul-searching message the keeping out of pride, perverseness, and riches in Christian lives and the giving to God the pre-eminence at all times.

The first evening service was led by Dr. Everett Gill, who brought a challenging message showing that Christians have a story to tell to the world. Joanne Greene sang "Speak to My Heart, Lord Jesus." A student choir furnished music Monday night and throughout the week.

The theme for the week—"My Life, His Plan, Our Mission"—was carried out in that the students on campus were concerned with "My Life"; Rev. Harris presented "God's Plan," and Dr. Gill, "Our Mission."

Rev. Harris came to the campus from the First Baptist Church of Shelby, N. C. Dr. Gill is working with the Foreign Mission Board. The two men conducted chapel services every day and held conferences each afternoon. They alternated as speakers at the evening worship services held each night during the week.

Council Places Revival Leaders

According to John Wells, chairman of the Mission Council, the Council is helping with the placing of persons in churches during the Simultaneous Revival Crusade. All students who have planned to spend their spring holidays in this manner have been urged by the Religious Life and Training Committee and by the Mission Council to report this for the files.

New officers of the Mission Council who were elected at the beginning of second semester are Albert Leath, Oteen Chairman; Douglas Newton, Weaverville chairman; and Jim Green, Sunday Service Chairman.

Temperance Council Collects Trinkets For Foreign Missions

In Room 111 of Spilman Dormitory there is the wide variety of articles collected by the Youth Temperance Council. Books, clothing, sewing supplies, toys, toilet articles and jewelry were collected from the students on the campus. The woolen clothing will be sent to Indians on the Cherokee Reservation. Part of the summer clothing will be sent to Japan. Mrs. George S. Hargrave of Lumberton, North Carolina, will receive the remainder of the articles to be distributed among forty foreign missions.

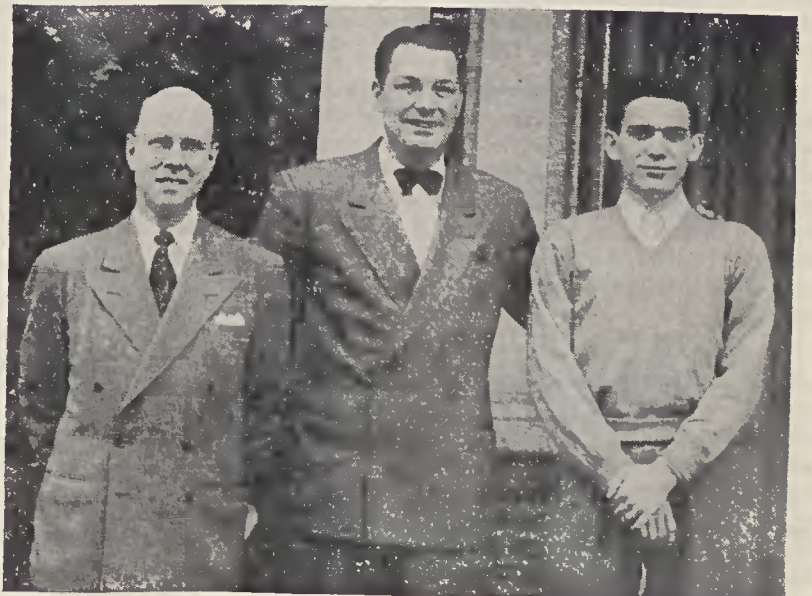

"Mother Lane" takes the cards that have been given and rebeautifies them to be sent to hospitals in the Philippines. She removes the names and writes verses of scripture on their blank pages.

Some students who had no articles to give donated money. A few of the collected articles will be sold and added to this offering. The money will be used to support the Bible School in India.

Bowers And Parks Tie Marriage Knot

Miss Indie Bowers and Marine Pfc. Julian Parks were married on February 17 at Littleton, N. C. The couple are spending their honeymoon in Williamsburg, Va.

Indie and Julian were both students here last year. Julian was elected as C-II class president and as chief marshal, but he was called back into the Marine Corps and is now stationed at Camp LeJeune.

Pictured above are: Dr. Everett Gill, the Rev. Harlan Harris, and Bob Melvin, president of the B.S.U.