IRC Delegation Attend Meeting

Thirteen members of the IRC, accompanied by Miss Evelyn Underwood, Miss Pearl Francis, and Mr. Harley Jolley, journeyed to Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tennessee, March 1 and 2. Mars Hill, the only junior college represented at the IRC Conference, had the largest delegation of any visiting school.

In addition to participating on the program and attending meetings, the group drove over the Wilderness Trail through historic Cumberland Gap. They also visited Norris Dam and the Atomic Energy Museum at Oak Ridge.

They were entertained at lunch at the home of Miss Francis in LaFollette, Tennessee.

Literary Societies Elect Officers

Ralph Hunt Replaces R. F. Smith

Euthalia held its election of officers for the Commencement term Friday night, March 2, 1951. A short regular meeting preceded the election, a musical "Radio Program" was presented. George Bobo acted as Master of Ceremonies, with Walter Schlechter, Peterson, Everett Gill, Gene Adson, Arno Stahle, J. C. Mainer, and John Crouch and John Hatcher aiding him.

In the election, Ralph Hunt stepped up from secretary to replace R. F. Smith as president. Odell Breland advanced from member to vice-president, the position which Ed Dowdy held for the preceding term. Brent Kincaid was elected secretary, with Grimes Mason as chaplain and John Hatcher as censor.

Dramateers Stage Drama

"Escape by Moonlight," a play written by Kenneth Crotty, was presented last Friday night, March 8, in the Rivermont Playhouse. Vicky Ogle was the producer and director of the psychological drama.

The cast included Betty Ann Turner who played the part of Kathy, a young girl whose mind is warped into believing that her sweetheart, Jeffrey Flynn, played by Tommy Olive, is not dead, although he has been killed.

Ken Byrd, playing the part of the family physician, Dr. Hartwell, tries to persuade her that her fiancé is dead. Others in the one-act production were Rose Carol Atkinson, the elevator girl, and Anna Hoyle, the telephone operator.

Charlie Tomlinson was the set designer and technical director; Paul Everhart, stage manager; Anna Hoyle, costume designer; and Rose Atkinson, make-up director. The stage crew consisted of Earline Collier, Ken Byrd and Bernard Williams.

Clios Elect Sara Swann President

Clio Literary Society elected their Commencement term officers of the year. Sarah Ellen Swann will serve as Clio president. Sarah Ellen is from Statesville. She served as Clio censor the C-I term and as Vice-president the Forensic Term. She is also a member of IRC.

Mary Evelyn Luttrell, who is from Knoxville, Tenn, will be Clios new vice-president. Mary Evelyn was the chaplain of Clio prior to her election to the vice-presidency. Carol Richardson, from Whitehead, was elected secretary. Carol is a mission volunteer; she is a member of IRC, corresponding secretary for the Y. W. A., and she has served as treasurer of Clio. Berniece Limer, from Norlina, was elected censor; Berniece is on the Y. W. A. Council and is Business manager of the Hilltop. Alice Cook, of Clinton, will serve as the new Clio chaplain. Alice is a member of the Scriblerus Club and an all-A student.

"Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" Cast for April 14

Production date for "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," is April 14. Dramatized by Jean Kerr from the book by Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, the play tells of the adventures of the authors when they, at the age of nineteen, made their first trip abroad — alone. The parents, fearful for their children's safety, might well have spent more time worrying about the ship's passengers and damage expenses.

The characters are in order of appearance as follows: Steward, Bill Bowen; Mrs. Skinner, Ruth Durham; Cornelia Otis Skinner, Joan Schwab; Otis Skinner, Harold England; Emily Kimbrough, Betty Winchester; Purser, Ralph Riley; Stewardess, Margaret Morgan; Dick Winters, Norman Fritter; Admiral, Glen Holt; Harriet St. John, Helen Scarborough; Winifred Blough, Marie Ellis; Leo McEvoy, Everett Gill; Inspector, Jessie Thompson; Therese, Patsy Stubbs; Madame Elise, Mary Ellen Holloman; Monsieur de la Croix, Willis Pence; Window Cleaner, Arno Stahle.

Settings and lighting will be done by Ted Fulp. Prompting will be done by Bonnie Hulsey. Publicity is by Joan Schwab and Ever-
