CONGRATULATIONS

The Hilltop

runcasue Lioran

Published by the Students of Mars Hill College

MARS HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1953

olume XXVII

2, 19

n

in

y

and,

on;

nied

iza "

ege

TE

Cat

D

r

ectar Debate Team Ends forensic Season With High Honors

The Mars Hill debate team oncluded its forensic season by only aking third place honors at the outheastern Debate Tournament, entreld in Atlanta, Ga., May first n, and second, and sponsored by Emrs My University. In addition, Barrationara Saunders was awarded a troern why for second place speaker on he negative side, and Dudley Romith received a similar trophy on roup de affirmative side.

Among the teams participating the tournament were the Uniersity of Tennessee, Davidson ollege, Georgia Tech, Moreouse College, Mercer University, mory University, University of outh Carolina, and Wofford Colcted A resume of the year's activities debating includes the Grand ational Forensic Tournament at ^{ledericksburg,} Va., April 1-5, ^{lonsored} by Mary Washington ^{ollege,} where Barbara Saunders hampion in Response to the Oc-tee Sion. Mary Jane White was ad-, Janged Grand National Champion Court Informative Speech for Women, Vine d the negative team was award-d, Ma certificate of merit certifying ons, etc as one of the "Big Five" de-

At the South Atlantic Tournant, sponsored by Lenoir-Rhyne ggers llege March 5-7, Mars Hill won mber the out of fourteen debates. ficers At the Mountain Tournament,

d. Gonsored by Appalachian State Iars tacher's College December 5-6, nittee Arbara Saunders took first place ors in impromptu speaking, secplace in the women's division debating, and first place in the cerlomen's division of radio announcand after-dinner speaking. ary Jane White took first place the women's division of extem-^{taneous} speaking and second in women's division of impromptu ^{raking.} Dudley Smith was

(Continued on Page 4)

1H Camera Club

Appearing above are the 1953 commencement marshals, chosen by a Appearing above are the 1953 commencement marsnals, chosen by a committee from the faculty on the basis of scholarship, campus citizen-ship, and personality. They are, from left to right descending the stair, first row: Gena Jo Fant, Jacquelyn Roberts, Ruth Poston, Peggy Huss, Charles Bobo, and Barbara Barr. Back row: Tom Waller (chief mar-shal), Heyward Moore, Bill Ferguson, Janet Spangler, Kenneth Free-man, Dottie Phillips, James Potts, and Bobby Coley.

Society Day To Highlight Commencement Week

Mars Hill's annual Society Day will be held Saturday, May 30, beginning with the inter-society contests in the college auditorium.

Representing Euthalia in the oration contest will be John Lee and representing Philomathia will be Clinnie Redick. In the declamation contest. Ray Rogers will represent Eu, and Tom Waller will represent Phi. Betty Wyatt and Dottie Phil-

Honor Clubs Elect Semester Officers

Honor Club officers for fall semester 1953-54 have been elected. Presiding in IRC for next year will be Heyward Moore. Vicepresident will be Geno Jo Fant; Carolyn Black, social secretary; Frances Gardner, secretary; and Geraldine Simmons, hostess.

Officers for the French Club include Laurena Hardin, presi-dent; Grace Savage, vice-president; and Mildred Scroggs, secretary. Scriblerus has chosen Rachel Baird as their president; Dan Pace, vicepresident; and Amy Fisher, secretary.

The German Club will have Charles Green as president; Gary Tilman, vice-president; and Betty Pike, secretary. Peggy Huss will be president for the Business Club, assisted by Charles Bobo, vice-president: Iane Cook, secretary; and

Dr. G. F. Palmer To Speak To Graduating Class, June 1 Diplomas Awarded To 170 Seniors

Dr. Gordon F. Palmer of Los Angeles, Calif., lecturer and educator, will address the approximately 170 students in the graduating class at the 1953 commencement exercises to be held Monday, June 1, at 9:45 a.m. in the college auditorium.

Choir To Present Concert May 31

The Touring Choir will present its final concert of the year in the Mars Hill Baptist Church Sunday evening, May 31, following the Baccalaureate Sermon that morning.

The Choir has presented over station WWNC in Asheville, two broadcasts during the past month, the first on April 18, and the second on May 2.

On April 22, the choir made their final trip of the season to Western North Carolina Teacher's College at Cullowhee, where they presented a concert and were later guests of the college at a tea. Monigan Baptist Church and Park Baptist Church, both in Greenville, S. C., were hosts to the choir on April 19. A program of spiritual and secular music was presented at Lee Edwards High School in Asheville April 14.

The main event in the choir's year was the spring tour, which included concerts in schools and churches in North Carolina, Virginia, and Washington, D. C. Parents of several members of the choir entertained the group during the tour.

Three Girls To Give Graduating Recitals

The music faculty will present Wilda Bell, Kay Hooper, and Julianne Sinclair in the final graduating recital Monday night, May 18, at 8 o'clock, in the college auditorium. The three sopranos are pupils of Miss Dorothy Weaver.

Dr. Palmer is the son-in-law of the late M. C. Treat, for whom Treat dormitory is named. He was born in Cambridgeshire, England, and took his degree from the Berkeley Divinity School. He also studied at Rochester Theological Seminary.

He was pastor of churches in Michigan, and in Los Angeles and Pomona, California. From 1936 through 1948, he was president of the Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Philadelphia. He is a former president of the Northern Baptist Convention and a member of the International Religious Education Council.

Dr. Palmer is also a life member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, a member of the American Council on Public Relations, a trustee of

Dr. Gordon F. Palmer

Literary Societies Select C-I Officers

GRADUATES

Exhibit Prints LIO

The Mars Hill College Camera will climax their opening t of operation with an exhibiof prints taken and developed members of the club to be held he sun parlors of Spilman Dorory tomorrow and through next All prints will be judged ^{ore} being placed in the exhibit. addition to the prints on disa series of color slides will shown on the opening day of exhibit. A table-top display deing the photographing, developand printing processes involv-^h photographic work will also n exhibit.

Il prints, both color and blackwhite, will be accompanied by contest rating, the name of photographer, the type camera etc. The judges for the conhave not yet been selected.

Joanne Watson, treasurer.

Officers for the Science Club are Dick Hughes, president; Ruth Poston, vice-president; Al Emory, secretary; John Blake, treasurer; and Alicia Osteen and Mary Ann Elliot, social chairmen.

Those for the Spanish Club are Sybil Lennon, president; Nancy Lowder, vice-president; Marie Smith, secretary; and Bob Fulbright, treasurer.

The Bible Honor Club will be initiated next year, giving a total of nine Honor Clubs on our campus. This club will not be affiliated with the religious activities of the campus, but will be classified as an honor club with M. H. Kendall as adviser. The aim of the club is to study more thoroughly the details of the Bible and the ancient times of the Greeks, Romans, and Hebrews, which can

(Continued on Page 4)

Boys' Dormitories Elect Fall Officers

lips will represent Clio in the dramatic readings, and Harriet Rudd and Phinalia Blackstone will rep-

will be the inter-society debate held Saturday evening at 8:30.

The national debate query, which is, "Resolved, that the Congress of the United States should enact compulsory Fair Employment

Practices Legislation," will be used. Dudley Smith and Bill Jones will defend the affirmative for Philomathia, while Walter Campbell and Ira Green will support

Temperance reading contests in both boys' and girls' societies have already been held. On May 4, Violet Overton of Clio won first place, and Betty King, also of Clio, placed second for the girls. On

May 6, Euthalia's Eugene Lawrence placed first and Philoma-

(Continued on Page 4)

the negative side for Euthalia.

Highlight of the competition resent Nonpareil.

House officers for next year have been elected in all three of the boys' dormitories. They are as follows:

In Brown, Ed Johnson is president and Charles Hughes is vicepresident. Al Emory was elected secretary - treasurer, and Ronell Owensby will assume the duties of chaplain.

New house president in Melrose is Heyward Moore. Joe Murray is vice-president; Emmet Elledge, secretary-treasurer; and Owen Hunt, chaplain.

In Treat, Ward Burch is president; Charles Green is vice-president; Gary Tillman is secretarytreasurer; and Jimmy Ballard and John Madison are joint chaplains.

Wilda will sing "Alleluja" by Mozart, "Les Berceaux" by Faure, 'Ouvre tes Yeux Bleus" by Massenat, "The Statue" by Cui, "Bal-lynure Ballad" by Hughes, and "Take Joy Home" by Bassett.

Kay will sing "Connais-tu le Pays" by Thomas, "Andenken" by Beethoven, "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal" by Quilter, "My Johann" by Grieg, "I Passed by Your Window" by Brahe, and "My Soul's Been Anchored in de Lord" by Price.

Julianne will sing "Batti, Batti" by Mozart, "Dear Nussbaum" by Schumann, "Air Vif" by Paulenc, "Lady of the Amber Wheat" by Dittenhaver, "I Know Where I'm Going" arranged by Hughes, "Come Away Death" by Quilter, and "Love's Philosophy" by Quilter.

C-I officers were elected by the four societies at their regular meetings April 30, and May 1

Clio will be headed by Joanne Nixon. Dot Childers is vice-president; Charlotte Venable, secretary: and Phyllis Ware, censor. Betty Wyatt is chaplain.

Paul Stouffer will lead the Phis. with Mitchell Carnell as vice-president. Paul Johnson and Bob Coley will act as secretary and censor respectively.

In Nonpareil, Virginia Lake is the new president. Pat Loving and Mary Frances Cowart will serve as vice-presidents. Alva Wallace is secretary; Edna Smith, censor; and Faye White, chaplain.

David Morrow will lead Euthalia, and Bill Ferguson will serve as vice-president. Palmer Mills is secretary; Dewey Young, censor; and Gene Lawrence, chaplain.