Delegation Attends BSU Convention In Winston-Salem

A delegation of 112 Mars Hill students are attending the B.S.U. convention in Winston-Salem this week-end. Of this group, there are 54 C-I's and 58 C-II's, accompanied by Misses Edith Swann and Caroline Biggers as chaperones. Those attending have qualified by being active in religious activities on the campus, and by doing good work in their classes.

Iris Jo Cundiff, Janice Edwards, Jim Otis, and Doris Wardlaw were selected to sing in the State B.S.U. Choir. They sang at the 11:30 session this morning and will sing again tonight at the 7:30 session of the Convention. Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock, they will sing in the First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, wearing the choir robes of the Winston-Salem Church. This will be the final session of the Convention.

Another group of Mars Hillians will sing in the Sunday morning service in the Reverend W. R. Wagoner's Church, Winston-Salem. They are: Barbara Barr, Harold Collier, Jim Grant, Bob Hensley, Doris May, Joanne Nixon, Marion Rector, and Spurgenia Rutland.

The College Touring Choir will sing at the First Baptist Church in Greensboro on Tuesday morning, preceding an address by Dr. Frank Laubach, noted author and lecturer. The forty-two member choir will sing "Sanctus" by Gounod, and "The Creation" by Richter. Mrs. Dorothy Roberts will direct the group and Miss Pearl Francis will be the accompanist.

Katie Katsarka of Salonic, Greece, was soloist at the Friday evening meeting of the Convention. She sang "The Stranger of Galilee."

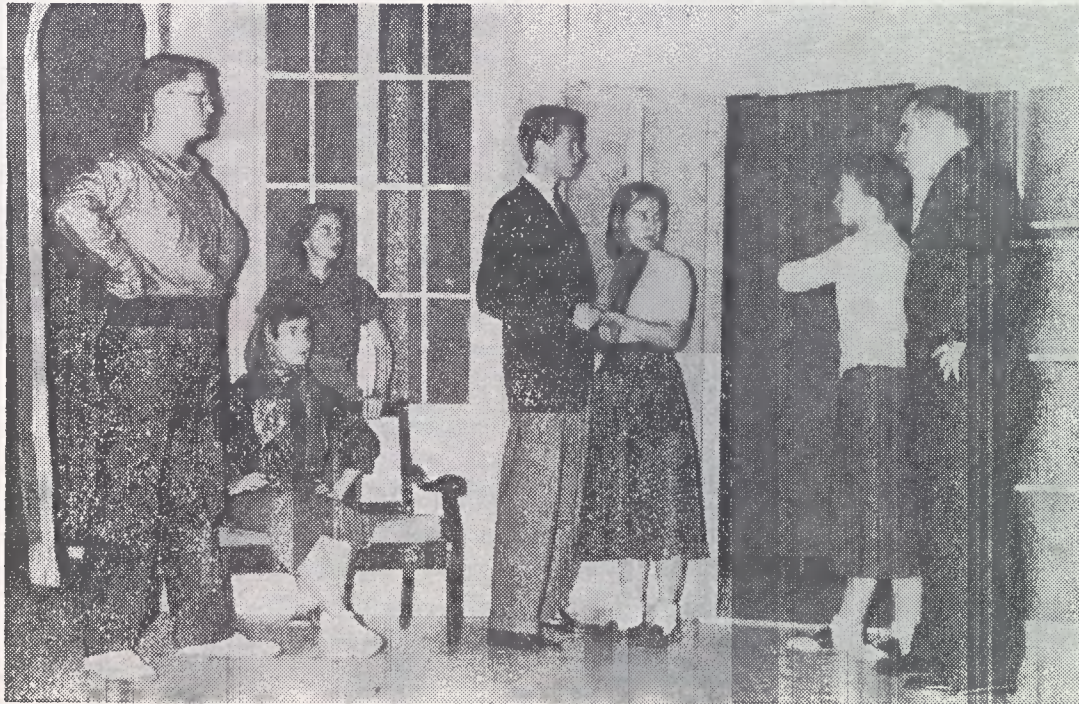

The group is expected to return Sunday evening about 8 o'clock.

Bible Honor Club Chooses Officers

At an organizational meeting of the newly instituted Bible Honor club, on October 12, Nancy Porter was elected president. Sponsors of the club are M. H. Kendall and Raymond Nelson, both of the college Bible Department.

Other officers chosen are Muriel Huffstickler, vice-president; Barbara Newton, secretary-treasurer; Paul Johnson, chaplain; Alberta Vance, social chairman; and Bill Wallace, publicity and poster chairman.

The second meeting of the club will be held in Spilman parlor on November 9. The subject for discussion will be "Translations of the Bible." Anyone eligible for membership in the club is invited to attend this meeting.

Tweedles Cast Complete; Rehearsals Are Underway

Cast and stage crews for the Dramateer's annual fall production, "Tweedles," are now complete, and rehearsals are well underway as the production date of Tuesday, November 17 draws closer.

The nine-member cast of the play includes Florrie Patrick as Mrs. Ricketts; Violet Overton as Mrs. Albergone, Elizabeth Powell as Winsora, Howard Webb as Julian, Dale Johnson as Mrs. Castlebury, LaVerne Hinson as Mr. Castlebury, Carl Baker as Tweedles, Dick Agee as Ambrose, and James Parton as Philemon.

Chanticleers To Give Tonight's Program

The Chanticleers, a male quartet composed of four former soloists of the Robert Shaw Chorale, will be presented in the auditorium tonight at 8:00 o'clock as part of the college lyceum program. The quartet will offer a program of folk songs, spirituals, operatic and musical comedy excerpts, and solo numbers.

Included in tonight's program will be such compositions as: Schuman's "Holiday Song"; Verdi's "La donna e mobile" from Rigoletto; the "Gershwin Fantasy"; Bizet's "Flower Song"; and the quartet's theme song, "Song of the Chanticleer." Along the more popular line will be: "There's Nothing Like A Dame," from South Pacific; "You'll Never Walk Alone," from Carousel; "They Call The Wind Maria," from Paint Your Wagon; "Deep River"; and "MacNamara's Band."

Organized in the fall of 1952, the Chanticleers adopted their name from the Chaucerian character in the Nun's Priest's Tale, who wooed his favorite dame by singing "merrier than a mermaid in the sea," and who, "in all the land, for crowing," had no peer. Members of the group are Michael Carolan, tenor; Richard Wright, second tenor; Raymond Keast, baritone; and Thornton Marker, bass.

Michael Carolan is a native of Oregon and a winner of Arthur Godfrey's talent scout contest. He has studied at the Mannes College of Music in New York. Richard Wright is a graduate of the Ober-

Clio, Phi Will Hold Joint Meeting Friday

The joint meeting of the Clio and Philomathia literary societies will be held Friday evening at eight o'clock in the auditorium, when the C-I officers of both societies will participate. Joanne Nixon, as Clio C-I president will preside.

Planned by Mitchell Carnell and Dot Childers, the program will consist of a debate, dramatic readings, poetry readings and a finale. The meeting has been postponed twice due to mid-semester examinations; hence the C-I officers participate, even though their term of office has expired.

The Anniversary joint meeting of the two societies will be held in the auditorium on the evening following Thanksgiving, in order that the returning Clios and Phis who are on campus for homecoming may attend. Mitchell Carnell, as Anniversary president, will preside; and the program will be planned by Paul Johnson and Barbara Barr. Nonpareil and Euthalian officers will be guests at both meetings; and members of all societies, as well as non-members, are invited to attend both meetings.

B.T.U. Announces Study Course Plan

The annual Training Union Study Course will be taught on November 16-20 during the regular chapel hour. Sixteen books are being offered on subjects which cover everything from music to marriage. "These courses will be extensive, inspirational, and informative for the entire student body," stated Ken Freeman, Training Union Director.

Fred Scott, a state training union worker, will teach the Training Union Manual; Miss Mildred Thomas of Asheville, The Baptist Young People's Administration; Lowell F. Sodeman will conduct the course in Training In Church Membership; while Elwood Roberts will offer a new book entitled Technique of Conducting.

Funds To Be Given For New Buildings

In order to meet the conditions of a proposed gift from an anonymous donor of $250,000 with which to build a new library, the trustees and other friends of Mars Hill College have drawn up and published a resolution in the October 24 issue of the Biblical Recorder to the effect that they seek approval to borrow an additional $250,000 to build a new dormitory for men. Announced for the first time in this issue of the Recorder, the plan asks for the approbation of the State Baptist Convention to borrow the sum, in order that certain friends of the college may contribute the money for the library.

In addition to the $500,000 which will go into the two buildings, approximately $65,000 is to be provided for equipment and furnishings. Arrangements have been made to borrow the $250,000 at an interest rate of four per cent,

Plans Underway For Thanksgiving

Plans are now being made for the annual homecoming activities which will be held on Thanksgiving day, Thursday, November 26. Included in these plans are the Homecoming football game, crowning of the Homecoming queen and football queen, the annual Thanksgiving pageant, and the Euthalian Literary Society's Anniversary program.

The traditional Thanksgiving pageant sponsored by the Baptist Student Union executive council will be presented at 10:45 a.m., Thursday, November 26. Carl Mears, President of the Alumni Association will bring greetings. The Reverend Lowell F. Sodeman will be the speaker and music will be furnished by the Men's and Women's Glee Clubs, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Poplin.

The mixed glee clubs will sing "Prayer of Thanksgiving," "America the Beautiful" (Lester), and "God of Our Fathers" (Warren). "Recessional" (Kipling) will be sung by the Women's glee club. Iris Jo Cundiff is pianist for these two organizations.

Kick-off time for the Homecoming game between Asheville-Biltmore Bulldogs and the Mars Hill Mountain Lions is set for 2:30 p.m. At this game a Homecoming queen elected by the students and a football queen elected by the team will be presented in

Honor Clubs To Hold Meetings This Week

Honor clubs will held their second meeting of the year on Monday and Tuesday nights of next week, with new members attending the regular programs for the first time.

The Business club, meeting on Tuesday night, will present a program built around the theme "Looking at Men in Business." Opportunities in the fields of secretarial work, internal auditing, public accounting, etc., will be discussed, and short sketches of "big men" will be given.

Scriblerus, the English honor club, plans a program to be held at the home of Mrs. Watson and centered around Wordsworth and the Lake Country. The motif will be that of the traditional English tea, and the interior will be patterned after Dove Cottage, the home of Wordsworth. Appropriate music will furnish a background for the meeting, and Mr. DeShazo will read several of Wordsworth's poems.

"Germany" will be the subject of the International Relations club meeting, where a panel discussion will be held on the topics "East Germany and the Communist Control," "West Germany," "German Union and Peace Settlement," and "Germany and the European Army."

The French club will have Mr. Joe Chris Robertson as guest speaker on the subject of the mechanics of French art. Club members will give short commentaries in French on different pieces of French art.

Thanksgiving music down through the years will be the basis for the Orpheon club program.

Other clubs had not planned their programs as the paper went to press.
