

Faith at Work

By Shirley Bradley

A New Year banquet was presented by the general officers of the Sunday School for the teachers, presidents, and guests such as M. H. Kendall; Holland Kendall, who was on the program; Miss Irene Olive; and Mr. Emmette Sams, Sunday School Superintendent. This event, given on January 7, in the blue room of the cafeteria, was one of the first of its kind ever to be given on Mars Hill campus and it is hoped that it will be an annual affair.

The duties of the various officers of a Sunday School class were presented during the general assembly program of January 10. Those on the program were David Pittman, Pat Loving, Palmer Mills, Doug Spenser, Nancy Porter, Colleen Pate, Sarah Adams, and Violet Overton. Nominating committees were appointed in the various classes. New officers will be elected on January 17. $1606 was presented to the church during the evening service on January 10. David Pittman made the presentation of this money for the building fund of the new church on behalf of the teachers and members of the college Sunday School classes.

A meeting of the Ministerial Conference was held Thursday night, January 7. "The Greatest of These Is Love," was the theme. David Morrow was the speaker. Rodolph Dixon read the Scripture, and a solo was sung by J. C. Boone. Tony Stafford was song leader. A testimony was given by Homer Green.

"Let There Be Light: Another Year Has Dawned" was the theme for the monthly general meeting of the Y. W. A. held January 8, 1954. The forty-one girls present received a challenge to live more fully dedicated to the task that is set before them. All Y. W. A.'s are urged to make plans to attend the Y. W. A. banquet to be held in February. This is one of the biggest activities of the Y. W. A. year.

Boys, plan now to attend the Brotherhood meeting on January 28, when Dr. Holt will be guest speaker.

Mission Trips

The leaders at Oteen last Sunday were Claire Buckner, Jimmy Ballard and Charles Miller. The speakers were Jim Otis, and Tom Waller. In Claire Buckner's ward five volunteers gave testimonies on "What God Meant to Me in 1953." Jim Otis and Jackie Hull sang solos in the chapel service. The soloists in the wards were Vincie Kilpatrick, and Jim Grant. Pianists were Doris Wardlaw, Iris Jo Cundiff, and Molly Parish. Gene Allen spoke on "Our Course of Life for 1954," on the radio program.

Those going to Marshall on Sunday were Tommy Pierce, Kim Cole, James Blackwelder, Ivan Joslin, Calvin Metcalf and Paul Johnson. Jim Otis was speaker.

Dan Pace was speaker at the colored church. Testimonies were given by Marshall Wilson and Phyllis Anderson. Paul Johnson led in prayer and special music was given by Marie Smith. Rachael Baird, Mildred Fulfer, and Phyllis Anderson. Calvin Metcalf presided.

Debate Group Attends NGC Practice Debate

Four members of the Mars Hill Forensic Club represented the college in a practice debate at North Greenville Junior College on January 8.

In the afternoon, Leon Rooke and Kim Cole debated the affirmative of the national query, "Resolved: That the United States Should Adopt a Policy of Free Trade," against the Greenville negative side.

As a lyceum number that evening, Bert McBride and Mitchell Carnell debated the negative side against the North Greenville affirmative. Mr. Jolley, the forensic coach, accompanied the group to Greenville.

Other practise debates are being scheduled in order to prepare the teams for the tournaments that come later in the spring.

Radio

(Continued from Page 1)

Pearl Francis, Mrs. Donald Cox, Miss Evelyn Underwood, and Don Henderson. Ramon De Shazo is in charge of radio programs, while Ralph Ashworth is in charge of those on TV.

Anyone who feels that he has talent worth recording is urged to see Dr. Holt, Mr. DeShazo, or Mr. Ashworth.

Intramurals

(Continued from Page 3)

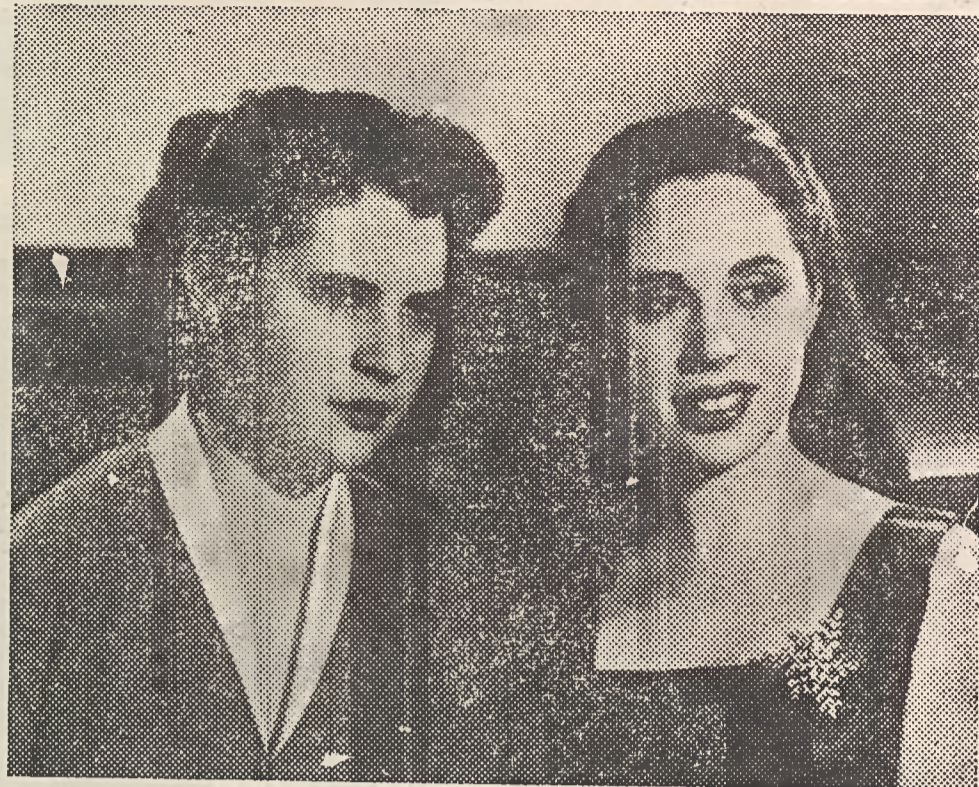

away from the Landers team in the first quarter and were never headed. Fred Young collected 20 points to lead the scoring. Joe Murray was outstanding in rebounding for the Rebels, who missed 6 foot 3 inch Bob Barrier on the backboards. Landers was playing without the services of their center Hubert Douglass. Substitute Bill Wallace led the scoring with 8 points. Wilson scored 7 points for them. John Thomas hit 9 for C-II.

The Preachers, with everyone in their lineup scoring, racked Brown 43-27 in the second game of the afternoon. Paul Johnson was high man for them with 9 points. Almost everyone on the team, however, scored 5 or 6 points. Simmons was high man for the game, scoring 13 points in the losing sauce. He was followed by Dillard with 8. The Funderburke and Johnson combination was too much as the Preachers jumped to a quick lead and held it throughout the game.

The dark horse Town team rallied to roll to a 28-23 victory over the Treat Sons in the third game. Led by Ben Davis' 11 points and good rebounding, the Town boys proved too much for Treat. Hiatt scored 7 points and Long 6 for the winners. Harold Kirby hit the hoop for 7 in the losing game.

In the final game the Eus upset Melrose, 32-16 as all the society boys added a few points to the total. Joslin, Crisp, and Jones had 6 each for high scoring honors. The Eus outfought the Melrose

VIOLIN AND PIANO PLAYERS

SYLVIA AND IRENE ROSENBERG

Senior Class Elects Sixteen Superlatives Pianist, Violinist Present Concert

The Class of '54 elected its sixteen superlatives December 15, from a ballot drawn up by the Laurel staff.

The title of Ideal Mars Hillian went to Pat Loving and Palmer Mills, while that of Best All-Round was won by Dot Childers and Paul Johnson. Most Likely to Succeed was won by Nan Long and Ken Freeman, and the title of Campus Leaders went to Janice Edwards and Tom Funderburke.

Joan Nixon and Art Fore were elected Friendliest; Betty Ward and Tom Waller, Most Original; and Barbara Barr and Benny Barr, Best Looking. Judged Most Popular on campus were Lou Mary Switzer and Skeeter McCauley, while Charlotte Venable and David Odum were Most Athletic. Bert McBride and Bob Allen were elected cutest; Dottie Phillips and Emmett Elledge were Most Versatile; Amy Fisher and Dean Propst were Most Studious; and Carolyn Royal and Douglas Spencer were Wittiest.

The title of Class Monkey was taken by Clara Brincefield and David ("Goone") McKee. Kathy Yates and Sidney Brandon were Most Nonchalant.

team, and after getting the lead were never headed. Joe Petree and George Seel tied for scoring honors for the losers with 5 points each.

CII's (62) (32) Preachers Godshall (15) F (11) Britt Young (22) F Freeman Thomas (12) C (6) Owenby Murray (8) G (2) McKee Johnson (1) G (6) Funderburke

Subs - CII: Snider (4), R. Young. Preachers: Caldwell (2), Metcalf, Smith, Johnson (4), Pierce (1).

Treat (21) (33) Landers Kirby (3) F (8) Ray Todd (1) F (10) Wilson McCall (4) C (15) Douglass Orchit (1) G Hughes Ward (8) G (2) Johnson

Subs - Treat: Rooke (3), Miller (1). Landers: Toney, Painter.

CII's (47) (19) Landers Godshall (6) F (7) Wilson (Continued in Column 5)

Irene and Sylvia Rosenberg, pianist and violinist, presented a program of classical and popular music on Wednesday, January 13, in the college auditorium. These sisters have in the past toured the United States and Europe individually and as a team. Irene Rosenberg has appeared in New York's Town Hall recitals, and with such organizations as the Chicago Symphony.

Several major music awards have been given to Sylvia Rosenberg for her violin performances. Among these are the YMHA Young Artist Award in New York City, the Detroit Music Study Club Award, and the Michaels Memorial Award. She made her debut with the Chicago Symphony last summer.

This duo is now undertaking a tour of the South which will continue until spring when Sylvia Rosenberg will be heard with the Montgomery Symphony in Alabama as soloist during April.

Honor Clubs

(Continued from Page 1) the club. The subject of the program was "Charlemagne, King of France." Among those taking part were Cathy Yates, Betty Jo Huskins, and Carolyn Hutchinson.

The German Club met in the home of Mrs. Cornelia Vann on Tuesday evening, where Britt Hudson opened the program with a devotional in German. Also featured was a song in German by Martha Swanson, and a talk on German New Year customs by Sue Waldrop.

News Briefs

(Continued from Page 1) Mars Hill College were drawn up by Henry Irvin Gaines and Six Associates of Asheville. The building will be a three story structure,

HAPPY NEW YEAR!
CHARLIE'S
Shoe Service

Jantzen-Bermuda Sweaters
Blue Bell Wranglers
B. F. Goodrich Rubber Footwear
Mojud Hose
YOU'RE ALWAYS WELCOME AT
COX DEPT. STORE
MARS HILL ... NORTH CAROLINA

Societies Choose Third-Term Heads

Gene Lawrence was elected, at a recent meeting of the Euthalian Society, to serve as president for the Forensic team. Macal Ezell was chosen vice-president and Dean Propst, secretary. Rex Robertson and John Madison will serve Euthalia as censor and chaplain, respectively.

Paul Johnson is the new president of Philomathia, with Emmett Elledge as vice-president. Tom Waller is secretary and Bob Wyatt is censor. Douglas Spencer is Phi chaplain.

Linda Bridgers was elected president of Nonpareil, while Faye White and Bert McBride are new third-term vice-presidents. Jean Cooper is secretary, Judy Northern is censor, and Claire Buckner is chaplain.

President Betty Wyatt presides over Clio's hall, and Amy Fisher is vice-president. Dotty Phillips is secretary, Clara Brincefield is censor, and Nancy Porter is chaplain.

Youngs (20) F (4) Clevenger Thomas (9) C Powers Murray (8) G Hughes Johnson (2) G Johnson

Subs - CII: R. Young, G. Thomas (2), Snyder. Landers: Wallace (8), Painter, Toney.

Preachers (43) (27) Brown Freeman (4) F Bachelor Owensby (5) F (13) Simmons Caldwell (3) C (2) Poteat Funderburke (7) G (8) Dillard Johnson (9) G (4) Long Subs - Preachers: Jenkins (6), Metcalf (6), Whetstone (2), McKee, Pierce (30). Brown: Briers, Webb, Myers, Stafford, Reid.

Treat (23) (28) Town Green F Travatian Rooke F Stoop McCall (4) C (11) Davis Kirby (7) G (7) Hiatt Orcutt (5) G (6) Long

Subs - Treat: Ward, Todd (4), Wilson, Miller (2). Town: Elliott, Franklin, Peacock, Mertin, Hunter (4).

Eu (32) (16) Melrose Carter (2) F (5) Petree Joslin (6) F Lee Gales (5) C (4) Hudson Hendrix (4) G Townsend Young (2) G Voss

Subs - Eu: Jones, Howard (1), Lawrence, Crisp (6), Jones (6), Blackwelder. Melrose: Louthern, Moore, Kulp, Seel (5), McDaniels, Walk, Grose (2).

and will stand south of the Marshall highway facing central campus. The exterior design will be modified colonial to harmonize with the principal buildings of the college. The interior of the building will be modern.

Start The New Year Right

TRADE AT

WELLS' MARKET

Mars Hill ... North Carolina

CARPENTER
The Quality Jeweler
MATTHEW
ONE HAYWOOD STREET

Asheville, N. C.

Happy New Year!
Students & Faculty

ELLER'S
ESSO
STATION

Dial 2431 Mars Hill