

Lees-McRae Wins 26-13

WCJC Win

The Mars Hill Lions were pounded into a 26-13 submission by a fast moving pack of Bobcats from Lees-McRae here Oct. 2 in a Western Carolina Junior College Conference football contest. John Phipps, heavy, speedy aggressive, was the man to be reckoned as he scored two touchdowns, and passed for the other two points. Phipps passed to David Lockwood for a first quarter TD after Lees-McRae recovered a Lion fumble 12 yards from pay dirt. Phipps kicked this extra point.

Early in the second quarter the Bobcats took a 13-0 lead when Phipps sneaked over from the two yard line following a Lees-McRae drive of 12 yards.

Mars Hill came back for a score midway in the second by recovering a Bobcat fumble on the Lees-McRae 20. Quarterback Bobby Robinson passed to Fred Bibb who lateraled to Mike Miller and Miller ran 15 yards for the score.

Robinson passed to Bibb for the extra point to reduce the halftime deficit to 13-7.

Lees-McRae scored second half touchdowns when Phipps hurried a 40-yard scoring pass to Harold Chamber and when Phipps sneaked over from the six.

Mars Hill's final touchdown was the most spectacular play of the game. Jackie Powers intercepted a Phipps lateral on the Lions' 30 and ran the ball 70 yards for the score.

Lions Go On Road Tonight

Tigers Host To Mars Hill

With revenge in their eyes the Lions of Mars Hill College will travel to Hiwassee tonight to try to even the score between the two schools. In their opening contest of the season, the Lions tangled with the Tennessee squad and found themselves on the short end of a 13-6 score.

At one point in the game the Mars Hill eleven drove to the Hiwassee one yard line only to be stopped by a solid forward wall. This second tilt should prove to be a game of football played at its best.

Lees-McRae journeyed to Mars Hill and found the hospitality much in their favor. When the final gun went off, the Bobcats were sitting on top, 26-13. It was a hard fought game by both schools.

Tonight's scrap will see Mike Miller go into action once again. So far this season it has been Miller's sparkling offensive and defensive play that has held the team together. The Lions will be led by Miller along with Jackie Powers, Harry Johnson, Tony Stafford, Bobby Robinson, Audrey Grizzel, and Jerry Crowe. Grizzel may see only limited action due to a foot injury he received in the Lees-McRae game. On the Lion forward wall such names as Talley, Shaw, Plumlee, Hughes and Roberts appear.

Locals Meet A-B Next Week

Asheville-Biltmore, a school which, for a while, had wondered if it would field a football team this season, will play host to the Mars Hill Mountain Lions in the Memorial Stadium of Asheville, October 16.

But the Bulldogs, with not even enough men on its roster to hold a good scrimmage, have held their own thus far this year. Nineteen men make up the A-B squad which has held two good teams, Lees-Mc-

Rae and Gardner-Webb to tie games.

A-B opened its season against the Lees-McRae Bobcats and held them to a 6-6 deadlock and last Saturday, while the Lions were losing out 26-13 to Lees-McRae, the Bulldogs fought, to a scoreless deadlock against Gardner-Webb.

The Asheville school defeated Mars Hill twice last season, 13 to 6 and 19 to 0, and the Lions will be out to avenge these losses.

Mars Hill, to date, has one Western Carolina Junior College Conference loss on its record, and this will be but the second family tilt of the season.

The Mars Hill College band, its majorettes, and cheerleaders will be there to lend color to the battle. A chartered bus for students wishing to attend the contest will leave approximately at 6 o'clock.

Gal-Events

The first general meeting of the W. A. A. was held Monday night September 20, in the gymnasium. Molly Fennell, president, presided. The various clubs and their chairmen were recognized. A short program on sportsmanship was presented by Shirley Ledford and Nancy Roberts.

The W. A. A. Council met October 1, during the regular chapel period in the W. A. A. room. Several business matters were transacted and further activities for the year were discussed. The W. A. A. Executive Council met Saturday afternoon October 2, to organize the business to be brought up in the next M-Blem Club meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the M-Blem Club was Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the W. A. A. room. The meeting was called to order by the president after which the devotional chairman, Colleen Vann, led the group in a devotion. The meeting was then open for any discussion on old and new business. The program chairman, Caryl Guth, presented a humorous program "Dragnet" with Sebelia Williams, Dot Newman, Faye Pierce, Betsy Wood and Pat Lytton participating. Aside from the business matters and the program the president led three new members in the M-Blem Club oath.

W. A. A. Active

The W. A. A. has been "busy as bees" working in the concession stand, peddling and selling cokes, pop corn, coffee, and hot dogs—those hot dogs have been selling like "hot cakes" too.

The sports clubs are beginning to get in full swing now-a-days. For instance, the newly-organized ping-pong club was well represented when its first meeting was held in Huffman play room last week. There is also a large group of girls at the volley ball club each Monday and Wednesday evenings. These girls really have a good time! Of course, this is the season for tennis, too. We don't know who the tennis "Pro's" are this year, but it won't be too long before we'll be finding out.

The Lion's Den

By Leon Rooke

Here we are well into the football world now. At home, last week the Mars Hill Lions fell under a well-calculated machine from Lees-McRae.

It is true that we lost another ball game last Saturday, but scores do not tell all. One thing apparent was that the harder the Bobcats charged through our line (and on a few occasions they looked to do this with ease) the harder the Lion backfield charged. Jackie Powers, always to be respected, was running with great determina-

Mars Hill Downed By Tennessee Team

The Mars Hill Lions lost their opening game of the season to the Hiwassee Tigers by the tune of 13-6.

Bill Chambers was the big offensive star for the visiting eleven and Joe Cline was the defensive leader.

Mike Miller led the sputtering Mars Hill offensive. Bobby Robinson stood out at the quarterback slot. "Shag" Hughes and Paul Shaw played very well in the line.

Miller scored the Lions' touchdown on a pass from Robinson. Chambers ran for one touchdown and passed for the other.

tion, but the biggest difference noticed was that in the person of Tony Stafford, who usually plays well but who, on the night in question, was really driving hard, and getting somewhere when he did. The quarterbacks, Harry Johnson, a fast and aggressive player, and Bobby Robinson were constantly halted by the Bobcat onslaught of linemen. The score might have been altered a great deal, too, if blocking had materialized a little more often. But there was good football and bad football, and the stands saw their share of the good.

Injuries are just beginning to crop up. Guard Charles Ramsey has been out all along and has about a month left on the sidelines before he can get back in harness.

Tony Mumpower was put out of action soon after the Hiwassee game with a dislocated shoulder, and Audrey Grizzel is out with a torn ligament in his leg. Center Bill Walke has perhaps the best-looking injury. Aside from a slight side injury, he has one of the blackest eyes seen on the campus in all its history.

There has been much speculation as to whether there will be intramural football this year. There will be. The athletic department is inaugurating a new system of forming the teams. This is the way it works. Teams will

Tennis Squad Nears Finish

J. V. Howell, tennic coach, is now in the process of running off a tennis tournament. The final rounds are expected to be played this week and members singled out for the team. There are seventeen boys participating in the run-offs. Coach Howell is trying to see what kind of material he will have on the tennis team in the spring.

Clevenger and Kittrell had not played their first round match when the paper went to press.

Second round—Hardee over Carlton 7-5, 4-6, 6-1; and Cole over Southern 3-6, 6-4, 6-3. Matches to be played are as follows: Kirkland and Hardee, McGirt and Montgomery, and the winner of the Clevenger-Kittrell match and Simmons.

be organized from each of the eleven physical education classes and afterwards a schedule will be drawn up. Students wishing to participate, including those not in a physical education class, should contact either of the coaches at once. C'mon now, what do you say? Let's have some intramural football!
