

CLIO AND NONPAREIL SOCIETIES HONOR EACH OTHER WITH TEA

Clios gave their annual tea in honor of their cousins, the Nons, February 10 at 3:45. The program was held in Stroup parlor, and refreshments were served in Edna Moore parlor. Chairmen of the program, Joan Barron and Jane Blake; decorations, Vadna De Loach and Nancy Fant; dating, Mary Long and Polly Osteen, invitation, Mousie Simpson and Sandra Hickman; coats, Lorena Lee and Joyce Huskins; refreshments, Jean Hodges and Jo Ellen Bradley; clean-up, Carolyn Lawton and Eleanor Taylor; costumes and property, Doris Ann Ensley and Jane Poplin.

Non-Eu held a joint meeting February 11, with Ken Small as the presiding officer. Future dates for the Nonpareil Society reveal temperance readings on February 17, and the date of their tea for the Clios is set for February 24. No committees have been appointed.

At their February 4 meetings the Clio and Nonpareil Literary Societies had as their guests the Gardner-Webb debating team. The query for discussion was: "Resolved that the United States should extend diplomatic recognition to the Communist government of Red China." The Clios heard the affirmative, Lois Hoyle and Mary Philbeck, from Gardner-Webb. They were in competition with the Mars Hill negatives, Steve Blackwell and Don Kroe. In the hall of black and gold, the Mars Hill affirmative team, with Fieldy Dize and Norman Hupp as speakers, were the opponents of the Gardner-Webb negatives, Reinald Stroupe and Sarah Bullard. Professor Dedmond accompanied the Gardner-Webb team. Harley E. Jolley is the coach for the Mars Hill team. No decision was rendered.

FOCUS WEEK

(Continued from Page 1)
and former president of Euthalian Literary Society of Mars Hill; George Pennell, attorney in Asheville; Dr. George E. Duncan, practicing surgeon in Nashville, Tennessee; Dr. Bruce Whitaker, State Baptist Student Union Secretary for North Carolina; Mrs. J. Winston Pearce, homemaker; Miss Mary Lee Rankin, Counselor to Students, Carver School of Missions and Social Work;

COX FLORIST VALENTINES

"ON THE CORNER"

Flowers for All Occasions

GIVE FLOWERS For VALENTINES

SHOES RUN DOWN? Charlie's Shoe Shop Is The Place To Take Them

Sweaters Are Our Specialty

2-DAY SERVICE MARS HILL CLEANERS

FOR ALL YOUR CAR NEEDS

You Can't Go Wrong With

ELLER'S Service Station

FOR THAT WELL-GROOMED LOOK

Pay A Visit To The MARS HILL BARBER SHOP

FOR THE BEST IN SNACKS — Try — Murray's Grocery

COX DEPT. STORE Clearance Sale Still on JACKETS, SWEATERS, BLOUSES and SKIRTS First Quality Nylon Hose 51 and 60 Gauge Only 79c A Pair

SEE OUR Spring Slippers and Seamless Mesh Hose We Also Have a Variety of Toppers GIBBS DEPT. STORE

Dramateer's Give One Act Drama

At the Dramateers meeting on February 21, the secular drama group will present "Manikin and Minikin", a one act poetic drama by Alfred Kreymborg.

The cast will include Mary George Pennell as Manikin, and Joyce Pope as Minikin. Curtain talks will be given by Jane McKee.

"The Twelve Pound Look" by J. M. Barrie will be given by the Dramateers in the chapel program February 23 and 24. Composing the cast will be La Verne Hinson as Sir Harry, Molly Fennell as Lady Sims, Mousie Simpson as Kate, and Gene Wells as Tombes.

Tryouts for "The Far-Away Princess," the Dramateers' entry in the Production Division of the Carolina Dramatic Association's spring festival, will be held in the Playhouse Thursday afternoon, February 24, from 2:00 until 5:00.

were inducted. They are as follows: Charles Ball, Kuhn Kung, Eddie Rickett, Mary Jane Northen, Lillian West, Miriam Baum, Mary George Pennell, and Harry Mamlin.

After a program about Japan, the International Relations club initiated Joe Mamlin, Bill Cobb, Nancy Davis, Margaret Blount, Audrey Robertson, Barbara Rhymer, Carolyn Ward, Joan Adams, Wallace Taylor, Charles Bullard, John Ellington, Ruby Rhyne, Joan Prince, Joyce Pope, Louis Ensley, Hugh Freeze, Juanita Swann, Mary Frances Collis, Joan McLean, Marian Ward, Billy Collins, Charles Kinney, Steve Blackwell, Mona Ellen Hyde, Mary Anne Hunter, Gail Fullbright, Janice Miller, and Wilson Hasty.

A portion of La Tertulia's program was devoted to reviews of Spanish books. As the highlight of the program, Joe Robertson demonstrated the movements in bull fighting. Climaxing the meeting was the initiation of new members.

Committees Selected By Home Ec Group

Members of the Home Economics Club served at the Chorus Banquet held recently in the College cafeteria. This is one of the club's annual projects. Another project is that of making sales to sell in the girl's dormitories on Friday nights.

The program for the meeting on February 7, was entitled "Future Home Economics Careers." Those taking part on program were Mahaffey, Fonrose Johnson, Shirley Olive, and Carolyn Lawton.

DEAN'S LIST

(Continued from Page 1)

Shackleford, Elizabeth Smith, Eleanor Taylor, Jimmy Taylor, Wallace Taylor, Melvyn Tucker, John Vance, Joseph Webb, Dan Webster, Mary Lee Welborn, Joel West, Lillian West, Ralph Williams, Richard Williams, Dorothy Wiltshire, Jack Wright, and Richard Wright.

The all A students for the C-II's were Hannah B. Blackwell, William Stuart Carlton, and James Kim Cole. The C-II's making the dean's list are: Monte Bishop, Hannah Blackwell, Margaret Bost, Patricia Campbell, Stuart Carlton, Dora Carter, Louise Cash, Sandra Castor, Carol Clevenger, Kim Cole, Cecil Cole, Nancy Craddock, Fred Crisp, Iris Cundiff, Fieldy Dize, Gail Fullbright, Barbara Gibson, Doris Gibson, Paul Gillespie, Jack Grose, Caryl Guth, Riley Hagan, Arnold Hannah, Wilson Hasty, Mary Hawkins, Mary Hunter.

Arthur James, Rachel Joyce, Katy Katsarka, Carolyn Killian, Doris Kirk, Patricia Lancaster, Carolyn Lawton, Martha Lee, Lasell Light, Charles McCall, Martha McLeod, Janet McNeil, Betty McRary, Gail Martin, Edna Mizell, Mollie Parrish, Betty Pearson, Curtis Porter, Sandra Pullen, Doris Putnam, Nell Ramsey, Frances Ray, Katherine Reid, Grove Robinson, Lamas Robinson, Julia Royal, Stella Smith, Shirley Styles, Patricia Thomas, Myrtle Vann, Catherine Wilson, F. C. Wood, and Phyllis Yates.

The following committees were appointed to serve this year: Executive, Clara Herrold; Publicity, Yvonne Lominac; Refreshments, Doris Ann Ensley; Ways and Means, Lou Ann; Membership, Shirley Olive; Social, McCall, Carolyn Allen; Clean-up, Sebelia; Program, Frances Rowe; Ship, Juanita Horton; Fagan, Mary Elizabeth; Devotional, Ann; Scrapbook, Jean Hodges; Edwards, Rinda; Lavinia Martin.

Wyatt's Groceries CAN GIVE YOU The Best Food at Reasonable Prices

Like Bedtime Snacks? WE HAVE JUST WHAT YOU NEED — At — WELLS' MARKET

May we SERVE YOUR NEEDS AT THE MARS HILL 5 and 10 Cent Store

See Our Valentines and Hollingsworth Candies WE WILL GIFT WRAP YOUR Valentine Candy MARS HILL PHARMACY