

BEST WISHES
TO YOU

The Hilltop

FOR A HAPPY
VACATION

Volume XXIX

Published by the Students of Mars Hill College

MARS HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, MAY 21, 1955

Number 15

Summer School To Open June 7

To date one hundred and five students have registered for the summer session to begin on June 7. The curriculum will include courses giving high school credit, as well as regular college credit courses.

The nine-week summer term courses include Bible, biology, business, chemistry, English, French, Spanish, Greek, Latin, geography, history, mathematics, music, physical education, speech, and psychology.

A varied program of recreation is provided for summer school students, under the direction of Dean Biggers. Tours are arranged to places of interest in Western North Carolina. Mt. Mitchell, Ridgecrest, Montreat, the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, and Craggy Gardens are among the places visited from time to time by summer school tours.

The summer session is planned with three groups in mind; those who are deficient in high school credits and wish to make them up before entering college rather than after, college students who wish to accumulate necessary credits in order to lighten their load for next year, and students who need to make up work in order to be in line to graduate next spring.

In addition to regular members of the Mars Hill faculty several visiting instructors will be on the summer school staff.

Miss Dulcie Hayes of the Harvard College faculty will return for her second summer as teacher of French. Teaching history will be Willard E. Ruggles of Belton, S. C. Mr. Ruggles has his A.B. and M.A. degrees from Furman University.

Claud H. Britt, Jr., of Dunn, with A. B. from Wake Forest College and an M.A. from the University of Alabama will be instructor in Spanish.

Honor Clubs Elect Leaders

Honor clubs have completed the election of officers for the 1955 fall semester. Harry is president of the German Club. Serving with him are Mary Jane Northern, vice-president and Lillian West, secretary-treasurer.

Logothia Club officers are Lamar Robinson, president; Frances McCroskey, vice-president; Barbara Scott, secretary-treasurer; and Ann Smith, chaplain. Betty Hester will serve as social chairman.

Officers chosen for the Business Club are Fieldy Dize, president; Eileen Gerring, vice-president; Betty Sawyer, secretary; Sara Scruggs, treasurer; and Shirley Mayberry, reporter.

Vernon Culpeper is incoming president of Scriblerus Club. Martha Barnette is vice-president, and Joyce Owen, secretary-treasurer.

French Club officers are Wayne Nunn, president, Elaine Howell, vice-president, and Bill Moore, secretary-treasurer.

The newly chosen marshals to serve at commencement exercises are Sara Scruggs, Doris Phillips, Thelma Kimball, Mary Jane Farmer, Eileen Gerring, Bill Cobb, Glen Kirby, John Vance, Hugh Freeman, and Benny Helton. Jane Blake and Tom Cogdill are absent from the picture.

Laurel Is Dedicated; New Staff Selected

The dedication service for the 1955 Laurel, to arrive Monday, May 23, was held in chapel Thursday of this week at which time Reba Furches was announced to be Miss Laurel. The witchwood blue and white padded year book, edited by Colleen Vann, was dedicated to Coach Virginia Hart.

The theme, "When the Saints Go Marching In" was chosen since it is expressive of the spirit greeting C-I's on their arrival at Mars Hill.

Jungpil Lee To Be Wed Here In June

Miss Jungpil Lee will become the bride of Jongsuk Chay on Saturday, June 11, at 3:00 p.m. in the Mars Hill Baptist Church.

The bride will wear a conventional wedding dress of white nylon net and lace. The skirt will be ornamented with godets of lace and the lace jacket will have long sleeves ending in calla lily points over the hands. The bodice of the dress will button to a high neck, finished with a small collar. Miss Lee's tiara will be of lace and seed pearls.

Miss Sara Jo Allen of Concord, roommate of the bride here, will be maid of honor. Ushers will be Vernon Culpeper and Bill Archer. Rebecca Sams will be bridesmaid. Emmet Sams will escort the bride.

The wedding ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Robert Seymour. Decorations will consist of white gladioli and greenery.

Students and faculty are invited to the marriage and to the reception in Edna Moore parlor immediately following the ceremony. A three-tiered cake and green punch will be served at the reception.

Miss Lee, of Seoul, Korea, is a C-I student at Mars Hill. Her fiancé, also from Seoul, is a freshman at the University of Michigan. He plans to major in international law.

Stealey to be Speaker at Graduation Exercises

Dr. Sydnor L. Stealey, president of the Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest will speak at the graduation exercises to the two hundred and sixty-five students who will receive diplomas from Mars Hill at 9:45 a. m. on Monday, May 30.

Dr. Stealey, the son of the Rev. O. P. Stealey, was born in Martinsburg, W. Va., and lived in Richmond, and Washington, D. C., where his father held pastorates before moving to Oklahoma City. He was a

Literary Societies Choose C-I Officers

Literary Societies have chosen their C-I officers to serve through commencement and the beginning of the fall semester.

Incoming Clio president is Polly Osteen, of Knoxville, Tennessee. She is a liberal arts student and has been chosen Y. W. A. president for Huffman dormitory. Also serving with her will be Janet Lett; vice-president; Margaret Barnes; censor, Mary Glenn Bunn; chorister, Marcia Taylor; pianist, Peggy Melton; and marshals, Carol Ann, Mary Jeffress, Joyce Huskins, and Jo Bradley.

Anne Robinson is new president of the Nonpareils. A native of Asheville and wife of Bobby Robinson, she has been football Queen at Homecoming, secretary of the C-I class, hostess in society, and is girls' sports editor for the 1955-56 Hilltop. Other Nonpareil officers are: first vice-president, Suzanne Nordstorn; second vice-president, Mary Jane Northern; secretary, Doris Phillips; censor, Pat Smith; chorister, Mary Elizabeth Farmer, pianist Helen Brooks; and marshals, Jane McKee, Sara Fagan, Ann Pate, Patty Sandlin, Caroline Good and Shirley Mayberry.

(Continued on Page 4)

Girls Chorus To Sing For Alumni Banquet

Music for the Alumni Banquet on Saturday, May 28, will be furnished by the Choralettes under the direction of Miss Irma Helen Hopkins. The group of girls will sing two songs, "Colors" by Klemm, and "The Sandman" by Ballard. Iris Jo Cundiff is accompanist for the singers.

On Wednesday May 18, the Choralettes presented a program at the First Baptist Church in Hendersonville. Musical numbers were alternated with scriptural passages and personal testimonies.

Among the numbers sung were "O Sacred Head Now Wounded" by Bach; "Jesus, Holy Spirit", Mozart; "Spirit of the Living God", McKinney; "Glory to God", Palestrina; "Create in Me a Clean Heart", Mueller; "Onward Ye People", Sibelius; and "O, Savior Hear Me", by Gluck. Patricia Robinson played the violin obbligato to the last named selection.

The same program was given at Calvary Baptist Church in Kingsport, Tennessee, on May 15.

Rev. Robert L. Deneen, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Salisbury, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon at 11:00 a. m., Sunday, May 29. Dr. Deneen is a native of Michigan and attended Albion College before he entered the University of South Carolina from which he received his A.B. degree in 1947. He was granted his B.D. degree from Southwestern Seminary in Fort Worth in 1953, and has been since December 1953 pastor of the First Baptist Church, Salisbury.

On Sunday at 3:00 p. m. the college Band will give its annual concert, and the college choir will sing at 8:00 p. m.