

Hear String Quartet

Students Will Attend State BSU Conclave

Approximately one hundred Mars Hill students plan to attend the 1955 Baptist Student Union Convention in Greensboro, November 4-6.

The Convention theme, "God's World - My Life - Now," will be divided into five areas of concern which will be discussed in major addresses. The sequence of thought will be as follows: "God's World, A World in Tension; My Life, Redeemed; My Life, A Missionary Enterprise; Now, The Urgency of the Situation; Agape, The Motive for Service.

Such outstanding speakers as Dr. J. P. Allen of Charlottesville, Virginia; Dr. Claude U. Broach of Charlotte; the Reverend Phyllis Elmer West of the Foreign Mission Board, Richmond, Virginia; and Dr. Claude B. Bowen, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Greensboro, will guide the thinking on the topics given above.

At two intervals on Saturday the larger group will be divided on the basis of individual preference into smaller discussion sections. It will be the purpose of these groups to consider how the various professions can be carried on as missionary enterprises to the glory of God. The fields from which individuals may choose are: teaching, medicine, the ministry, educational and student work, science, agriculture, law and government, social work, homemaking, the armed services, and business. Outstanding Christian leaders already engaged in service in each of these fields will be on hand to lead the discussions.

Of special interest during the Convention business session will be the report of the LISTEN committee and its recommendations concerning the allocations of the 1955-1956 fund. There will be a fellowship hour, an informative Book Store exhibit, special music from the State BSU Choir, and a good opportunity to meet new people and form lasting friendships.

Mars Hill Music Is Now On The Air

Musical programs originating in Mars Hill College are now heard over seven North Carolina radio stations. WWNC in Asheville has at 5:30 every Saturday a 30 minute program, which includes a two or three minute news feature.

Other programs are 15 minutes in length and are broadcast over WHCC, Waynesville; WPNF, Brevard; WMNC, Morganton; W G W R, Asheville; W N C A, Siler City; and WIAM in Williamson. Several stations are under consideration as possible carriers of a Mars Hill program.

It is planned to begin in the near future spot coverage for news events, to be used on TV. Technical problems are now being ironed out.

The Hilltop

Published by the Students of Mars Hill College

MARS HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1955

Number 3

Best Luck On Mid-Terms

Presidents chosen for the Anniversary and Reception terms of the four literary societies are (l. to r.) Norman Hupp, Euthalian; Martha Barnes, Clio; Mary Jane Northen, Nonpareil; and Harry Mamlin, Philomathian.

Societies Choose Leaders For Anniversary Events

Mary Jane Northern and Norman Hupp have been elected presidents of Nonpareil and Euthalian Societies, while Martha Barnes and Harry Mamlin have been chosen presidents of Clio and Philomathian Societies to serve during the Anniversary-Reception Term.

Other Nonpareil officers are Sarah Ellen Dozier, reception vice-president; Doris Phillips, literary vice-president; Pat Smith, secretary; Joan Adams, treasurer; Margaret Griffin, censor; and Eileen Gerringer, chaplain.

Revival Services Come To Close

Last night's services marked the close of the annual fall revival of the Mars Hill Baptist Church, conducted by the Rev. G. Avery Lee, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Ruston, La.

During the week special prayer services were held in morning watch and in the dormitories. Also, the one minute prayers in the cafeteria were an inspirational moment of every day. Music for the services was rendered by the Volunteer Choir.

From the public schools of his native Oklahoma City, G. Avery Lee went to Hardin-Simmons University, Texas, for his B. A. degree and to Yale Divinity School for his B. D. degree. He served several years as Baptist Student Secretary for Louisiana State University, later becoming Associate pastor of the First Baptist Church of Baton Rouge. He has been serving the First Baptist Church in Ruston, La., since June 1, 1948.

G. AVERY LEE

Besides writing material for the Training Union and Sunday School programs and devotionals for Home Life and Open Windows, Mr. Lee has published a book, Life's Everyday Questions.

Mr. Lee has served as President and Lt. Governor of Kiwanis International and at present is District Chairman of the Committee on Education and Fellowship.

In 1952 and 1953, he participated in preaching missions in Alaska. Mr. Lee also spent six weeks in the Near East and Europe.

Golf is his active sports hobby, while the affairs of the Yankees get his spectator attention.

College Choir To Sing At State Baptist Convention

This fall the College Choir plans to present several programs for the State Baptist Convention which is being held at the First Baptist Church in Asheville, November 14-17. On Monday evening, November 14, they will sing at the Pastor's Conference. They also plan to sing for the Ministers' Wives meeting, and for the Convention on Tuesday night, November 15, and Thursday morning, November 17.

Those singing in the Choir are Gail Allen, Janice Benner, June Barrick, Kay Brown, Grace Carswell, Gail Colvard, Hetty Corey, Hannah England, Mary Elizabeth Farmer, Reba Furches, Nancy Hayes, Wanda Jean Hepler, Donna Horton, Sylvia Hunt, Mona Ellen Hyde, Rebecca Keller, Mary Jane Northen, Doris Phillips, Betty Jo Polk, Jane Poplin, Arce Rose Rich, Donnie Fay Smith, Marcia Taylor, and Jo Anne Weber.

Also Jimmy Berry, Tommy Bodkin, Donald Briggs, Bobby Burroughs, Douglas Cole, Everette Elledge, Keith Gage, Stan Griffin, Bobby Hallman, Gerald Hewitt, Sonny Jordan, Seth Kirby, Earl Kirkland, Dan Pardue, Richard Phillips, Lloyd Plemmons, Kirby Powell, Wallace Power, Jimmy Preas, Tommy Stogner, Charles Tanner, and Edward Ferrell.

The Choralettes, led by Miss Hopkins, have planned to sing for Chapel on November 30 and December 1. At Thanksgiving they will take part in a pageant along with the Men's Chorus and the College Choir. The pageant will be presented in the church. Near Christmas the Choralettes will give a program of secular music and combine with the Men's Chorus for the presentation of a program of sacred music. During the spring they hope to sing in different churches.

Members of the Choralettes are: Lois Ashley, Frances Anderson, Martha Barnes, Sylvia Brissie, Jo Ellen Bradley, Sue Bishop, Brenda Briddell, Doris Cole, Dot Clark, Barbara Coffey, Carolyn Cauthen, Zoe Cooley, Kitty Collins, Sarah Ellen Dozier, Caroline Good, Mary Carolyn Grant, Dorothy Gosnell, and Carolyn Griffin.

Joyce Hamilton, Shirley Hudson, Sally Hall, Joyce Huskins, (Continued on page 4)

Members of the Quartet, composed of faculty members at the University of Alabama, are Jerrie Cadek, second violin; Henry Barrett, viola; Margaret Christy, cello; and Mr. Cadek, violin.

Miss Cadek, the daughter of Professor Cadek, is a graduate of the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia as a pupil of Ivan Galamian. Also she is in much demand as a virtuoso recitalist and soloist with symphony orchestras.

Holding undergraduate and advanced degrees from the University of Alabama, Mr. Barrett has become one of the leading violists of the South. He has appeared with the Birmingham and Mobile Symphony Orchestras as soloist and principal viola.

Miss Christy has studied cello with such celebrated teachers as Roentgen, Graudan, Willeke, and Silva, and more recently with Pablo Casals in Prades, France. In summer she teaches cello at Transylvania Music Camp and serves as principal cellist with the (Continued on page 4)

Alabama Quartet Will Appear Here

On Saturday night, November 5, in the college auditorium a concert will be given by the University of Alabama String Quartet.

The founder and musical director of the group is Ottokar Cadek, noted violinist and authority on chamber music. Besides being Professor of Music at the University of Alabama, Mr. Cadek was first violinist of the New York String Quartet, with which he toured all the principal cities of the United States.

Members of the Quartet, composed of faculty members at the University of Alabama, are Jerrie Cadek, second violin; Henry Barrett, viola; Margaret Christy, cello; and Mr. Cadek, violin.

Miss Cadek, the daughter of Professor Cadek, is a graduate of the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia as a pupil of Ivan Galamian. Also she is in much demand as a virtuoso recitalist and soloist with symphony orchestras.

Holding undergraduate and advanced degrees from the University of Alabama, Mr. Barrett has become one of the leading violists of the South. He has appeared with the Birmingham and Mobile Symphony Orchestras as soloist and principal viola.

Miss Christy has studied cello with such celebrated teachers as Roentgen, Graudan, Willeke, and Silva, and more recently with Pablo Casals in Prades, France. In summer she teaches cello at Transylvania Music Camp and serves as principal cellist with the (Continued on page 4)

Mars Hill Debaters Slate Appearances

Next Tuesday at 3:30 the Gardner-Webb debate team of four will exchange debates here with the Mars Hill squad. They will be escorted by their coach, Mr. F. Dedmond, and the subject for debate will be a standard topic. For each team this will be the first debate of the season. The program will be open for the public and an audience will be appreciated.

On November 8, four Mars Hill student debaters will participate in a debate contest at Furman. The students are: Norman Hupp and Don Kroe, affirmative; Steve Blackwell and James Shurling, the negative. They will speak on this subject: "Resolved that all (Continued on page 4)