Welcome Freshmen!

The Hilltop

Published by the Students of Mars Hill College

Hello Sophomores!

Volume XXXII

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1957

Number 1

Spring Term Dean's List Is Released

The Dean's List for the 1957 Spring Semester names a total of one hundred and twenty-seven students, with ten having straight A's. Sixty sophomores and sixtyseven freshmen made the list.

Those with straight A's are Craig Black, Marcia Black, Bea Champion, Dan Compton, Horace Hawes, Coleman Markham, Donald Shaw, Edith Shepherd, Joyce Smith, and Jo Ann Thomas.

Others appearing on the dean's list are Joy Anders, Patsy Anderson, Rebecca Ashley, Rubynel Austin, Frank Baker, William Stephen Ball, Barbara Jean Berry, Rosemary Bolton, Barbara Brackett, Helen Brooks, John Brown, Judith Ann Burgin, Barbara Ann Canady, Patricia Carroll, Pruette Carter, Shirley Carter, Carolyn Cauthen, Dong Myung Choi, Doris Cole, Katherine Collins, Frances Corn, Lynda Jean Crawford, Richard Croom, Daniel Crouch, Charlton Davis, Frank Davis, Shirley Donahoo, James

Also, Beverly England, Barbara Eubanks, Jud Force, Peggy Frith, Ann Gallimore, Ann Garner, Beverly Gibbs, Hyatt Gibbs, James Gibbs, Margaret Ann Gidney, Stanley Gregory, Barbara Griffith, Clarence Groce, Don Guffey, Derenda Gulledge, Pattie Sue Hackney, Kathryn Harper, Rob-ert Haycraft, David Haynes, Dorotha Hemphill, Eugene Hensley, Ophelia Hildreth, Richard Hirata, John Hodges, Robert Holland, Margaret Hood, Shirley Hoover, Charles Huffstetler, Peggy Hughey, Ann Ingle, Rozella Jewell, Doris Jones, Mary Ann Jones, Arnold Joslin, Rebecca Keller, Patricia Kenyon, Eugene Knoefel, David Koontz, Luanna Krause, Mary Lee Latta, Ramona Lawton.

Pattie Ledford, Carolyn Lewis, Norma Lockaby, James Massey,

(Continued on Page Four)

Enrollment Totals 1,059

A total of 1,059 students have enrolled at Mars Hill College for the fall semester. This figure, which does not include those classified as special students, is composed of 442 women and 617 men. This is 28 more than the 1,031 full-time students who registered for the first term last year.

Eleven foreign students are among those enrolled. There are two students each from Korea and Malaya, three each from Canada and Hawaii, and one from Cuba. More than 700 of the students are from North Carolina, but 20 other states and the District of Columbia are represented. 302 of the North Carolinians are from Western North Carolina including 111 from Buncombe County.

Additions to the faculty and staff are (seated l. to r.) Miss Patsy Anderson, Miss Ann Mauney, Mrs. Stafford L. Compton, Miss Edna Eaves, and Miss Anna Hines; (standing l. to. r.) Mr. Gentry Crisp, Mr. Jerry Amacker, Mr. John Sinclair, Mr. Robert Coley, and Mr. David Young. Not present, Mr. Stafford L. Compton and Mrs. Hobart Whitman.

Twelve Members Join MHC Faculty and Staff

Twelve new members have joined the faculty and administrative staff of the college this fall.

Jerry B. Amacker has become a teacher in the Business Department. Mr. Amacker is a native of Louisiana. He graduated from Hardin-Simmons University, and obtained his M. R. E. from Southwestern Theological Seminary. He has been minister of education at Poplar Springs Baptist Church in Meridian, Mississippi.

David N. Young of Clinton, Miss., is a new member of the history faculty. He holds a B. A. degree and an M. A. from the University of Mississippi, and has recently completed a tour of active duty with the U. S. Navy.

Three new instructors have joined the Department of Music. John V. Sinclair, of Tyler, Texas, is teaching piano. He received his B. M. from Louisiana State University, and did graduate study at Juillard School of Music. His M. M. is from Eastman School of Music, and he has done two years of study toward his doctor's degree at the University of Indiana. His teaching experience includes work at Tyler, Texas, Montreat College and Flora Mc-Donald College.

Miss Anna Hines of Washing-Miss Hines holds a B. A. from Flora McDonald College and an M. M. degree from the University of Kentucky. Teaching violin and voice is Mrs. Hobart Whitman of Asheville. She studied at Brenau College and is choir director at Trinity Methodist Church in Asheville.

Gentry Crisp, of Canton, and Bob Coley, of Concord, both graduates of Mars Hill are new members of the English faculty. Mr. Crisp is a graduate of Furman University with an M. A. in speech from Northwestern University. Mr. Coley also holds an A. B. degree from Furman, and has his M. A. from George Peabody College.

The new head librarian is Miss Edna Eaves, of Athens, Alabama, A B. S. graduate of Athens College, she has an M. S. in library

(Continued on Page Four)

Is Organized

The Haywood County Club met September 19, to elect officers and to make plans for the coming Tom Garrett was elected president. Other officers are vicepresident, Eugene Brackett; secretary-treasurer, Janice Arnold; and social chairmen, Barbara Griffith and T. L. Francis. The faculty advisers are Miss Collie Garner, Miss Nancy Medford, Miss Evelyn Underwood, and Mr. Gentry Crisp. Approximately thirty people are members of the club.

such as Florida, Maryland, South Carolina, and Virginia will soon be reorganizing.

Any other groups of students who are interested in forming a county, regional, or state club should begin to make plans now. At least fifteen people must be interested before a club can be started. Each club must elect a president, a secretary-treasurer, and a faculty adviser.

Student Groups Hold Campus-Wide Parties

An all-campus Get-acquainted Party to welcome the freshmen was given by the Y. W. A.'s Friday, September 20. The B. S. U. held their annual Get-Acquainted Party in the cafeteria, Saturday, Sep-

The party, held in the gym, carried a gypsy caravan theme. On a table was a gypsy scene and a gypsy doll was on the piano. The entertainment consisted of group songs, a soap opera, and a song,

Freshmen Attend

Society Activities

On September 24 and 25, the two girls' literary societies held their annual pajama parties in the dorms, for the freshmen girls.

Their pajama parties are mainly for the purpose of building friendship and enthusiasm in society

The Clios presented a "Stormy Weather Show," a take-off on the relaxed type of show. The main part of the program was "Gone

With The Widow," a parody on

"Gone With The Wind." The

playroom of the dorm was dec-

Officers of the Clio Society

are as follows: Barbara Ann Carmichael, president; Bea Champion,

vice-president; Rose Corum, secretary; and Ruth Corum, censor.

The Nons played host to the freshmen girls in Huffman dorm with their pajama party, "Evening With The Girls." The girls

all took part in a giant slumber party. The party's main aim was to make all the girls feel as if they were an actual part of the surroundings. Decorations were stuffed animals, record players, and various other items found at

Officers of the Nonpareil Society are June Perry, president;

Oleta Murphree, first vice-president; Gerald Hall, second vice-president; Glenda Lawrence, secretary; and Rae Tuck, censor.

Plans Are Made

Plans to limit the Selective

Tests to one in the 1957-58

school year instead of three per year as in the past have been announced by Lt. General Lewis B.

Hershey, Director of Selective Service. The single test planned for the next school year probably

Scores on the tests, and student class standing, are criteria used by local boards in the consideration of requests by college students at both the undergraduate and graduate level for deferments from induction in order to continue their studies.

will be held in the Spring.

Qualification

To Limit Tests

Service College

teen-age slumber parties.

orated as a southern plantation.

work.

"Got Along Without You" by Beverly Gibbs, Barbara Dale Rodgers, and Marilyn Hughes. The last was taught to the group. Games were played, with partners being matched by singing phrases.

The refreshment table was covered with a green cloth bearing The YWA insignia. The punch bowl was banked with abelia. Refreshments were orange punch and doughnuts.

The B. S. U. Party began with lively music by the band. A skit "The Farmer's Daughter" was presented. The skit was followed by punch and cookies and "getting-acquainted," accompanied by a piano and drum duet. The progressive party then moved to the athletic field for a bonfire. Songs around the campfire were led by Jim Gibbs.

Faculty, Students Attend Annual Tea

On Sunday, September 15, the annual President's Tea was held in Edna Moore parlor, from 3:00 to 6:00. Miss Frances Snelson, assistant to the president, received at the door and presented the guests to the receiving line, which was headed by President Hoyt C. Blackwell and Mrs. Blackwell.

Others in the receiving line were vice-president R. L. Holt and Mrs. Holt; Dean R. M. Lee and Mrs. Lee; Dean of Students W. L. Lynch and Mrs. Lynch; and Dean of girls, Miss Caroline Biggers.

College marshals met guests on the terrace and provided each with a name tag. Chief marshal, Coleman Markham, directed guests to the refreshment tables.

The parlor was decorated with masses of dahlias in all shades. Punch bowls were banked with flowers and foliage in fall colors.

In charge of arrangements were Mrs. J. V. Howell and Mrs. J. Raymond Nelson, co-chairmen, and assisting them were Miss Caroline Biggers, Miss Mildred Bingham, Mrs. O. E. Roberts, Mrs. J. A. McLeod, Mrs. Josie Liverman, Mrs. Alex Wilson, and Mrs. Cora Charles. House officers of the girls' dormitories assisted in serving refreshments.

Approximately 600 guests attended the tea.

News Flash

The Carson-Newman - Mars Hill football game scheduled for last night was postponed because of illness in the C-N squad.

Haywood Club

Several regional and state clubs

Mr. Kendall, chairman of the societies, classes, and clubs committee, should be notified when a club is formed. Although these clubs may not hold regular meetings, they may eat together in the Blue Room and may have one picnic each semester. Anyone who wishes to form a club may post an announcement in the Student