nd a regul loyees, Mr.

ties keep him

MARS HILL, N. C., FEBRUARY 28, 1959

Number 10

k. He must be of food aler Miss America Will Choose le campus, eteria's man 1959 Edition Of Miss Laurel maintenance n McKnight, Miss America of 1956, will choose the Miss Ir. Caldweof 1959. Miss McKnight's selection will not be revealed in August Laurel is distributed some time in May.

s duties ato winning the title of Miss America, Marian was a sophomore found oner College in Hartsville, South Carolina. This beautiful and lege cafeter young lady, who so well represented her state of South il Novem, is from Manning. After a year's reign, she transferred to students i. in Los Angeles where building flied dramatics. Just re-Dormitory is married a young actor. Cafeteria whof the dorms for young ern featurestages, and town residents on to the clen its representative for Mr. Caldest. Miss Patricia Robinasks is the prepresent Treat; Connie arge quantit Myers; Loretta Millicanned goodelrose; Peggy BeShears stored as plined Cottages; Carol Ann dvance of Town Homes; Martanust go on Brown; and Helen Kelly price of h Fredy, editor of 1959 pproximatelok, said, "We would like od bill, has the faculty, students, and year. Sincetions for their co-operabout 400 with the staff of phoneal and up'rs."

es of meat see that o

ob.

ctant members of is Misege dietitian planning bundred and fifty girls paration aestern North Carolina will liss Hanes Ig the college on the weekuls with March 6-8 for the YWA to insure alrty. Mars Hill YWA's be hosts to the girls, who atting the relative in the girls' dorms, mately 100n campus will be approxite two-hour stop guest speakers and conleaders for discussion is and use in YWA methods, mission pay their pities, etc. The theme of a leaders will be "Now Is well is especified Time". A banquet that a delegateria.

rolina Colh 1-7 is Home Missions of the Annie Armstrong February 22-27 was many of the Speaker was Mrs. ased at Maugh and residing at Wake Annie Armstrong February 22-27 was many of the Speaker was Mrs. ased at Maugh and residing at Wake AHC.

Spring holidays the new council will be elected and These girls will take ar's work.

^{nes} Omitted Dean's List

e last edition of the Hilltop ames were unfortunately from the Dean's List. Jerryline Cason, a freshade all A's. Celia Eleanor Virginia Lee Gibson, and Jonita Harris also attained Hillton offers congratulathere four as well as to hor. Students who earned hames were omitted in last

Lankford Is Editor Of Freshman Hilltop

Carol Lankford, of North Wilkesboro has been chosen as editor for the Freshman Edition of the Hilltop which will come out in late March. While in high school Miss Lankford served as president of the Beta club and was a superlative. This year at MHC Carol has been active as a reporter for the Hilltop and is a member of the Scriblerus.

Linda Simmons of Winston-Salem will serve as associate editor of the edition. In high school she was editor of the school paper. Assistant editors will be Rosa Lynn Gruits and Eldridge Holland with Sybil Whisnant as feature editor. Along with reporters these will compose the editorial staff.

John Yonce will be sports editor with Tom Croom as assistant. Claude Royall will serve as advertising manager. Circulation manager will be Tom Gattis and Carol Southerland will act as assistant, Lois Biggs, will be in charge of Girls' Sports.

Reporters for the Freshman Edition are as follows: Gerald Murdock, Linda Sherwood, Joan Blythe, Ron Denton, John Jennette, and Richard Buddine.

We the senior members of the staff wish to extend hearty best wishes for a successful freshman paper.

Dramateers Give Play March 9-10

"Christ in the Concrete City", a modern religious drama by P. W. Turner, will be presented March 9 and 10 in chapel period in the auditoriums.

The play, within the limits of a cast of six, attempts to portray the Passion of Christ from three points of view. Firstly, there is the story of something that happened. Secondly, the story of the Passion is presented as one of universal significance, speaking tirelessly to all mankind. Thirdly, The Crucifixion and Resurrection are given as events of personal significance speaking intimately to the individual in the secret places of his own soul.

March 14 the MH dramatics department will present a program of rhythmic choir interpretations of hymns, spirituals, prayers, and scripture at Allen High School in Asheville. Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, MH drama director, will lecture on rhythmic choir along with the student demonstration given by both the religious drama

John Ciardi

Famed Poet, Ciardi Lectures Saturday

John Ciardi, poet, critic, and educator, will be on the Mars Hill campus Saturday, March 7. At 4 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Ciardi will be in the Faculty Lounge in the library for an informal question and answer period. The Scriblerus Club is sponsoring this event. Any members of the faculty or student body who are interested in modern poetry are invited. At 8 o'clock Mr. Ciardi will lecture in the auditorium.

A native of Boston, Mr. Ciardi is professor of English at Rutgers University. He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, poetry editor of the Saturday Review, incoming president of the College English Association, and director of the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference.

Mr. Ciardi received his education at Bates College, Tufts College, and the University of Michigan. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

He has been Instructor at Harvard, lecturer on American Poetry at the Salzburg Seminar on American Studies, and lecturer on Poetry at the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference.

Mr. Ciardi has won numerous awards for his literary contributions. Among them he received a (Continued on Page 4)

March 9 and 10 in chapel period in the auditoriums. The play, within the limits of a cast of six, attempts to portray the Passion of Christ from three The play within the limits of a cast of six, attempts to portray the Passion of Christ from three

In keeping with a plan adopted in 1957, Mars Hill College was visited February 23-25 by a committee from the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges. Dr. Rabun L. Brantley of Mercer University served as chairman.

It was decided two years ago that all member schools should be evaluated once each ten years on a rotating basis. Mars Hill volunteered to serve as one of six pilot schools participating in the first annual check-up.

In preparation for the committee's visit, every department of Mars Hill conducted an intensive self-study and presented a report.

Other members of the committee are President John M. Carter, Campbellsville College; Dean F. (Continued on Page 4)

Oedipus Rex, Greek Classic, Being Enacted By Players, Incorporated

Players, Incorporated, will present in Oedipus Rex, a tragedy by Sophocles, at 8:00 p.m. tonight in the college auditorium, with Robert Milli, who plays Oedipus, King of Thebes, and Dolores Viola, Jocasta, Queen of Thebes, as leads.

Believed by many theatre scholars to be the greatest play ever written, Oedipus Rex unites the elements of pure tragic stature and nervetingling theatricality. The downfall of the great ill-fated King of detective story.

Thebes moves through Oedipus' step by step tracking of the murderer of his predecessor with the finely drawn skill of a masterful detective story.

Currently celebrating its 10th anniversary season, the touring company of Players, Incorporated, has become the longest-running national repertory theatre in the United States in the 20th century. The troupe is made up of 15 actors who can each play as many as ten different parts on call. The Players are noted for their "complete" productions. The adaptation of Sophocles' Oedipus Rex used on the 10th tour was written expressly for Players, Incorporated, by Leo Bradley, Professor of Speech and Drama at the Catholic University of America. Members of the company are graduates of the Catholic University in Washington, D. C., noted for the many Broadway hits which have originated in the university theatre. The C.U. drama department is under the direction of the Rev. Gilbert V. Hartke, O.P., one of the most prominent figures in the American theatre

The actual range of the troupe's

Training Union Officers Listed

Mars Hill Debaters

Enter Tournament

The Mars Hill College Debate

Team is traveling to the South

Atlantic Forensics Tournament in Hickory on March 5, 6, and 7.

The meet is sponsored by Lenoir-

This will be the first tournament of the new semester in which the Mars Hill speakers have participated. There will be a wide variety of forensic events, and intercollegiate debates will be held on the national debate topic, "Resolved: That further development of nuclear weapons should be prohibited by international agree-be, affirmative, Stan Jackson and

Bob Hancock, and negative, Claiborne Hopkins and Morrison

Debating for Mars Hill will Rhyne College.

ment."

Lawing.

All Baptist Training Union unit organizations are carrying on second semester activities under the leadership of new officers recently elected and installed. Eugene Funderburke is general BTU superintendent.

AREOGAPUS Union has elected Patricia Robinson, president; Wayne Roberts, vice-president; Judy Elam, secretary; and Faith Edwards and Carol Kendall, group captains.

The new president of VANCE is Kay Wright, with Bettie Jean Meyers serving as vice president; Lois Briggs as secretary; and Vollis Summerlin as group captain.

The members of JOY have elected Betty Jo Cox, president; Ruth Teague, vice-president; Lib Harbor, secretary; and Frank Pitman and Clyde Triplett, group captains.

WESTMINSTER FELLOW-SHIP elected Ann Moore for president; Don Shuman, program chairman; Chiles Calhoun, viceprogram chairman; and Judy Faust, secretary-treasurer.

The new officers of ARTHUR GILLESPIE are Wade Radford, president; Evelyn Lawton and Richard Childress, co-vice presidents; and Barbara Warren and Ronald Searcy, group captains. Anne Mercer serves as secretary.

Ann Aldridge serves BYKOTA Union as president. Peggy Be-Shears is vice-president; Jeanne Hardy, secretary; and Martha Colburn, Doug Suddreth, and Barbara Robinson, group captains.

Dolores Viola

travels is more international than national. The company has made six trips abroad under the auspices of the Department of Defense to entertain troops.

Fish, Seymour Births

Two charming additions have been recently added to the college campus population.

Malona Ann Fish is the new baby daughter born on Feb. 7 to Mr. and Mrs. James Fish. Mrs. Fish is a Spanish teacher here at MHC and Mr. Fish is a member of the athletic department.

Frances Jane Seymour is the daughter of proud parents, Dr. and Mrs. Seymour. Dr. Seymour has been pastor of the Mars Hill Baptist Church for four years, and Mrs. Seymour served as church organist during this time.