Dramateers' Play Is "Gift of Tehyin"

The annual Christmas play presented by the Dramateers will be viewed by the student body in chapel services on December 12 and 13. This year's presentation will be "Te Gift of Tehyin" by John D. Tumpane. The set ting will be the Imperial palace in Japan on the night of Christ's birth in Bethlehem of Judea.

Richard Dillingham and Roy Mehaffey will portray the roles of Hakase, the interpreter and Matsu Suinin, Emperor of Japan.
Maraski will be played by Donna Day. Faith Edwards and Kay Shadoan will enact the parts of

Campus Choir, Band To Perform Tonight

The Campus Choir and the Concert Band will present a program of Christmas music to night at 7:30 p. m. in the Owen Building. The program will consist of pieces played and sung separately by the choir and the band and also pieces with the choir and the band combined.

"Fanfare for Christmas Day" and "Merry Christmas" will be presented by the choir and band combined.

"Christmas Folk Songs;" "O Lamb of God;" "Four Tradi tional Carols" accompanied by Paul Clark, Larry Boyd, Layne Roberts, and Charles White; and "Carol of the Drum" will be sung by the choir.

"Sleeper's Wake" and a Christ mas Suite consisting of "O Come, O Come Emmanuel,"
"The Sleep of the Child Jesus,"
"Ring, Christmas Bells," "What Child is This," "Willie, Play Your Little Drum," and "The Twelve Days of Christmas" will be played by the band.

The band and the choir are under the direction of Mr. John Sumrall.

Honor Clubs Schedule Meetings; Programs Cover Variety of Topics

The eight Honor Clubs of Mars

Club will present a program on the two concepts of Communism.
Participating will be Sharon Wood, Page Shelton, Wesley Bol
ing, and Ronald Pare.

The Orpheon Club, the music honor club, will show a movie explaining the construction of the organ. They will meet at 7:30 Tuesday, December 13.

Scriblerus will present readings of the contemporary Christmas folk literature. Gene McCreary, Ronald McClamrock, Lillian Rob inson, Faye Stone and Zella Moore will do parts from Phyllis McGinley's Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, and from O. Henry's Gift of the Magi.

The Spanish Club will meet on Monday night, December 12, at 7:30 in Huffman Parlor. The program will be on the Christmas customs of Latin America.

The Science Club will meet on Monday night in Edna Moore Parlor at 7:35. Guests on the program will be Ray Luther, Ron Stamey, Jayne Stephenson and Roy Mehaffey. Sam Beard will give the different ideas on the Star of Beth lehem. During the social hour, refreshments will be served, and

The Business Club will meet Tuesday night, December 13, at 7:30 at Mr. and Mrs. Chapman's home. They will have a Christ mas party.

The French Club will have a Christmas program centered around color slides of illustrations taken from medieval Prayer Books and books of devotions. French Scriptures and carols will be used to accompany the showing of the slides.

Hostesses Give Tea For Bride and Groom

A group of faculty hostesses gave a tea and shower for Mr.
and Mrs. Joe Chris Robertson, faculty couple who were married on Thanksgiving afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Richard Watson on Friday afternoon, December 2.

A color scheme of pink and white was used. The dining table, which was covered with hand made lace cloth, had a centerpiece of pink carnations that exactly matched the drapes in the room.
Strawberry ice cream punch and wedding cookies, nuts, and mints were served. Miss Caroline Big gers presided at the punch bowl.

Other hostesses assisting were Mrs. Locke Robinson, Mrs. J. A.
McLeod, Miss Martha Biggers, Miss Ann Dacus, Miss Nancy Medford, Miss Anna Hines, Miss Kathleen Wallin, and Mrs. Ho bart Whitman.

Choir To Present Christmas Concert

The Mars Hill College Tour ing Choir under the direction of T. J. Cole will present its annual Christmas concert on Sunday, De cember 11, at 8 o'clock p.m. in the Mars Hill Baptist Church.

The choir will sing Hodie (This Day) by R. Vaughan Williams which is a combination of scrip ture and verse with some of the excerpts coming from Milton's Hymn on the Morning of Christ's Nativity.

The soloists will be Jayne Grace Stephenson—soprano, Allen Cantrell—tenor, and Ron Luck—baritone. The choir will be ac companied by Mrs. Joe Chris Rob ertson at the organ, and Edwina Tart at the piano.

Hodie has sixteen movements and will require about an hour to complete the presentation.

This is a very special produc tion in that there has been no previous performance of this work in the southeast. Hodie is a recent work, the first performance being given in September of 1954.

Faculty to Present Play, January 8

"George Washington Slept Here" is the title of the annual faculty play which will be pre sented by the faculty and staff of Mars Hill College on Satur day, January 8, at 8:00 p.m. in the College Auditorium.

The play is centered around the Fuller family, who live in the city. Mr. Fuller, played by William Pegg, decides that he wants to buy an old house in the country, which George Washing ton supposedly slept in. His wife, Annabelle, portrayed by Ruby Cox, thinks the whole idea is ridiculous. Mr. Fuller wins out, and they move to the country, only to find that a cynical neighbor, Mr. Prescott, John A. McLeod, who likes to cause trouble, lives next to them.

Problems between the Fullers and Mr. Prescott mount as the play progresses.

Other characters in the play are Mr. Kimber, a countryman, played by Robert Chapman; Mrs.
Douglas, a woman of the com munity, portrayed by Mary Ihrig; Madge, the Fullers' daughter played by Myra Putnam; and Steve Eldridge, Madge's boy friend, portrayed by Tommy Ed wards.
