

n Featuresd Luck
Theme Exams!

The Hilltop

Welcome,
New Students!

Published by the Students of Mars Hill College

MARS HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1961

Number 7

areil Literary Soc
their Euthalian b
" The decoratio
ds.
as decorated simi
n the background
y orchids which b
n from Hawaii thr
ents made by Pa
um, Mars Hill '6
eweled treasure c
illingham was chos
fect of being uof
the Dramateers
ne second floor
meeting on Monday
ays.
9. Other officers
eriel Forbus, vice
y Morrison, secre
ven Franks, treas
reshments were
to Temptation",
ligious play by Joe
read at the meet
y Linda Hayne,
onlyn Wren, w
the serious Cahill; John Mor
ening. The stor
mother who had
aring the attack
or. She was rel
of the play is the
the idea that ive and would
he cast was made
ells, the mother
r son; Eleanor
ughter; Curtis
urse; Elizabeth
arty Etchison, u
e asylum.
The comedy gro
hips Ahoy". T
ntered around an d won a trip
"Tater Pie." s
riences were ve
e old lady wack
ckey Dowell.

Members Elect m Prexy

9. Other officers
eriel Forbus, vice
y Morrison, secre
ven Franks, treas
reshments were
to Temptation",
ligious play by Joe
read at the meet
y Linda Hayne,
onlyn Wren, w
the serious Cahill; John Mor
ening. The stor
mother who had
aring the attack
or. She was rel
of the play is the
the idea that ive and would
he cast was made
ells, the mother
r son; Eleanor
ughter; Curtis
urse; Elizabeth
arty Etchison, u
e asylum.
The comedy gro
hips Ahoy". T
ntered around an d won a trip
"Tater Pie." s
riences were ve
e old lady wack
ckey Dowell.

Pictured above is the 1961 May Court. Left to right is Joyce Lockhart, Queen; Ron Stamey, King; Zella Moore, Faith Edwards, Maid of Honor, Mary Thore, Cyndy Cochran, Sandy Daniel, Rosalyn Creel, Thora Bell Worley, Joyce Pinto, Suzie Merrimon, Maude Wells and Eleanor Moore.

Student Body Picks Lockhart, Stamey To Reign Over 1961 MHC May Court

Joyce Lockhart and Ron Stamey have been chosen by the student body of Mars Hill College to reign over the 1961 May Court. Joyce, a sophomore from Greensboro, has held various beauty titles in the past including Homecoming Queen and representative to the Laurel beauty section. Joyce is also active in BSU work and Clio Literary Society.

The Maid of Honor will be Faith Edwards from Leicester. Faith served as secretary of her freshman class, and is on the BSU Council. Faith is a member of Nonpareil and has served as second vice-president.

Ron Stamey will escort the queen. Ron is an engineering major from High Point. He has held various offices at MH including president of his class for two years, and music director of the BSU. Ron also served as secretary of Phi C-I Term.

Baptist Student Union To Sponsor Retreat

The Baptist Student Union is sponsoring a Spring Retreat on January 23, 1961, in the BSU Room of Mars Hill College. The program will begin at 1:00 p.m. with a general meeting for the Executive Council of the BSU.

From 2:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. each one will be working with his individual project in preparing for the activities of second semester. At 5:00 p.m., supper will be served in the Blue Room of the Cafeteria. Beginning at 8:00 p.m. there will be a Religious Life Meeting, the speaker being Mr. M. H. Kendall.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend all the meetings of the Retreat, except for the Religious Life Meeting.

The BSU, in attempting to reach its goals, is hindered in stewardship. In order to reach this goal, 60% of the Baptist students enrolled in college churches are expected to give to the church. We hope that the students will place their church contributions in envelopes provided by the church.

The BSU president, Bobby Davis, has praised the work of the individual council members and is very much pleased with each one's faithfulness.

The freshmen class attendants are Suzie Merrimon, a liberal arts major from Fieldale, Va.; Eleanor Moore, a business student from Granite Falls; Joyce Pinto a liberal arts major from Mt. Rainier, Maryland; Maude Wells, also a liberal arts major, from Lexington, Mass.; and Thora Bell Worley, a Home Economics major from Marshall.

Sophomore Representatives
Representing the sophomore class on the court are Cyndy Cochran, a law major from Dalton, Georgia; and Rosalyn Creel, a liberal arts major from Charlotte. Rosalyn is presently serving as secretary of her sophomore class and secretary of the BSU Council.

Cheerleader Sandy Daniel from Roanoke Rapids is also a sophomore representative on the May Court.

Zella Moore and Mary Thore are the remaining sophomore representatives. Zella is from High Point. She is president of Stroup Dorm and vice-president of the WRA. Mary from Newport News, Virginia, is taking a liberal arts course. She has served as hostess and secretary of Nonpareil.

Honor Club Programs Range From Camelot And Cervantes to Present Situation In Cuba

January meetings of Honor Clubs, on Monday and Tuesday, the 9th and 10th, featured a wide variety of programs.

"Camelot", a current Broadway musical based on Arthurian material, was the center of the Scriblerus program. Judy Elam read the continuity, while Gentry Crisp played recordings of music from the show. Other aspects of the Arthurian legend were presented by Tim Jernigan as King Arthur, Eric Blackwell, as a page, and Richard Dillingham as reader. Gene McCreary gave the introduction.

Nanney To Lead Home Ec. Club

Members of the Spanish Club, meeting at the home of Mrs. Fish, viewed a film "The Golden Age of Spain", based on art and literature during the time of Cervantes. French Club discussed architecture, using as illustrations the famous chateaux of France, particularly those of Blois and Chenonceau. The meeting was at the home of Mrs. Nona Roberts.

Science Club met in Edna Moore Parlor. The program consisted of two parts. Mr. Wood asked students questions on a miscellaneous scientific subject; afterward the club members divided into two groups for a contest.

A movie "You Decide" was viewed by Business Club members. All business students were invited to the meeting. Logothia members, meeting at the home of M. H. Kendall discussed the topic "Origin of the Bible."

Orpheon members meeting with Mr. John Sumrall, heard him give the history of the recorder. Mr. Sumrall, Mr. Cole and Mrs. Robertson performed as a recorder trio. IRC based its program on the situation in Cuba. Speaking were Lee Daniels, Jerry Knotts, and David Youngman.

Dean Lee Announces Registration Schedule

According to information released by the Dean's office, second semester registration will proceed as follows: On Monday, January 23, freshmen will meet with their advisers at 8:00 o'clock. Each student will be scheduled to report in the gymnasium at a definite hour be-

(Cont. on p. 4, col. 2)

FIRST SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS

January 16-21, 1961

CLASS	EXAMINATION TIME
11:30 MWF	Monday (8:00 - 10:00)
1:30 TT	January (10:30 - 12:30)
10:30 MWF	16 (2:00 - 4:00)
11:30 TTS	Tuesday (8:00 - 10:00)
1:30 MWF	January (10:30 - 12:30)
10:30 TTS	17 (2:00 - 4:00)
9:00 MWF	Wednesday (8:00 - 10:00)
12:30 TT	January (10:30 - 12:30)
8:00 MWF	18 (2:00 - 4:00)
8:00 TTS	Thursday (8:00 - 10:00)
3:30 MWF	January (10:30 - 12:30)
9:00 TTS	19 (2:00 - 4:00)
2:30 MWF	Friday (8:00 - 10:00)
12:30 MWF	January (10:30 - 12:30)
2:30 TT	20 (2:00 - 4:00)
3:30 TT	Saturday (8:00 - 10:00)
Others	January 21 (10:30 - 12:30)

meetings

TAUR

N. C.

or 9951

the GIFT Awards
always Crisp, Bell

Crisp and Brenda recipients of prizes in first and second respectively. There were a minimum of 56 models, and the narators were the following girls: Katherine Powell and Mary Helen Burch for the Monday, Wednesday and Friday section; and Alice Robbins and Judy Poyner in the Saturday section. This fashion show consisted of clothes made by the girls taking Home Economics II.

Projects underway for the second semester are the following: chapel program on February 6-7, study of the cultures of other lands, new ideas in recruitment, study of catering for special events, and a contest for the Crisco Award (a bronze statue) for the most outstanding Home Economic's student.

North

HARM