

Mars Hill Honor Clubs Hold Monthly Meetings; Forensic Team Programs Include Film Strips, Music, Drama In Tournament

The honor clubs held their monthly meetings Monday and Tuesday nights, April eleven and twelve. The Scriblerus Club met in Huffman parlor and presented a program of "Literature and Life in Drama." The program included two plays, Andromache by Jean Racine and Comedy of Errors by William Shakespeare. A final portion of the program was a score from the musical Oklahoma by Rodgers and Hammerstein. Refreshments were served after the program.

The French Club met at Mrs. Nona Roberts home, where slides were shown of the scenic places in and around Paris, including the Eiffel Tower and the Triumphal Arch. A social hour was held after the program.

The Spanish Club met at Mrs. Fish's home, where the theme of the program centered around the various types of Spanish music and dances. The program included talks on La Musica del Peru, Los Bailes de Latino-america, and Los Bailes de Mexico. They heard music from a Chilean folk dance La Gueca, the music of the Mexican Hat Dance, La Raspa. Afterwards the group listened to a selection of Spanish folk songs. A picnic is being planned for the next meeting.

The Bible Club members discussed Judaism.

The members of the Business Club visited the New York Stock Exchange Branch in Asheville on Tuesday afternoon, April 12. After a lecture on the stock exchange, the girls had time to shop before having supper in the S&W Cafeteria.

The International Relations Club met in Stroup Parlor on Tuesday evening. The topic of discussion for the program was Kennedy's foreign and domestic policies. The members discussed Kennedy's peace corps, views on education unemployment, depressed areas, Laos and Africa.

After dinner at the Farkas home the members of the Ger-

Members of the Mars Hill College debating team and entrants in speaking contests are participating in the Smoky Mountain Forensic Tournament, which is being held this week end, April 21-22, at Carson-Newman College in Jefferson City, Tennessee.

The debaters are matched with teams from leading colleges of the eastern and midwestern United States for five preliminary rounds of debate on the intercollegiate debate proposition, Resolved: That the United States should adopt a program of compulsory health insurance for all citizens.

Members of the Mars Hill College debating team attending are Harold Nesbitt and Paul Clark, who are debating affirmative, and Audrey Bunce and Johnny Grier who compose the negative team.

John Reagan is representing Mars Hill in the after dinner speaking, oratory, and extemporaneous speaking contests. Annemarie Nussbaumer is entering the women's divisions of the oratory, extemporaneous speaking, and oral interpretation contests. Entrants in speaking contests as well as debates are Harold Nesbitt in oral interpretation, Audrey Bunce in extemporaneous speaking and oratory, Johnny Grier in after dinner speaking, and Paul Clark in extemporaneous speaking.

Dorm Officers

Continued from Page 1

Greene and Pat Byrd will serve as chorister and pianist respectively. The socials and refreshments will be planned by Diane Shoe and Betty Jane Foster.

Audrey Bunce of Stedman was elected president of Treat Dormitory. Annemarie Nussbaumer and Judy Pierce will be serving as vice-president and secretary, respectively. Lois Nicholson will serve as chaplain. The chorister's position will be filled by Lynette Robinson, while Sarah Griffin accompanies the girls on the piano. Sandra Allen will be in charge of the socials in Treat.

The members of the Orpheon Club saw two filmstrips on Beethoven, and the banjos of the mountains.

Mr. Taylor showed the members of the Science Club slides on plant life in Western North Carolina. He also had a few shots of the semi-deserts of the West.

THE CUB RESTAURANT

MAIN STREET

MARS HILL, N. C.

Steaks, Seafood, Pizza, Sandwiches

Fountain Service

Telephone 4391 or 9951

Do You Plan To Return to MHC Next Fall? We can clean and store your winter clothes through the vacation.

STORAGE FREE — PAY FOR CLEANING NEXT FALL

All Garments Fully Covered With Insurance

MARS HILL CLEANERS

Phone 2661

THE MARS THEATRE

2 Shows Nightly Phone 3591 Matinee Friday 3:45
6:30 and 8:30 Saturday 1:30 Continuous

WEEK OF APRIL 24-29

MON. & TUES.—*The Grass Is Greener—Cary Grant, Deborah Kerr
WEDNESDAY—Hell Squad—Great War Picture
THURS. & FRI.—*The Sundowners—Robert Mitchum, Deborah Kerr
*Li'l Abner—Peter Palmer and Leslie Parrish
SATURDAY—*Tarzan the Magnificent—Gordon Scott

WEEK OF MAY 1-6

MON. & TUES.—*Where the Boys Are—Entertainment Special
WEDNESDAY—Female and the Flesh
THURS. & FRI.—Flaming Star—Elvis Presley
SATURDAY—Jack the Ripper
Career—Dean Martin, Shirley McLaine

*In color

Bullard, Weeks, Morton, and S Head List of Commencement O

Officers for the Commencement Term of the four cities were elected at the meetings held on March 16 and 17. Libby Bullard, from Lumberton, was elected president. Libby served as Clio censor last term. Dixie Chastan, S. C., was elected vice-president.

Other officers include Marie Small, secretary; Lynda McNeil, censor; Wanda Walters, chaplain; the marshals are Sandy Justice, chief, Linda Huneycutt, Ann Brookshire, Shelia Hopkins, and Sharon Purcell alternate.

Elected president of Phi was Mayon Weeks, from Fayetteville. Mayon served as secretary of Phi during Anniversary Reception term. Richard Dillingham, from Weaverville, was elected vice-president.

Officers also elected in Phi were Fred Linkenhoker, secretary; Ed Newman, censor; Jim Turberville, chaplain; and Richard Bennet and Tim Viar, marshals.

Helen Staley was elected president of Non. Helen is from Roxboro. She served as chaplain during Anniversary - Reception and was second vice-president last term. Elected to serve as first vice-president was Phyllis Inman, from Canton, and Alice Boley, from Roanoke, Virginia, was elected second vice-president.

Also holding offices in Non

a Date
Banquet

Nicholson Head Marshal List

Bolick and Mary serve as chief marshal for the coming year. She is from Maiden and was recently elected to head the Council for next year. She hails from Huffman Dorm and the Women's Student Council. She hails from St. Pauls, was president.

Remaining officers are Cebron Russell, secretary; Art Cong, Judy Ferrell, and the marshals, Dan Keels, and Howard Bridges.

For FRIENDLY SERVICE and QUALITY WORK Visit The MARS HILL SHOE SHOP Located on Mars Hill Highway

THE MARS HILL SODA SHOP RESTAURANT

EXTENDS

Thanks to

THE RESIDENTS AND MARS HILL COLLEGE STUDENTS

FOR

Their Gracious Patronage
Come Again Soon and Often

ALINE AND DON MOYER

Mother's Day calls for...

Hollingsworth's UNUSUAL CANDIES

MARS HILL PHARMACY

Honored Banquet

ate, president of the Student Council, has been elected as president of the Student Council for the 1962 school year. Suzanne is vice-president and Audrey is secretary.

son, secretary of the group serving as vice-president of the Men's Student Council. Ron Edward's of the vice-president and of Myers as Sec-ers as well as the new and old Men's Student Councils at a Banquet held in the cafeteria. The theme of the decorations. A colored and pink was used and challenged the responsibility.

women council presented "potpourri" which are flower with rare spices, Biggers in appreciation of their work during