

Honor Clubs Plan Picnics For May Meets; Officers To Be Elected For Fall Semester

Picnics, banquets, elections of new officers plus the regular programs compose the agenda for the May meetings of the Mars Hill Honor Clubs.

The French Club will meet Tuesday night at Mrs. Nona Roberts' home for a program of skits to be conducted in French. Before the program, Mrs. Roberts will be hostess for the club at a dinner.

Picnicking will be the major portion of the Science Club's program. The picnic will be held during the week of May 7, and Humphrey Gardens will be the eating place.

The English Honor Club, Scriblerus, will have dinner in the Blue Room at 5:30 Tuesday, May 8. The theme of the program will be "In the Springtime". Helen Brown, Ron McClamrock and Arliss Suttles will present a parody of "Romeo and Juliet". Kay Shadoan will read an original short story and Lillian Robinson will read poems on Spring.

Nancy Stackhouse will be the hostess at her home for the Spanish Club picnic which will be held Friday night, May 12.

At a recent called meeting of the Spanish Club, Larry Farrell was elected president; Jayne Tomlinson, vice-president; and Nancy Stackhouse, secretary-treasurer.

The members of the International Relations Club will hold their regular meeting at Carolina Hemlock near Burnsville on Tuesday afternoon.

German Club members will meet at the home of Mr. Farkas for a picnic.

Bruce Wins Chapel Society Contest

Audrey Bruce was the winner of the Temperance Reading Contest which was held in chapel on May 1 between Nonpareil and Clio. The topic which Audrey used was "Is This the Answer?" Audrey was the runner-up of the Temperance Reading Contest held in Clio on February 23.

Marsha Byassee, a Nonpareil, was runner-up. The title of her paper was "It's Up to You." Marsha won first place in the contest held earlier in Nonpareil.

Starr Keller, the other Nonpareil contestant, spoke on Alcoholics Anonymous. Jean Yoder spoke on the importance of guidance and influence by parents, and the attitude they have towards alcoholism. Jean was the other contestant representing Clio.

Debate Team Travels To Carson-Newman

On Thursday, April 20, members of the Mars Hill College debating team and entrants in speaking contests journeyed to Jefferson City, Tennessee, to participate in the Smoky Mountain Forensic Tournament at Carson-Newman College.

One affirmative and one negative team represented Mars Hill in the debates on the intercollegiate topic of the year, "Resolved: That the United States should adopt a program of compulsory health insurance for all citizens." The affirmative team consisted of Harold Nesbitt and Paul Clark. Audrey Bunce and Johnny Grier composed the negative team. The Mars Hill College teams won a total of five debates, beating the University of Tennessee twice, Wingate College, East Tennessee College, and Carson-Newman College. The winners of the six preliminary rounds advanced to the finals on the basis of skill displayed in presenting and upholding their case, refutation, delivery, and soundness of their arguments.

Annemarie Nussbaumer and John Reagan entered speaking contests in oratory, extemporaneous speaking, oral interpretation, and after dinner speaking. The debaters entered speaking contests as well as debates.
