92 Achieve Dean's List

197 Others Eligible for Honor Clubs

Gaddy To Succeed Dr. Branch

Claude F. Gaddy of Raleigh, well known to many on our campus, has been nominated to serve as acting general secretary of the Baptist State Convention, succeeding the late Dr. Douglas Branch. The convention's board of directors (General Board) will act on the nomination Monday.

Until his retirement nearly two years ago Mr. Gaddy was closely associated with the seven N. C. Baptist colleges as head of the Council on Christian Education. That post is now held by the Rev. Ben Fisher, whose son Hugh is a freshman here.

Dr. Branch was killed in an automobile accident near Ahoskie last week. Formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church at Rocky Mount, he had been general secretary-treasurer of the 900,000-member state convention less than four years.

Lyceum Lists Noted Analyst

Eric Severaid, famous radio and television news commentator and analyst, is scheduled on the college lyceum series for Mar. 5.

First newsman to be slated here in recent years, Mr. Severaid's appearance is in response to a request for more varied lyceum programs.

Among other items listed on the up-and-coming lyceum schedule are Lord's Puppets on Mar. 2 and Magician Paul Fleming on Mar. 23. A special musical attraction will be the concert appearance of the Asheville Symphony Orchestra in Moore Auditorium on Mar. 19.

A trumpet recital by Mr. Pressley and concerts by the band and touring choir round out the pre-spring holiday program schedule.

The Weighing Choice 1963 'Miss Laurel'

Picture-taking for the annual is nearing completion, Editor Judy Harless has revealed; and the remainder of the copy should go to the printer by Feb. 22.

Juniors and sophomores who have not returned their biographical data sheets for the directories should do so at once, she said.

Pictures to be made include: Methodist Youth Fellowship and Canterbury Club, tomorrow (Sun.) night; BSU council, intramural council and volleyball champs, Laurel staff, Monday night; YWA and AGO Wednesday; honor clubs, Feb. 18 and 19.

Tallying her quality points to see how she achieved the highest number of any student is Mimi Jones of Belmont. A sophomore studying to become a teacher, she bagged the high total despite a B in slide rule. A marshal, Mimi was on the honor roll both terms last year with 49 and 54 q.p's.

News from Other Campuses

Property valued at $200,000 was given recently to Gardner-Webb, Baptist junior college near Shelby, by an anonymous donor.

The gift has been placed in trust and the income from it will be used to meet the operational costs of the college, President Eugene Poston said.

Decatur (Texas) Baptist College, oldest junior college in the nation, has been invited to move to Dallas to become the nucleus of a proposed new Baptist university.

Trustees of the 210-student school, located 50 miles northwest of the Dallas-Fort Worth metropolitan area, will meet next Thursday to consider the offer. Construction of the new university will begin in December and the campus is to be ready for occupancy by June 1965.

John Sinclair, formerly of the MH music faculty, recently completed final examination for the Doctorate of Music degree in piano at Indiana University.

Now associate professor of piano and music history at William Carey Baptist College in Hattiesburg, Miss., Dr. Sinclair taught here and was organist at the MH Baptist Church from 1957 until 1959.

High School Musicians Here for Choral Clinic

More than 200 high school students from throughout the state and from East Tennessee are on the campus today for the final sessions of the 14th annual choral clinic.

Sponsored by the music department and directed by Elwood Roberts, the workshop brings together talented singers for intensive instruction and rehearsal. The clinic will be climaxed with a public concert in the auditorium at 8 p. m. tonight. College students, faculty and staff members are invited.

Guest instructor-conductor for the clinic is Paul Peterson of Salem College.

Twenty-nine schools from as far east as Albemarle are represented.

The visitors were entertained at a banquet last night, which included a musical program by the Touring Choir. A varied schedule of other recreational and entertainment features are interspersed with the instruction and rehearsal sessions.

Schools and directors include Reynolds, Miss Doris Hunter; Albemarle, Paul Fry; Allen, Miss Winifred Wrisly; Appalachian, James E. Wilson, Jr.; Canton, Carroll Shaver; Owen, Richard Hipps; Chase, Henry Thorne; Claremont of Hickory, Robert Ellis; Clyde Erwin of Asheville, Mrs. Anne Clodfelter; Clyde, R. C. C. Vodka; Tryon, Mrs. Ramona Rhodes; Valdese, Bob Williams; Wilkes Central, Miss Mary Louise Clements.

A total of 92 students — 17 juniors, 39 sophomores and 36 freshmen — are listed on the dean's academic honor roll for first semester as compiled by the registrar's office.

A minimum of 40 quality points and no grade less than C are requirements for a place on the coveted roll. A total of 197 other students who achieved at least 30 quality points but less than 40 with no grade below C are eligible, along with those on the dean's list, for membership in an honor club.

Top honor in the academic race was won by sophomore Mimi Jones, who accumulated 58 quality points. Three persons tied for second place with 57; they are junior Morris Wray and freshmen Rhea Lineberger and Lewellyn Lovell. The latter two joined Mrs. Linda Kuhlman, a junior, as the only all-A scholars.
