

The Hilltop

Published by the Students of Mars Hill College

... BSU member may attend if he or she purchases a ticket (on sale in the cafeteria) by Apr. 19.

MARS HILL, N. C., SATURDAY, APRIL 6, 1963

Number 12

College, Church Will Host State-wide BSU Conference

College students from throughout the state will be here Apr. 19-21 for the state-wide BSU Spring Leadership Training Conference.

Approximately 225 students and about 25 adults have already made reservations for the week-end sessions, sponsored jointly by the Department of Student Work of the state convention, the MH

Baptist Church and the college. All sessions will be held in the church.

Most of the visitors will be housed on the campus, but more than 50 of them will be entertained in the homes of residents of the community.

Centering on the theme, "God's Call in the Present Tense," the conference will begin on Friday night with the keynote address by Dr. Thomas E. McCollough, visiting professor of religion at Duke.

A religious drama, "Sleep of Prisoners," will be presented that same evening by a group from Campbell College.

Other features of the program include an address, "God's Call to Christian Leadership," by the Rev. James Cansler, BSU director at UNC; a discussion of "Whither Southern Baptists" by the editor of the state Baptist paper, Marse Grant; and a film, "Operation Crossroads."

Fifteen workshops on various subjects and areas of BSU work will be conducted during the three-day conference. On hand to coordinate the entire conference will be the state director of BSU work, Dr. Bill Smith, and his associate, the Rev. Boyce Medlin.

New officers will be installed at the Saturday evening service which, as are all the sessions, are open to any college student.

The conference will end on Sunday with the delegates attending a Bible study on Christian vocation during the Sunday school hour, led by Dr. McCollough, and joining with the local congregation in the worship service at 11 a.m.

Susan Walker of MHC has been a state BSU officer this school year, serving as one of two student representatives to the General Board, the board of directors which acts on convention business when the convention is not in session.

Booster Club Seeks Name

A contest to name an athletics booster club, which is in the formation process, was announced earlier this week by Bill Deans. A $5 cash prize will be offered for the winning name.

Entries should be submitted on a sheet of plain paper through a box in the Student Center. Contestants should sign and date their entries so that in case of duplication the earliest entry may win. Undated entries will not be valid, Deans said.

The winner and the winning name will be published in the Apr. 27 issue of the Hilltop along with additional information on the formation of the booster organization, election of officers, etc.

The idea for the formation of an on-campus booster club was presented to the administration recently. Final details will be worked out by students supporting the idea and by the coaching staff.

Reception Planned

A reception welcoming Miss Sue Fitzgerald to the community and to her new position as director of Christian education at the MH Baptist Church will be held tomorrow (Apr. 7) at 4 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall of the church. Everyone is invited.

Nine Summer Meetings To Draw 2,000 Campus Visitors

Nine summer conferences scheduled during June, July and August are expected to attract more than 2,000 visitors to our campus.

Beginning with the Baptist Faculty Conference — a retreat for Baptists who teach in colleges throughout the nation — on June 20-22, the meetings will be going on almost continuously through Aug. 16, when the annual conference of North Carolina school superintendents ends. Summer school will be in session during all but the last conference.

The religious gatherings include an orientation program June 27-July 5 for newly appointed Baptist foreign missionaries and candidates for appointment; a school of Christian study and fellowship July 8-12 for pastors and other church workers throughout the state; and an interracial retreat for Christian leaders on July 22-26.

The other five conferences involve public school personnel and students. They include a workshop for school maintenance supervisors on July 16-19, a congress of high school student council members July 21-26, a conference of classroom teachers Aug. 5-7, the North Carolina Education Association's Leadership conference Aug. 8-11 and the superintendents' conference Aug. 13-16.

Largest group will be about 600 attending the superintendents' meeting.

Dramateers Compete In Chapel Hill

The Dramateers, who received an "Excellent" rating on the presentation of "Go Down Moses" at the recent district drama festival in Cullowhee, are showing their talents at the annual Carolina Dramatics Association Festival in Chapel Hill this weekend with "Cry Freedom," the story of a Russian invasion on Mars Hill.

Presented last fall by the Euthalian Literary Society at its anniversary program, "Cry Freedom" is the original work of former MHC student John Morrow, who asked the Dramateers to stage it for him at the festival. It stars Mayon Weeks and Butch Suttles.

In other dramatics news, the casting of the spring operetta, "The Mikado," has been delayed until after the Easter holidays, but a cast has been selected for the May Day play.

In a production entitled "Shakespeare's Ladies" Mary Horton will take the role of the ill-fated lover Juliet, Caroline Dixon will portray the now-famous Cleopatra, Betty Shaver will be Portia, and Mimi Jones will portray the wicked Desdemona.

Delivery of Big Rings Is Delayed

A delay in the delivery date on some college rings has been announced by George Goosmann, representative of the manufacturer, Josten's.

The heavy-weight men's rings will not be ready until May 27, he said. Anyone who will leave school before his order arrives may obtain his ring by mail by leaving his name and address at the Student Center and paying the balance due.

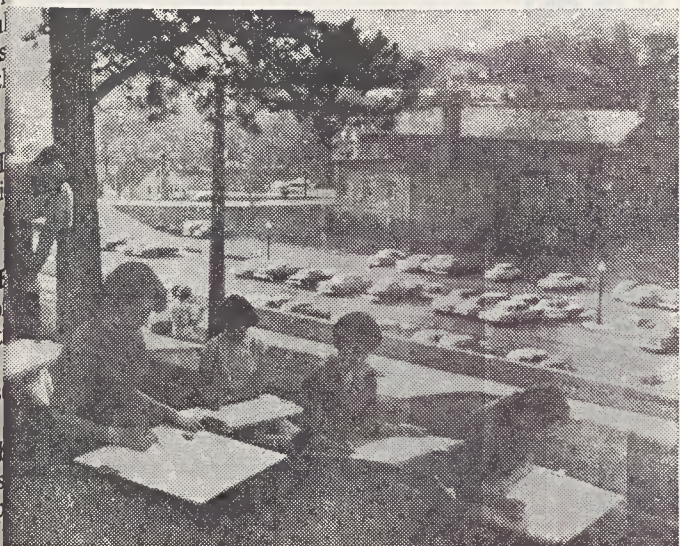

All rings contracted in the initial order — other than the men's heavy-weight ones — will be delivered through the Student Center on Apr. 29, Goosmann said.

Clubs to Debate

A debate between the Young Republicans Club and the Young Democrats Club will be staged on Wednesday evening, Apr. 24. Speakers will support their respective party programs on the issue of "Federal Aid to Education."

The presidents of the clubs, Morris Wray of YDC and Don Rothwell of YRC, are planning the forensics encounter.

XVII

Any sure signs of spring on the campus is the shifting of classes from the classroom to the hillside for outdoor laboratories. Instructor Joe Robertson looks over the work of sketchers on the hillside behind the auditorium. They are Linda Haynie, Mary Elizabeth Dennis, LaDonna Jenkins, and Melba Hawkins.

The Mars Hill Scene ...

Interesting movies are here. Tonight at 8 the film, "A Child Is Born" by Burt Lancaster and Burt Lancaster, will be shown.

After spring holidays (Apr. 20) an expose of Communism, a documentary entitled "We'll Rise, Premier Khrushchev" will be shown. It will be seen on Apr. 23.

Tracy and Frank Sinatra in "The Devil at 4" will be seen on Apr. 23.

Officers for the next term in Philomathian Literary Society include John Reagan, president; Bob Kemp, vice president; Ellis Tunstall, secretary; and Ralph Snider, censor.

Mrs. Pearle Head of the Student Center staff is recovering nicely from a recent fall which left her with a broken bone in her foot. She expresses appreciation for many kindnesses during her "enforced rest."

A record total budget of approximately $1,350,000 for the college for the next fiscal year beginning Aug. 16 was approved by the finance committee of the board of trustees Tuesday.

The display includes 14 large oil paintings and 14 ink and watercolor drawings and paintings.

A native of Bland, Va., the artist holds a BS degree from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and a Master of Fine Arts degree from the Woman's College of UNC. Honors include first prize in oil and honorable mention in sculpture at Blowing Rock State Annual Exhibition, 1958, and a special award for painting at the 24th North Carolina Artists Annual Exhibition, 1962.

Current exhibit in the fine arts gallery of Moore Auditorium is the work of Mackey Jeffries, acting head of the art department at Meredith College in Raleigh.

The display includes 14 large oil paintings and 14 ink and watercolor drawings and paintings.

A native of Bland, Va., the artist holds a BS degree from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and a Master of Fine Arts degree from the Woman's College of UNC. Honors include first prize in oil and honorable mention in sculpture at Blowing Rock State Annual Exhibition, 1958, and a special award for painting at the 24th North Carolina Artists Annual Exhibition, 1962.

ual BSU banquet
d at the church on
Dr. Robert Seymour
speaker. Any ...
YBURTON
ER CLUB for M
med, and I wou
st-initiated unde
ection and shoul
e athletic status
e slowness with ilities comes.
elp speed things
etics at Mars H eak up." The at support and elves.
MAJORS CLU
asic formation o
ers are attempt
been successful
vo groups will s RUCK the foot
conspired again
oined to limit sp
st week. Little le to learn muc
ng lettermen.
to continue bec
a than good."
WEATHER has
k and tennis ar
good weather, h
elop into good t
to put forth as e players put SCHEDULE for ve will be seeing open with Mary (Va.) there on the rentice School
orgia here for
there on Oct.
26, Carson-New
of South Carol
sity) on Nov.
chool has been s chedule for the next
ds are as follows:
pr. 9), installation of fficers; Apr. 18 (first er spring holidays),
Crouch, speaker; Apr.
bert Seymour, former
e MH Baptist Church,
pr. 25, the Rev. Harold Brevard, speaker.
ner Jobs
in Europe
ities to earn and learn eling in Europe are Mars Hillians through Student Information
private, non-profit,
l, non-sectarian organ-
nded in 1957.
y planning for its sixth
mmer program, ASIS jobs lined up through-for American college
teachers.
ails on the program
otained by writing to Avenue de la Liberte, g City, (Postage is copy of a bulletin on is available in the ice—see Mr. Smith.
elle Magazine says
vides one of the few,
ways for the average
get a summer job in na Ranks High
podard, a '62 graduate,
her class and No. 3
ly in the North Carost Hospital's School of Winston-Salem. She is g a 95 plus average.