

Baseball Team Virginia Bound For Three-Game Road Trip

The high-flying Lion baseball team, sporting a 5-2 record, will invade the Old Dominion state next week for a single game with Emory & Henry on Monday and a doubleheader with Bluefield on Tuesday. (They have already beaten Bluefield once, 11-1.)

Net Squad Will Face Busy Week

The final home game of the season will be played against Emory & Henry here on Thursday, May 14, and the final action of the year will see the Lions tangle with Belmont Abbey there on May 20 in a pair of once-postponed games.

The team split a doubleheader Wednesday with Milligan on the Tennesseans' diamond. Milligan copped the first game 5-1, but the Lions came back to take the second game 9-1.

Jack Hughes started for Mars Hill in the opener, but gave way to Dave Livengood in the third. Livengood pitched good ball the rest of the way.

Don Love, ace righthander of the staff, went all the way in the second game. The defeat by the Lions was only the fourth for Milligan in 20 games this season.

After defeating Hiwassee (Tenn.) 5-4 on Apr. 17 for their third straight victory, the Lions returned home to tackle a strong Western Carolina squad on Apr. 20. They suffered their first defeat, a 6-0 shutout.

The "Hendersonmen" got back into winning form last Saturday (Apr. 25) with a 14-2 win over Maryville.

Against the WCC Catamounts the Lions were able to collect only two hits as compared to the visitors' six. WCC pushed four runs across in the third inning and picked up single tallies in the fifth and eighth innings. The Lions' only threat occurred in the second inning when outfielder Joe Dunn singled after Chris Harman had flied to center. Following shortstop Ken Maynor's deep fly to right field, Dickie Hale reached base on an error and pitcher Don Love received a base on balls. Third sacker Moe Richardson lined what appeared to be a sure base hit, but WCC's Danny Jones made a good play and threw Richardson out.

Bouncing back against Maryville last Saturday, the Lions banged out a total of 18 hits. Every player hit safely at least once. They picked up four runs in the first and were never headed.

Righthander Love went the distance for the Lions, allowing seven hits. He lost his bid for a shutout in the seventh when two Scottie runners scored on three base hits.

The Lion attack has seen some potent hitting thus far. As a team, the Lions hit at a .306 clip in the first five games. Second baseman Lou Hill leads all batters with a lofty .389. Following closely were first baseman Larry Honeycutt at .381, Dunn at .333, Maynor and Hale at .318 and Richardson at .304.

Final Track Meet Of Season Against Brevard Is Cancelled

Coach Ezell reported Monday that the final meet of the season's schedule against Brevard has been cancelled by the Tornados. Because of numerous injuries the squad had been unable to participate in the Davidson Relays last Saturday as planned.

The Lions finished second in a triangular meet with Emory & Henry and Milligan Tuesday and tangled with Maryville Thursday, barely losing 63-68.

Freshman distance man Ron Whitworth sustained a broken left leg in a freakish accident Tuesday. Coach Ezell said Ron suffered a severe muscle cramp while running and that the drawing up of the muscle broke the large bone. Five doctors who examined him were amazed, saying they had never seen such a case before.

In their third meet of the season on Apr. 20, the Lions took eight first places out of 15 events but fell behind the Carson Newman Eagles, who picked up a majority of the second and third place finishes. The final results were 74-68 in favor of the Tennesseans.

Mars Hill's Bob Leonard won the mile run in 4:52.3 and the two-mile in 10:57.2; and Chip Harp captured two first-place finishes in the 100-yard dash and the 220-yard dash in times of :10.4 and :22.8, respectively.

Ron Whisnant won the 880-yard run in 2:12.3 and finished third in the 220-yard low hurdles. Kees Auer won the shot put and discus events. Dave Montross leaped to a height of 10 feet and won the pole vault.

Gordon McCombs had seconds in the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard low hurdles, while Henry Zion captured second place in the 440-yard dash and third in the broad jump.

Manly League and Ron Whitworth finished third in the 220-yard dash and the two-mile run, respectively. Dave Beaman finished second in the high jump, while Bo Dishman captured second place in the javelin throw.

Modestly bowing their heads, Buddy Windle and Becky Youngblood hear warm praise heaped upon them for their selection as outstanding graduating physical education majors. Dr. and Blackwell look on.

Awards Given, PE Officers Named At Career Banquet

Becky Youngblood and Buddy Windle were cited as the two most outstanding physical education students for 1964 and new officers of the Physical Education Majors' Club were installed at a Career Day banquet in the cafeteria recently.

Coach Don Henderson presented awards to the two future PE teachers, who are currently practicing teaching but who have been extremely active in intercollegiate sports and WRA affairs, respectively, during their careers here.

Retiring club president Mackie McLendon presented a challenge to incoming president Don Love; and Windle, retiring vice president-program chairman, introduced his successor, Gerald Lankford.

Two other officers of the club for next year, Bill Smarr, treasurer, and Grace Carter, secretary, were inducted by retiring secretary-treasurer Diane Vaughn.

Benny Mac Carter, Jane Cotton and Sue McCall were named as the new reporter, editorial chairman and social chairman, respectively. They succeeded Dave Hughes, Curtis Combs and Grace Carter. Coach Henderson presided over the installation ceremonies.

The banquet climaxed an afternoon of special activities for standing physical education students and their teachers from several high schools in the surrounding area.

In the absence of a film, "Evolution for Living," which has been scheduled for the banquet, Dean Lynch spoke. Also on the program were Dean Lee, who pronounced the invocation, and Blackwell, who welcomed the
