

THE MARS HILL COLLEGE HILLTOP

Volume XLVII, No. 7

Mars Hill, North Carolina

Monday, November 20, 1972

Who's Who Selected For '72

Twenty-fourteen students and school; promise of football player, Ben Jolley - college Mars Hill College five faculty mem- future usefulness; Jim Epting-Presi- marshal, Terry Kuyken-seniors have been bers. Nominations and acceptable dent of APO, and dall- President of SGA accepted for in- for this honor and scholarship. Frank Farrell- and Millibet Mein- NSF clusion in Who's were based on the The choices chief justice of project, 1971
Who Among Students students partic- were: Robbie Bee- SGA. Dennis Myers colin American Col- ipation and lead- ler-head cheer- Kay Gregory- lege recruiter, Joy leges and Univer- ership in academic leader, Deborah editor of Cadenza, Rhodes - president of sities. These and extracurricu- Bouchillon-- sena- Ken Gregory=first CSM, Paul Richardson students were cho- lar activities: tor, Norman Car- President of CSM, - head college marshal sen by a committee citizenship and Jane Irwin - head consisting of fif- service to the Jeff Davis- star cheerleader ('71),

—Turn to Page Five

Miss Laurel Chosen

The eighth annual Miss Laurel pageant was held last Tuesday night. The various dorms and classes were represented by fifteen girls who displayed for the audience a varied array of talent and beauty. The competition, hosted by Mr. Harrell Wood was divided into three categories. Talent was judged fifty percent; evening gown talent and street clothes twenty five percent. The Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonians opened the pageant along with the contestants singing a festive ren- dition of "Are you From Dixie." The Sinfonians also offered invaluable assistance in staging and lighting during the pageant. The 1972-73 Miss Laurel is Susan Marshall. Susan's talent, a piece by Chopin, was scored highest. First run- ner-up was Pam Polk, second runner-up, Jennifer Sims and the remaining finalists were Sheryl Davis and Pam Smith. The pageant was directed by Nancy Buchanan, Kent Gall and Mike Dickson.

—Turn to Page five

Susan Marshall

Bob Knott Seriously Ill

Bob Knott, former Director of Institutional Research here at Mars Hill, and now studying at the State University of New York at Buffalo is recovering from a very serious case of appendicitis. Bob was operated on last Friday, and is making a satisfactory recovery. Bob's home address (for those who might wish to send him a card) is Apartment 5, Denrose Drive, Tonawanda, New York 14150.

R.A.'s Farrell, Usery, Caldwell, and Middleton.

Resident Hall Duty Systemized

Do you have problems, questions, emergencies or just want someone to talk with? The new system of resident assistant coverage on the weekends, for the men's halls may help you. The duty system provides one or two resident assistants and a resident counselor in the two men's areas for the weekend. This duty runs from Friday night at 7:00 p.m. to Sunday noon. The two areas mentioned are the men's hill with Gibson, Myers, Brown and Melrose and the area around the administration building where Treat and Spillman are located. To iden-

—Turn To Page Five

Freshmen Elect Leaders

Wednesday, November 15, saw the second election in Mars Hill. The election of freshman class officers drew the same response in terms of voter participation. Roughly fifty-five percent of the freshman class voted, but the results of the election proved only partially decisive. Elected as freshman senators were Jean Barton, Daniel Christian, Charlene Hess, Val McNabb, Sarah Traylor and Keith Wigglesworth. Rhonda Price will handle the correspondence and Angela Bryant has been entrusted with the class funds. However, the