Russia Trip

... and poverty. From all indications, the Russians are moving swiftly in that direction; having already passed the United States in many areas, but the year 2000 they may create a civilization far better than any presently known to man.

On the other hand, they may not. But if present attitudes are persistent, the United States not only will never reach these goals, it will suffocate in the mire of its materialism, and never even come close.

Letters Continued

that could be solved not out of better management, because the staff this year is the best it has been. But the problems could be solved by some financial support.

at the station doing some work before you start making a judgement like we are mismanaged or have "the effect of a Somnex tablet."

Sincerely,

Roy Gullick
