

PEOPLE

by Dick Newsome

Back by popular demand, Saturday night in McConnell "Coliseum," the College Union presents the Doobie Brothers Right?? Would you believe Marshall Tucker? No. How about PEOPLE!!

PEOPLE, a band from Augusta, Georgia will return to MHC. Having played here last spring, this is your chance to hear them again or for the first time.

The dance will be held after the Elon game. It will begin at 10:00 PM and continue until 2:00 AM. It is understood that none of the girls will turn into pumpkins until 2:00, at least 1:30 anyhow. Admission will be the standard $1.00 for couples and $.75 for singles.

"PEOPLE" to play at DANCE

OFF AND COMPETING

Let me tell you of a fine facility available to you: the student, faculty, or staff member. Wren College Union was newly opened last year, and has many new and exciting areas of entertainment.

Available are: a recreation room, a coffeehouse, a snack bar, a lounge area, couple of television rooms and much more. In order to find its full worth, this writer suggests you beat a path to the Union and check it out for yourself.

I would like to single out the Recreation Room and tell you a little bit about it. On any given afternoon, you can play pool, either pocket or bumper, ping-pong, and foosball. If you don't believe the competition is keen, you just try rackin' 'em up with Dr. Quick, or grab a paddle with Leo Nara. You'll agree with me, there is a rough game in the offing.

This year the Recreation Committee has met and set up nine (9) tournaments for your enjoyment and competition.

A chess tourney is set for Monday, September 16th and the winner will be sent to the Regional Tournaments, all expenses paid, courtesy of Wren College Union. All I can say is "I wish I played chess." Also being played for representation in the Regionals are; Bridge and 14.1 pool. I don't play bridge as well as J. Boy Black, but he'd better be alert--I do play pool!

Other tournaments in Ping-Pong, Foosball, Spades, Eight-ball, Bridge and Chess will be played for school championships. If you win a tournament in this area, your name goes on a wall plaque in the Union. The dates for those tournaments will be posted all over the place, but if you still miss them, no sweat--pound on down to the Rec Room and ask the attendant on duty, he has a complete list of the tournaments. Deadline to register for all tournaments is one week before the day of the tournament. These tournaments are open to students, faculty, and staff members.

If you are wondering what to do with your spare time, amble on around to Wren College Union, lay a quarter on the attendant for registration (that's not bad), and get into a tournament. As J. Boy says "I can't hate it, I just can't hate it."

THE GOOD, THE BAD, AND THE AWFUL

by Bob Kramer

A new year is ahead of us and with every new year comes a new season of movies. This season will be particularly good for any of you disaster nuts. Just look at some of the new releases: Beyond the Poseidon Adventure, Airport 1975, Earthquake, The Towering Inferno, The Hindenburg, and what will have to be the "creme de la creme", The Day the World Ended.

Now for the next two weeks in film in Mars Hill:

The Good...

Magnum Force (Mars Theatre) (R) Clint Eastwood in the return of Dirty Harry. Not as believable as Dirty Harry. Police vigilantes? Didn't they see Serpico?

West World (Mars Theatre) (PG) Disney world for adults Great for science fiction lovers. Weak on acting, but strong on action.

Billy Jack (Mars Theatre) (PG) Rereleased in time to promote the new film The Trial Of Billy Jack. Bad guys, rattlesnakes, indians, karate, corruption; just your average American film. I prefer Kane in Kung Fu.

The Bad...

Spikes Gang (Mars

Theatre) (PG) Lee Marvin as a crusty old bank robber who educates three youngsters for a brief career in crime. Long on mood; short on action.

Super Cops (Mars Theatre) (R) A minor league Serpico. Batman and Robin versus crime and corruption. Does not live up to its name.

Hitler, The Last 10 Days (Moore Auditorium) (PG) Alec Guinness as Hitler. Good portrayal of background characters but not of Hitler. The viewer is unable to see Hitler's power. It is not the fault of Guinness who certainly resembles Hitler; perhaps the power cannot be portrayed. Either you have it or you don't.

The Awful...

Separate Peace (Moore Auditorium) (PG) Juvenile rituals of courage at a classy easter prep school. Jumping from a tree into a river. I recommend Sunday night football instead.
