"Stone's Soliloquy"

BECOMING AWARE

How many times has the word "bicentennial" been seen or heard in the last 6 months and how many more times will we encounter it in the 1976 year?

During this Bicentennial and election year, people need to be aware of what it means to be an American in the latter twentieth century.

EDITOR'S NOTE: In the HILLTOP Christmas issue (No. 8), we ran a Guest Editorial. Through an oversight, we left out the author's name.

PAUL WINTER CONSORT "The Paul Winter Consort offers a rich and awesomely beautiful musical experience that everyone should be able to enjoy and be touched by, whatever their particular musical taste.

Over one third of the world's population does not have access to sufficient food and clothing; least of all luxuries.

In this issue, there are several articles that have restored some of my faith in North Americans. Several organizations on campus have undertaken humanitarian projects.

We need to become aware of different conditions under which other people live. Our "way" is not necessarily the "right" way of life.

Become aware and try to make this Bicentennial Year a better year!

There are elements of rock, jazz and classical music, but, like a long simmered stew with many spices, the flavors have become so intertwined that they are impossible to isolate.

Wren College Union sponsors The Most Unique Experience in Musical History on Saturday, February 21, 1976, in Moore Auditorium.

Be sure to see it!

EVENING COUNSELING

The Counseling Center is now offering its services to students one evening per week.

Mary Jo Byrd lives in the basement apartment of Edna Moore dormitory and is a graduate student intern from the University of South Carolina.

I.C. NEEDS YOU!

Around ten years ago, a group of students interested in international customs and goodwill, organized on the basis of these common interests.

Everyone interested is invited to work on the HILLTOP staff. We need workers!!! It does not matter whether you have had any experience.

We need TYPISTS, WRITERS, people to help with LAYOUTS, ARTISTS, people to sell AD space, etc., etc., etc.

If you are interested, please contact Becky Stone at 689-1250 (HILLTOP office), Susan Shirley at 689-1274, or come by the office.

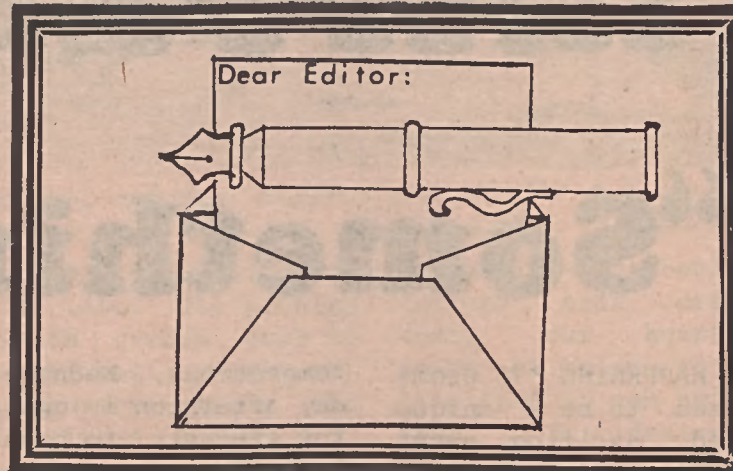

Donate some time to keep students, faculty members, the Mars Hill community, and others informed about what goes on at Mars Hill College.

Dear Editor,

For the past several years almost everything necessary to our survival has suffered under the rampages of inflation. Unfortunately, inflation has finally reached the ever price-dodging movie industry of Mars Hill.

shown were not always movies that were worthwhile, as better movies couldn't be procured because of the limited budget.
