FYI

MHC Comes to LIFE:

The Spring session of LIFE (Learning Institute for Elders) will be held at Mars Hill beginning April 3. LIFE is designed for mature adults seeking new outlets for their skills and interests as well as fellowship with their peers. The institute will offer two classes this spring which will meet each Tuesday morning in the ground floor classroom of Memorial Library.

Spring Visitation Days:

Mars Hill College is sponsoring two Spring Visitation Days for prospective students and their families Saturday March 17, and April 14. Each day's activities begin at 9:30 a.m. with registration in the lobby of Blackwell Hall.

Following registration, guided tours will be given to prospective students and their parents. They will also have the opportunity to talk with faculty members from all departments.

During the afternoon, a session with the financial aid director is planned.

For those who must travel long distances, short-term on-campus accommodations will be available. Reservations and additional information are available from the Office of Admissions, Mars Hill College, Mars Hill, N.C. 28754, telephone 704/689-1201.

Present MHC students are encouraged to welcome prospective students and be as helpful as possible. Also, if they know of any students interested in MHC, they are asked to make them aware of these visitation days.

Summer Counselors:

Applications are being accepted for residential counselors in the Gifted and Talented summer programs. Applicants need to have experience working with elementary and secondary students or express interest in doing so. Employment is from June 10 through July 20. Compensation is minimum wage plus room and board. Efforts will be made to assist students to find other employment on campus at the conclusion of the program. Applicants should expect a demanding 24-hour schedule. Applications are available in the Admissions Office. Deadline is March 16.
