

SPECIAL GRADUATION ISSUE

THE HILLTOP

Serving the Students of Mars Hill College Since 1926

Free At Last! Free At Last! THANK GOD WE'RE FREE AT LAST!

LY McELVEEN
Assistant editor

The class of '93 will walk across Moore Auditorium on Saturday at 3 p.m. to accept degrees from Dr. Earl [Name], vice president of [Name] affairs, while Dr. Fred [Name] confirms the degrees at Mars Hill College's ceremony.

Following the ceremony, Dr. R. Keith [Name], president and chief officer of the Foreign Board of the Southern Convention, will give the address scheduled at [Time].

Seating was provided to guests during the ceremony because of the limited seating in Moore Auditorium. Seating for those without tickets will begin at 2:45 p.m.

Music for both services will be provided by the College Choir, directed by Joel Reed, and by Donna Robertson, college organist. The College Band will provide a concert at 2:30 p.m. until the ceremony begins.

Graduation festivities begin on the Saturday before the big event occurs Sunday afternoon. The graduate banquet, sponsored by the Alumni Office, begins at 5:30 and will feature recognition of the Who's Who Among American College Students and outstanding student achievers along with a skit performed by senior class members and music. Seniors will also honor a faculty and staff member who have been especially helpful to class members during their four year stay at Mars Hill and present the senior class gift to the college. Reservations must be made with the Alumni Office in order to attend the banquet.

Following the banquet, a concert will be held in Moore with the College Choir, Chamber Choir, Concert Band and the Bailey Mountain Cloggers providing entertainment for the graduating seniors and their guests. Admission is free, and no, it is not a green card event.

Young and Smith win Debate

by JASON WUNSCH
guest writer

A successful first annual Mars Hill College Student Debate was held April 6 in Belk Auditorium.

The topic being debated dealt with the ban of homosexuals in the military. The debate was structured to have a winner chosen from the competitors.

The winning team was made up of Brian Smith and Henry Young, who argued that the ban on homosexuals in their military should be lifted. Brian Smith represented the Spanish Club and Henry Young represented Zeta Chi Theta. Arguing against Smith and Young, was Scott Elder and John Gardner of Theta Chi.

To determine the winner, an audience poll was conducted. Those in attendance were given ballots and chose Smith and Young over Elder and Gardner 60 percent to 40 percent.

Over 100 people showed up at the debate. The Mars Hill College Debate Club, who sponsored the event, invites anyone interested in debate to join them during the 1993-94 school year, in which they will be competing against other colleges.

Corrections...

graduations to you. A List and degrees are on pages 2

Hilltop mistake a sophomore

Back Page

an interview with MINGLISH and a good-bye story R'S WEBB.

Correction

the cafeteria story had information due to typing error of the fifth paragraph seniors who reside in townhouses or apartments may choose a 7 meal plan for $850. Seniors who do not reside on campus may choose a 7 meal plan for the same price ($850) no matter where they reside on campus.