

THE HILLTOP

Volume 67, Issue 13 • Serving The Students Of Mars Hill College Since 1926 • May 4, 1994 • FREE, Please Take One

PUBLIC NOTICE

Jobs Needed For 239 Great People!

MARS HILL COLLEGE GRADUATION 1994

By Candice Bryant
Hilltop Staff Writer

Activities begin on Friday, May 13 at 4 p.m. when the senior exhibit opens in Weizenblatt Art Gallery in Moore Fine Arts Building. It will remain open until 5:30 p.m.

On Saturday, various events have been included in the schedule. The Board of Trustees meet in Peterson at 10 a.m. and will have their luncheon at noon. The big event on Saturday for the graduates is the banquet to be held for them, their parent, and other honored guests. The banquet has been a long honored ritual and will be held for the first time in the new Pittman Dining Hall.

During the dinner, which is to be hosted by the senior class, several awards will be presented. Among these are the Alumni Association's annual "Outstanding Senior" award, where the former recipient of the award will be the presenter; and senior class awards to faculty and staff will be awarded.

Other guests to be present include the Alumni Council, the Board of Trustees, Board of Advisors, and of course, faculty and staff. The banquet will feature entertainment by the senior class.

After the 5:30 dinner, a pops concert will be held by the department of music, along with the department of theatre arts, in Moore Auditorium. The concert begins at 8 p.m. and will provide the seniors and other guests with magnificent entertainment.

On Sunday, May 15, the events that these graduates have worked towards so diligently will finally arrive. About 239 members of the Mars Hill College Class of 1994 will walk across the stage to receive their diplomas, but not before they attend the Baccalaureate service in Moore Auditorium at 11 a.m. The organ recital for the graduation will commence at 2:30 p.m. and graduation exercises will begin at 3 p.m., all in Moore Auditorium.

Participating in the ceremonies will be the college marshals. These people are to be commended as the top of their classes. Of the rising Junior and Senior classes, the 8 with the highest overall GPAs from each class are selected to become marshals. These students will assist in seating stage dignitaries, advisors, trustees, retired faculty, present faculty, graduates and guests. They will also distribute programs and help during various other activities during the graduation weekend.

Among the rising Seniors are: Chief Marshal David Ledford, Assistant Chief Marshal Laura Berrong, Pam Cochran, Beth Thisse, Michelle Galyan, Sherri Dyshuk, Candice Bryant, and Freda Banther Dias. The rising Junior marshals are: Matt Lutz, Ruth Swartz, Leslee Johnson, Jason Drake, Mistie Linker, Daphne Parker, Ginger Robinson, and Brian Graves.

The Baccalaureate speaker is a distinguished alumnus of Mars Hill's class of 1952, Eugene Roberts, Jr. Roberts is a nationally recognized journalist who received a journalism degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1954 and

Continued On Page 4

Mars Hill College seniors are more than ready to receive their much deserved diplomas. Although that will be the highlight of their weekend, the graduation program involves more than just getting their degrees.

THIS WEEK

Opinions Page
BabbleOn takes a stab at a very severe problem; Dwayne looks at Segregation today; and Amy sends her best to the graduates.

Seniors Jim & Sheri Wood share some thoughts, and Frank Permar screams at the "system."

Pages 2, 7

Graduation Coverage
The prospective graduates for May 15 are listed in order of major and name.
Pages 3, 4

Features
Racquetball stars, where-are-they-nows, new media leaders, artists, dancers and more.
Pages 4, 5

Entertainment
Student One-Acts, which are playing tonight and tomorrow night, are detailed, and a look at the last SART production. Also, do your crossword!

Page 6

The Back Page
Info on the I-26 construction and a very special staffbox.