

ALUMNI NEWS ALUMNI NEWS ALUMNI NEWS

'42 -- Patrick F. O'Leary and his wife visited the Abbey in February. They came to see his niece who is a student here.

'59 -- It was great to talk on the telephone with Joe Dominic on March 8. He is Director of Training and Education for the power supply department of ConEdison in New York City and he and his wife, Virginia, live in Washington Township, New Jersey.

'64 -- It was good to see Dr. Patrick "Tex" McGraw when he lectured to our pre-med students on March 25. Tex received his Ph.D. in Neurophysiology and Biomedical Electronics from Texas A&M University and is Assistant Professor, Department of Neurology and Division of Neurosurgery, and Associate in the Departments of Physiology and Anatomy at Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem.

'66 -- Congratulations to Linda and Joe Ridder on the arrival of Thorton Henry Owen on January 31. Frank Mack has been appointed an account executive with WBTV sales in Charlotte. Richard H. Zittel has been promoted to vice president of sales for "Chemical Purchasing" magazine and the "Chemical Purchasing" Chemicals Directory. He will be responsible for advertising space sales nationally.

'67 -- John Davis has been elected captain of the South Point Life Saving Crew in Belmont.

'68 -- Thanks for the news of yourself, James Adams. He taught fourth grade at St. Michael's in Gastonia for one year, and since 1969 has taught sixth grade in Marlboro, Mass. Joe Dominic ('59) told me that his sister Vita has remarried and is now Vita Alfano Salamida and lives and teaches school in Long Island, New York. Best wishes, Vita. Thank you, Jim Nissley, for writing and telling us about the birth of your second child, Julia Marie, on February 15. Jim has been appointed to the Stafford County, Va., Industrial Development Authority. It was good to see Ed Antosek when he stopped by. He had just graduated from the Naval Aerospace Medical Institute in Pensacola, Florida on March 3 as a flight surgeon and will be stationed at the Marine Corps Air Station in Beaufort, S.C., for the next two years. He will be promoted to Lieutenant Commander in September.

'69 -- Linda and Joe Antosek and their two daughters live in Kansas City, Missouri, where Joe is with Bendix Corporation as production manager.

'71 -- Don Furman is a lawyer working for the city prosecutor in Oklahoma City.

'73 -- Congratulations to Washington Zealy Plyler, III, who successfully passed the Certified Public Accountant examination given November 3-5. Paul Miano visited the College the last of February. He and Melissa have one child, four-month-old Matthew Gregory, and live in Virginia Beach, where Paul is with VEPCO. Congratulations to Penny and Dave Holley on the arrival of Paul on January 10, their first child. Dave is classified manager of the Gastonia Gazette and they live in Gastonia.

'74 -- Richard Lareau visited the Abbey on March 3. He is with BASF Wyandotte Corporation as technical adviser in the printing group in the textile market for the southeast and had just returned from Clemson University where he gave a paper in their professional development program on after-treatment of printed materials. He and Denise live in Charlotte.

university; Louis C. Stephens, Jr., president, Pilot Life Insurance Co., Greensboro; Basil L. Whitener, attorney, Gastonia, and George Wrenn, president, Wrenn Brothers, Inc., Charlotte.

'75 -- Phil Baucom stopped by for a short visit on March 25. He is senior auditor with Blue Cross-Blue Shield in Charlotte and he and Geri live in Gastonia. Randy Fesco is assistant personnel director of Empire National Bank in White Plains, New York, and lives in Newburgh. He stopped by in March on his return from a vacation in Florida.

'76 -- Congratulations to Marie Withers Whitaker and Bill Arrowood, who successfully passed the Certified Public Accountant examination given November 3-5. Larry Rieger is a platoon leader at Fort Bragg with the 82nd Airborne Division. Mark White is an agent with Equitable Life in Charlotte. He will begin work on his CLU certification in the spring. Bruce Milburn and Michael Uhren visited the College in March. Bruce is at Hahneman Medical College in Philadelphia and Mike is in the engineering program at Lehigh University. Congratulations and best wishes to Terri Kearns. Clifton Rhodes stopped by the Abbey on his way home to Augusta. He has been working for Scottish Inns in Gastonia. Dale Nixon is with Standard Chemical Products Co. in Charlotte in their research and development department.

EMMISBURG, MO. -- H received his M.A. degree in theology and religious education from Catholic University in 1972.

He was named instructor a B.A.C. in 1975, after serving for six years as assistant director of the Office of Religious Education for the Catholic Archdiocese of Washington, D.C. He also has been a college lecturer and high school teacher.

"CROSSROADS"

Published bi-monthly by Belmont Abbey College through the Office of Public Relations and Alumni Affairs

Editor-in-chief:

Anthony D. DeCristofaro

Staff:

Mary Beth Costea

John Giblin

Charlie Grissom

Contributions:

Fr. John Bradley

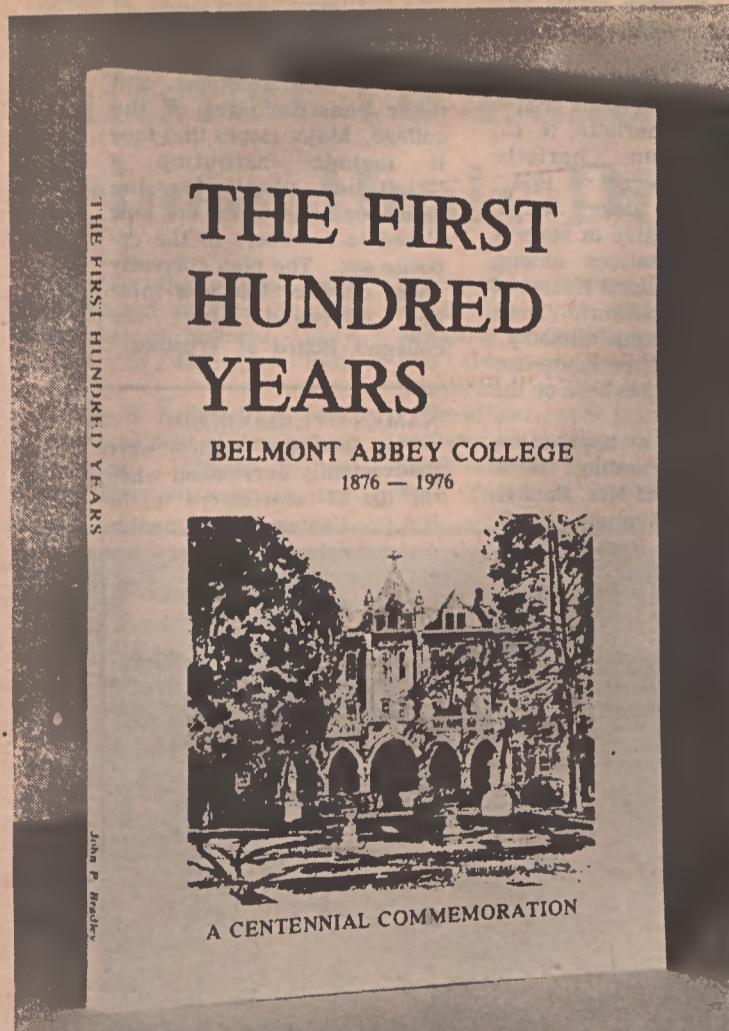

Fr. James Solari, O.S.B.

Mary Cook

Harry Creemers

Registered as second class postage paid at Belmont, N.C.

Abbey History On Sale

THE FIRST HUNDRED YEARS, a history of Belmont Abbey College written by Fr. John P. Bradley, 57, college president, is now available to alumni and friends of the college. The Development Office is distributing free copies of the book to contributing alumni, friends, and benefactors. Others interested in obtaining copies should contact the Public Relations and Alumni Affairs Office of B.A.C. Each book is $2.25 prepaid, which includes postage and handling. The book is a centennial commemoration.

Student Association, an Also Chosen

Vendel, chairman of the Student Judicial Board.

Sailstad has served in the Student Association Assembly as a senator this past year during which he saw the need for several changes. Among the problems he sees is the lack of awareness of the Student Association by the student body.

"One of the first things I plan to do is let it be known that there is a Student Association and build support for it among the student body. Without that support a Student Association is a lost cause. I plan on having a very visible Student Association."

Sailstad decided to run for chief executive because of frustrations he felt this year as a senator.

Immediate plans include

Continued On Page 5

Become An Abbey Recruiter

Help us to recruit qualified students. Please complete this form and mail it to: Director of Admissions, Belmont Abbey College, Belmont, N.C. 28012.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

My Name Is _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Class (if applicable) _____