WHEN THE GREEN GITS BACK IN THE TREES

In spring, when the green gits back in the trees,
And the sun comes out and stays,
And yer boots pulls on with a good tight squeeze,
And you think of yer barefoot days;
When you ort to work, and you want to not,
And you and yer wife agrees,
It's time to spade up the garden lot.
When the green gits back in the trees—
Well! work is the least o' my ideas
When the green, you know, gits back in the trees!
—James Whitcomb Riley.

Favorite Recipes of a Famous Chef

as Told to Anne Baker
By LOUIS DIAT, Chef,
The Ritz Carlton, New York

The delightfully appetizing way French chefs have of preparing vegetables by adding a dash of sugar to restore or "point up" their natural sweetness, is becoming increasingly popular with American housewives. Here are two recipes from Mr. Diat's own private collection that have a special appeal.

Louis Diat

Souffle Aux Epinards—

Wash thoroughly and drain three pounds of spinach. Boil fifteen minutes in one cup of salted water to which one teaspoon of sugar has been added. Drain and press out all of the water. Rub through a coarse sieve.

Melt four tablespoons of butter, adding three tablespoons of flour to make a smooth paste. Add slowly one and one-half cups of milk. Cook and stir slowly until thick. Cool slightly and add the yolks of four eggs. Add the prepared spinach and one teaspoon of powdered sugar. Fold in the beaten whites. Pile in a buttered souffle dish and bake in a moderate and even oven for twenty-five minutes.

Peas and Carrots in Cream—4 portions—Plunge two cups of fresh shelled peas into boiling salted water to which one teaspoon of sugar has been added. Boil slowly for twenty-five minutes. Cook six small diced carrots in the same manner. Drain them both and saute gently in two teaspoons of butter. Add salt and one teaspoon of sugar and blend with four tablespoons of boiling cream, which may or may not be thickened with three-fourths teaspoon of flour.
