FUNERAL WEDNESDAY FOR MRS. J. A. DALTON

The funeral services for Mrs. J. A. Dalton, age 76, who died at her home in Old Fort on Wednesday afternoon after an extended illness, were held at the Baptist church on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. J. E. Ingle, pastor of the Baptist Church, who was assisted by Rev. M. E. Hansel and Rev. D. A. Lewis. Mr. Ingle in a brief talk spoke of the virtue of patience, of which Mrs. Dalton's life was a beautiful example, bearing all sickness with sweet patience. "Heaven," said Mr. Ingle, "is a land of perfection, where there is no sickness and suffering, and those who have made life sweet on earth, are taken to heaven to make heaven sweet."

Mrs. Dalton is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. J. W. Graham of Old Fort and Mrs. I. W. Saunders of Marion, and one son, William Dalton, of Old Fort. A large crowd of relatives and friends attended the last rites of this good mother and neighbor. The funeral services were concluded at the Old Fort cemetery.

MISS MARY JEAN FISHER CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Henry C. Fisher delightfully entertained a large group of friends from Asheville and Old Fort on Friday afternoon in celebration of the fourth birthday of her daughter, Miss Mary Jean Fisher. Twenty-three little girls enjoyed this lovely birthday party. Friends from Asheville who accompanied their small daughters were Mrs. B. E. Morgan, Mrs. W. J. Barnard, Mrs. Paul English, Mrs. O. W. Ponder and Mrs. E. Wilkinson.

"MONTANA MOON" COMING TO EVERYBODY'S THEATRE

An engrossing plot, splendid direction, beautiful photography and a corking good performance upon the part of Joan Crawford, make "Montana Moon" on view at Everybody's Theatre Monday and Tuesday one of the few pictures which may be counted as so much entertainment lost if missed.

Miss Crawford, who shows herself to be more of a dramatic actress with each new vehicle, has the role of a society girl who, tiring of the conventional boredom of New York activities, takes a group of friends out West to visit her father's ranch in Montana. Here she impetuously marries a cowpuncher who in the light of her recent distaste for hypocritical mannered Eastern gentlemen seems to her to be the real man she has always wanted.

THE PASSION PLAY

In 1264 the inhabitants of Freiburg, (Baden), Germany, first presented the Passion play. They have given it periodically in Freiburg since that time, as well as in nearly every city in Europe.

Regardless of religion, sect or creed, this dynamic story's appeal is as wide as human nature, and with offense to none, as it is the traditional Biblical story.

The production is colossal with hundreds of people participating, a thousand of the most beautiful costumes, camels, and a donkey. Scene blends into scene without pause, as one marvels at their genius of stagecraft.

The company was brought to America to dedicate the great Krug Park Bowl at Saint Joseph, Missouri, in August, 1928. In eight evenings more than 100,000 people paid admissions. They next visited St. Louis, where, in eight performances, more than 80,000 people attended.

The play begins with a prologue depicting Adam and Eve in the Garden and the Fall of Man. This is followed by a tableau of the Glorification of the Cross. The great drama of the Passion of Christ closes with the Resurrection, and the "singing of the mighty 'Hallelujah Chorus' from the 'Messiah'."

The completion of this American tour will add another great triumph to the world tour of Adolf Fassnacht's famous Freiburg Passion Play, which has been presented in Belgium, Switzerland, Holland, France, Italy, Austria, Hungary and Spain, thus carrying out the life purpose of Mr. Fassnacht to present this beautiful historical Biblical play to the world.

This play will be presented in Asheville one week commencing on September 8th. Tickets are on sale by the Baptist Ladies Aid Society of Old Fort. Also transportation will be arranged at a very reasonable rate for those desiring to attend this Drama. A large crowd from Old Fort is expected to take advantage of this opportunity.

"BEAU BANDIT" HERE FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Rich in the pictorial beauty of the open range and built around a powerful story of the old west, "Beau Bandit" will be presented at Everybody's Theatre Friday and Saturday following enthusiastic reception of its showing in other cities.

The scenes in "Beau Bandit" are not confined to the narrow limits of a sound studio stage. Instead the picture was filmed outdoors in almost its entirety, giving it a sweep and a movement possible only with the use of nature's own scenic arts.

Lion Carrying Trap Killed by Hunter

Durango, Colo.—Eulck Maitlen, a trapper working in this vicinity, told of suddenly finding himself face to face with a huge mountain lion, infuriated after carrying a trap on his hind leg for two days.

HAS THE LAXATIVE IN YOUR HOME A DOCTOR'S APPROVAL?

Some things people do to help the bowels whenever any bad breath, feverishness, biliousness, or a lack of appetite warn of constipation, really weaken these organs. Only a doctor knows what will cleanse the system without harm. That is why the laxative in your home should have the approval of a family doctor.

The wonderful product, known to millions as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a family doctor's prescription for sluggish bowels. It never varies from the original prescription which Dr. Caldwell wrote thousands of times in many years of practice, and proved safe and reliable for men, women and children. It is made from herbs and other pure ingredients, so it is pleasant-tasting, and can form no habit. You can buy this popular laxative from all drugstores.

What Will you do

When your Children Cry
for It

There is hardly a household that hasn't heard of Castoria! At least five million homes are never without it. If there are children in your family, there's almost daily need of its comfort. And any night you find you very thankful there's a bottle in the house. Just a few drops, and that colic or constipation is relieved; or diarrhea checked. A vegetable product; a baby remedy meant for young folks. Castoria is about the only thing you have ever heard doctors advise giving to infants. Stronger medicines are dangerous to a tiny baby, however harmless they may be to grown-ups. Good old Castoria! Remember the name, and remember to buy it. It may spare you a sleepless, anxious night. It is always ready, always safe to use; in emergencies, or for everyday ailments. Any hour of the day or night that Baby becomes fretful, or restless. Castoria was never more popular with mothers than it is today. Every druggist has it.
