FIRST FALL MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB

Law Observance was the keynote of the address made by Prof. S. B. Smithey before members of the Woman's Club on Friday afternoon when the local organization met for its first fall session at the home of Mrs. P. H. Mashburn. Mr. Smithey mentioned as causes for the prevalent disrespect for law the glorifying of crime by the newspapers, the lack of discipline in the home and the uncertainty of punishment for the law-breaker.

In speaking of the work of the school in promoting good citizenship he listed their aims as follows: First, sound health; second, worthy home membership; third, mastery of tools of learning; fourth, good citizenship; fifth, vocational efficiency; sixth, wise use of leisure; and seventh, ethical character.

In the business session of the meeting a report from some of the teachers of the Old Fort school called attention to the fact that many school children in the lower grades were in urgent need of warm clothing for the winter and Mrs. Sandlin asked for a discussion of ways and means to furnish clothing where needed. Mrs. George Moore, chairman of the Parent-Teachers Department, was requested to lend her aid in this worthy cause.

Special violin music by Misses Edna and Elizabeth Lipe, accompanied on the piano by their mother, Mrs. Lipe, was greatly enjoyed by the large number of club women present.

During the social hour a delicious frozen fruit salad course with coffee was served.

Associated with Mrs. Mashburn, the delightful hostess to the Woman's Club on this occasion, and assisting in serving refreshments, were Mrs. Effie Mashburn and Mrs. Hart Taylor.

A cordial invitation was extended by Mrs. D. M. McIntosh to meet at her home in November, at which time the club women, their husbands and members of the faculty of the Old Fort school will be entertained.

Painful Condition

"WHEN I was just a girl at home," writes Mrs. B. F. Riggan, of Baird, Texas, "I took Cardui for cramping and pains in my side and back, and it helped me at that time."

"After I was married, I found myself in a weak, run-down condition. I suffered a great deal with my back, which was so weak it hurt me to get up or when I would stand on my feet. I fell off in weight."

"A friend of mine, seeing how bad I felt, advised me to take Cardui, which I did. By the time I had taken two bottles, I felt stronger and better than I had in a long time."
