Editor and Business Manager.

WORDS

Words are mighty, words are living;
Serpents with their venomous stings,
Or bright angels crowding around us
With heaven's light upon their wings;
Every word has its own spirit,
True or false, that never dies;
Every word man's lips have uttered
Echoes in God's skies.—Proctor.

MRS. GRAYBEAL ELECTED PRESIDENT U. D. C. CHAPTER

Featured by an unusually large attendance, the Old Fort chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met at the home of Miss Gertrude Dula on Thursday afternoon. At this meeting new officers were elected for the ensuing year. Mrs. C. W. Graybeal was elected president, succeeding Mrs. J. B. Johnson, who had served two years, the limitation of office in this chapter. Those chosen to serve with Mrs. Graybeal are: as follows: First vice president, Mrs. Geo. Hyams; second vice-president, Mrs. Winslow Burgin; recording secretary, Mrs. Charles Stepp; corresponding secretary, Miss Gertrude Dula; treasurer, Mrs. Sally Sabom; registrar, Mrs. S. M. Wilkinson; historian, Mrs. J. B. Johnson; leader of children's chapter, Mrs. S. F. Mauney; custodian of crosses, Mrs. Henry Ragle.

A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. J. B. Johnson for her two years service as president. Mrs. George Sandlin, the district director, was present at this meeting and was extended a hearty welcome by the chapter. Mrs. Don Gosorn gave a complete financial report of the year's work. At the conclusion of the business session refreshments were served by the hostess, who was assisted in serving by Mrs. Graybeal, joint hostess for this occasion.

ICE-CREAM: 3 GALLONS PER

Did you eat your three gallons of ice-cream last year? If not, someone else ate more than three — for that was the average consumption in America—men, women and children. And as no well-regulated baby can eat that much, the average adult consumption must be even greater. says the "Clip Sheet" of the United States Department of Agriculture (Washington): "Ice-cream production continued to increase last year, and reached a grand total of 365,448,000 gallons as compared with 348,046,000 gallons in 1928. Inasmuch as exports and imports of ice-cream are negligible, all of the production is assumed to have been consumed. On this basis, the consumption per person last year was three gallons. Ten years ago, the per capita consumption was a little more than two gallons."—Literary Digest.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The revival services which started on Sunday, Oct. 12, at the Old Fort Baptist church, are continuing with good attendance. Rev. J. E. Engle is assisted in the meeting by Rev. Chas. Jolley, who is assistant pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church of Asheville. Rev. Jolley is in charge of the music for the revival.

FINE CELERY

George W. Sandlin reports a remarkable crop of celery grown on his farm east of Old Fort. The celery, which was planted in a moist, fertile piece of ground, has attained a height of more than four feet and is still growing. Numbers of people have visited the Sandlin farm to see this unusually fine crop of celery.

Pride in the appearance of the school grounds is being strongly exhibited this year. Prof. S. B. Smithy reports that, due to the efforts of those attending the Old Fort school, the yard is kept free of papers and all rubbish.

JUNIOR ORDER HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

Over one hundred and fifty people enjoyed the sumptuous dinner given by the Junior Order on Monday evening. The table which was over 70 feet long, was laden with exceptionally well prepared food.

Music for the festive occasion was furnished by the local string band. The after dinner speakers were Mr. Robert Patton of Morganton, superintendent Burke county schools, and Mr. John Nelson, district deputy for the Juniors, also from Morganton. Mr. Nelson, after a brief talk, announced an important meeting on Tuesday evening at Morganton, at which time the State Councilor for the Juniors will speak. About twenty members of the Old Fort lodge expect to attend this meeting.

The Old Fort Junior lodge is composed of one hundred and eleven enthusiastic members. The chicken pie dinner is an annual affair, and was enjoyed by the members, their families and friends. The dinner on Monday evening was given in the large store room belonging to H. A. Westermann, on South Main street, recently redecorated. It made a delightful banquet hall for this occasion.

Favorite Recipes of a Famous Chef

As Told to Anne Baker
By FREDERIC FRANCOIS
GUILLOT
Chef, Hotel Astor, New York City

The proper use of seasoning, according to Mr. Guillot, is one of the most important secrets of the culinary art. Here Mr. Guillot illustrates the French use of sugar, not as a sweetener, but as a seasoner to accentuate and bind flavors.

Chicken Mexicaine—Cut up a frying chicken, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and fry in bacon fat, along with the giblets and one sliced onion. Heat one-half cup strong chicken stock to which has been added one-half teaspoon chili powder, one teaspoon olive oil, one teaspoon tarragon vinegar, and one teaspoon sugar. Add one quart green peas and cook until peas are tender. Pile peas in center of platter and arrange chicken and giblets around them.
Squash Soup—Make a white sauce of two tablespoons butter, four tablespoons flour and one quart milk. Season with salt and pepper, one-fourth teaspoon paprika and the grated half of one onion. Mix one-fourth teaspoon sugar and one-eighth teaspoon ginger with one cup squash, mashed and beaten until smooth. Add to the white sauce. Beat with an egg beater, re-heat and serve.
