RE-SALE OF LAND UNDER DEED OF TRUST

Take notice that whereas under by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain Deed of Trust dated Feb. 15, 1929 and recorded in Book 28, page 191 McDowell County Deed of Trust Records, executed by W. H. Anderson and wife, Mable Anderson, to the undersigned Trustee, conveying the lands therein and hereinafter described as security for an indebtedness due Mrs. Hattie G. Rynnion, the undersigned after due advertisement sold said lands at the courthouse door in Marion, N. C., on the 23rd day of May, 1931, when and where John A. Finley became the last and highest bidder for the sum of $687.50.

And whereas said bid was raised within the time allowed by law and a re-sale of said property under said deed of trust has been ordered by the Clerk of the Superior Court of McDowell County, N. C., Now therefore, the undersigned Trustee will at the courthouse door in Marion, N. C., at twelve o'clock noon on Tuesday, July 7, 1931 offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash the following described property: Lying and being in McDowell County, N. C., and being that certain lot or tract of land on East Court street in the Town of Marion, N. C., known as lots 7 and 8 of Morgan Terrace, according to Map recorded in Map Book one at page ten, McDowell County Map Records, and also being the same land described in a deed from Everett Padgett and wife to W. H. Anderson, recorded in Book 67 at page 353, McDowell County Deed Records, reference to which deed and map is here made for further description.

The terms of the sale are for cash and subject to confirmation by the Court. This June 22, 1931. ROBERT W. PROCTOR, Trustee.

OLD FORT NEWS

MISS GERTRUDE DULA, Editor and Manager

VOLUME IV

OLD FORT, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1931

NUMBER 40

MISS MILDRED EDWARDS BRIDE OF L. B. WHITE, JR.

Of much interest to their many friends in North and South Carolina is the announcement by Mrs. E. C. Edwards of the marriage of Miss Mildred Edwards to Mr. L. B. White Jr., which took place at noon Wednesday, June 24th, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Chas. M. Jenkins, in Old Fort, N. C., with the Rev. M. E. Hansel of the Presbyterian Church officiating.

Only members of the immediate families were present for this impressive and unusually beautiful ceremony.

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins on Catawba avenue was elaborately and artistically decorated for this occasion. Gorgeous purple rhododendrons, azaleas, and ferns, interspersed with blue and pink larkspur decorated the rooms and verandas, which face a wonderful view of the Blue Ridge range of mountains, making a perfect setting for this ceremony. At one end of the drawing room English ivy and asparagus ferns, studded with white daisies, draped the wall and made an attractive background for an altar improvised of Madonna lilies and maiden hair fern in large floor baskets with the two stands bearing golden candelabra each holding seven lighted candles.

Mrs. L. G. Day, sister of the bride, rendered excerpts from Lohengrin's Wedding March to which the bridal party entered. "To a Wild Rose," by Macdowell, was played during the ceremony. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as a recessional.

Little Miss Betty Jeanne Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jenkins and niece of the bride, carried the ring in a wax like purple rhododendron blossom.

The groom's brother, Harold White, of Florence, S. C., was the best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. D. L. Edwards, of Mullins, S. C. She presented a beautiful picture in her navy blue georgette crepe ensemble with accessories in matching shade. Her corsage was of white rose buds.

Mesdames Day and Jenkins were hostesses to a delightful five course luncheon, which was served in the dining room immediately following the ceremony. A large wedding cake bearing a miniature bride and groom formed the center piece of the table on which was spread an Irish lace cover of exquisite design. Miniature corsages of sweet peas edged with lace and pink rose bud boutonnieres marked the places of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. White left during the afternoon for a motor tour of western North Carolina.

The bride is a charming daughter of the late Mr. E. C. Edwards and Mrs. Zilphia Lewis Edwards of Mullins, S. C. She is a graduate of Columbia College, Columbia, S. C., and has been a member of the Hemingway, S. C., school faculty for the past three years.

Mr. White is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. White, Sr., of Florence, S. C., is a graduate of Clemson College, and has a position with the Greenville Steel and Foundry Co., of Greenville, S. C., where they will reside at the Prevost Apartments.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. B. White, Sr., Miss Kate White and Mr. Harold White, all of Florence, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Day and little Miss Miriam and Harold Evander Day, of Spruce Pine, N. C., Miss Kate Edwards, Miss LeVann Edwards, Mr. D. L. Edwards, all of Mullins, S. C.
