

DOLLAR DAYS HERE ON NOVEMBER 7-8-9 WILL DRAW MANY VISITORS

Twin City Business Men Working Hard To Make Trade Extension Celebration Better Than Ever; Huge Circular Bing Printed; Real Bargains and Free Shows are Attractive Drawing Cards

Those merchants and business men of the Twin Cities who have entered the Dollar Days Celebration which will be held here next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 7, 8 and 9, are more than enthused over the prospects as word comes in that the country people all over this and Northampton Counties are planning on paying a visit here on one or more of those days.

Real Bargains
Probably nothing attracts the average man and woman more than a real bargain in the necessities and luxuries of life. We can guarantee, having seen the offers of the merchants, that there are more real bargains offered on the Three Dollar Days than the people of this section of the State have ever seen before. This is not a sales proposition; not the sacrificing of shop worn merchandise. These three days, November 7, 8 and 9 are Trade Extension Days. They represent the united effort of progressive business men to draw the people of this entire section into the Twin Cities.

Biggest Circular
What is probably the biggest circular ever used around here is being used by the Twin Cities merchants in this campaign. It is 12 full newspaper pages in size. 7,000 copies are printed to be mailed to every box holder in Halifax County and most of Northampton County. It is costing more than $100 postage at a special weight price, to mail the circular. Differing from the ordinary circular, this one had reading matter on each page, as well as the advertisements of the various business houses. In addition, 1,000 large tack cards are being tacked up on every road leading into Roanoke Rapids and Rosemary.

Free Talkie Shows
There are many people who have not yet had the opportunity to hear the new talking pictures, especially in the country. On two of the three afternoons, Thursday and Friday, November 7 and 8, all out of town visitors will be represented free tickets to the afternoon shows at the Peoples Theatre in Roanoke Rapids and the New Rosemary Theatre in Rosemary. These tickets may be obtained from any merchant or business house sponsoring the Dollar Days. Residents in the Twin Cities will realize that there are several reasons why the theatres cannot afford to give free tickets to everybody. In the first place, there will not be room for all those who wish to attend. Thus crowding out persons who may have come many miles to attend. Then, the theatres must run that night and with a free show in the afternoon, they might as well close down at night as everyone will have seen the picture. So, the free shows in the afternoon are for out of town people only and all merchants with tickets are instructed to give them out accordingly.

Decorate Stores
These will be no ordinary three days in Rosemary and Roanoke Rapids. Many of the business houses are planning special front decorations and window trims. Flags will be seen waving along the Avenue. Several groups of merchants have ordered special designs for Dollar Days, while others will depend on local signs and their own ingenuity to make their stores just a little more attractive than usual. Window shopping will be a pleasure those three days, as practically every store will make a special effort to have attractive windows.

A Million Dollars
Conservative business men have estimated the combined stocks of merchandise in the Twin City stores at more than a million dollars. With 75 stores, more than half of whom are cooperating in the Three Dollar Days, carrying every conceivable line of merchandise, and all offering special bargains, you can see the advantage of doing the fall buying for the family now. Roanoke Rapids and Rosemary, with more stores and larger stores, offer to the people of this entire section a trading center second to none.

Bring Your Crops Here
There is a ready market in the Twin Cities for farm and garden produce. More cotton is bought here than any place else in this section of

Locals Hold Wilson To Low Score 13-0

The Yellowjackets are back after playing Wilson High last Friday and holding them 13 to 0. Wilson is practically assured of the Conference championship this year and the local team surprised everybody by holding the score down. In the second half, the Yellowjackets threw a panic into the Wilson routers by staging a rally and marching 60 yards down the field, being finally stopped on the 6 yard line. Wobble and both ends connected for several nice passes. The line showed up much better than in previous games. The local team plays at Rocky Mount tomorrow.

Aged Man Buried

Mr. C. C. Briggs, age 79, died here October 20th. Funeral services were held October 22 at the Roanoke Rapids cemetery, with Rev. J. E. Kirk officiating.

Victor Parrish, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parrish, died Sunday. Funeral services were preached by Rev. C. T. Thrift.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

Miss Sara Carson's Sunday school class entertained Mrs. J. E. Kirk's class at a halloween party at the Baptist church. Many games were played by the young folks and a good time was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served to the following class members: Doris Couch, Ella Brown, Ella Giles, Nellie Gray King, Beula Miller, Anna Mae Merritt, Ruby Garner, Vernie Love, Gilbert Jordan, Butler Brown, Paul Riggan, Elvin Kinder, Chester Allsbrook, Rudolph Waters, Carl Pridden, Sam Smith, Elmo Davis, Clifton, Pridden, Mrs. J. E. Kirk, Mrs. C. C. Shell, and Miss Sara Carson.

MISS CHERRY HONORED

At the dedication of the new Fair building in Raleigh last week, Miss Annie Cherry of our city was chosen for the honor of introducing Governor Gardner, but owing to a cold the Governor was unable to attend and she had the honor of introducing Judge N. A. Townsend, who is the Governor's chief counselor. Miss Cherry was herself introduced by Dr. E. C. Brooks, president of State College. For lunch she was entertained at the Governor's mansion with several other distinguished guests, who were in Raleigh for Home Coming week.

the country. And the old cash is paid right out by the mills. Spend part of the money right here in the place you got it. Buy your vegetables, chickens, eggs and milk here. There are 10,000 people in the Twin Cities to be fed. Our grocers will give you a good price for your eggs or for your turkey. This is a good place for you to do all your shopping and buying. Good banks, auctioneers, dealers, well operated mill and saw, and the best stores in the world are here to give you on week days and nights, what on Sunday you will find a real welcome in any one of the seven or eight churches in the Twin Cities.

This Is Your Town
Before another year has passed, it is possible there will be one big city here instead of the Twin Cities. There will come big improvements: water and sewers, White Way, streets, sidewalks, new homes, etc. You can help bring all this to pass and feel that you have a part in the future of the biggest city in this section. The citizens here realize that they cannot grow unless the people in the country will help them. We want you to feel at home here at all times. Don't forget the Three Big Dollar Days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 7, 8 and 9.

Specials are Cash
All specials offered by the various stores for the Three Dollar Days are for cash only. Under no circumstances, unless plainly advertised will any special be charged. Many of these articles are being sold at cost or on a very narrow margin of profit in which the cost of keeping books and sending statements is not figured.

Important Meeting Farmers, Business Men

A meeting of the farmers and business men of Halifax county will be held in Halifax at the Court House on Friday, Nov. 8th at 10:30 o'clock to study the agricultural situation in Halifax County.

This meeting is a part of the State wide campaign for establishing a long time State program or plan of work. Representatives from State College will be present to tell us what other parts of the State are doing and about the State program. A committee of framers and business men from Halifax county will submit recommendations for this county. Farmers and business men are urged to attend this meeting. Colored farmers are also urged to attend.

W. O. DAVIS,
County Agent.

Flappers Next Week

Rehearsals for Forty Four Flappers, a three act comedy are being held this week and the play is being worked into shape for presentation Thursday night, November 7th, at the High School auditorium. Mostly graded school talent will be used, with a few High School stars. The play is sponsored by the Physical Education Department.

STUDY CLUB MEETING

The Study Club met on Friday afternoon with Mrs. A. F. Akers as hostess. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Akers, president, and several items of business brought before the club. The secretary called the roll and ten members answered to roll call. At conclusion of business the program for the afternoon was carried out in full. The first paper, "Mozart, Prince of Musicians," was written by Mrs. A. L. Taylor, but owing to the fact that Mrs. Taylor could not be present, was read by Mrs. Fred Brown. This was followed by Mrs. D. L. Traynham with a resume of the opera "The Marriage of Figaro," with several records taken from the opera played on the Victrola. A sketch of the life of Miss Sophia Braslau was given by Mrs. Fred Brown. The papers were all well written and thoroughly enjoyed. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Leon Hall served lovely refreshments carrying out the halloween idea. On each plate was a yellow and black basket of mints. Those enjoying Mrs. Akers' hospitality were: Mesdames J. A. Moore, Fred Brown, T. R. Manning, David Traynham, Frank Hawley, Pendleton Grizzard, George Hayes, Leon Hall, W. S. Dean and Mrs. A. P. McPherson.

MISS PENDLETON ENTERTAINS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Pendleton on Jackson street was the scene of a lovely party on Friday evening when their daughter, Miss Aileen Pendleton and Miss Frances Hines entertained a few of their friends. Many delightful games were enjoyed and several contests held. Prizes were given to the winners of each contest. A salad course was served about ten thirty to the following: Misses Alice Kidd, Lila Murray, Viola Collier, Virginia Taylor, Master Murrel Hudson, Clarence Coburn, Tommy Wrenn, John Ogletree and Jack West.

TEACHERS BRIDGE CLUB

A delightful meeting of the teachers bridge club was held on Saturday evening when Mrs. J. W. Ross and Miss Carrie Faulkner were joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Ross on Hamilton street. Four tables for players were placed in the spacious living room with quantities of flowers added to the beauty to the occasion. Both in tallies and refreshments the halloween idea was effectively carried out. When the scores were collected at 10:30, Miss Winifred Beckwith was found to hold high and was given an attractive novelty purse as a prize. A delicious salad course was served to the following: Misses Traynham Wyche, Ada Edwards, Beas Sicooff, Vera Eddins, Elizabeth Tate, Omara Daniel, Frances Burgwyn, Ethel Shinbourn, Mesdames C. W. Davis, Pendleton Grizzard and Carroll Wilson.

NEW SODA FOUNTAIN

Work was completed yesterday on the installation of a new soda fountain by the Rosemary Drug Company. This enterprising concern recently finished work on a new metal ceiling and complete interior redecoration.

Mrs. T. E. Sider and daughter, Mary of Sylacauga, Ala., who have spent the past month in the Carolinas visiting relatives are now spending some time with Mrs. Sider's sister, Mrs. E. E. Kendrick on Jackson Street.

White Way Equipment

Part of the equipment ordered for the White Way for Roanoke Rapids has arrived, according to officials of the Virginia Electric and Power Company. Work of installation now awaits the underground cables and the globes, both of which have been shipped.

Actual work of installation will begin within the next two or three weeks. The White Way will extend from Taylor and Collier corner to the city limits at the F. M. Coburn residence.

Wall Street Breeds Quips, Oakie Avers

Wall Street, fever spot of the nations business, is also the birthplace of American humor, according to Jack Oakie, Paramount featured player, who should know, Jack once worked there.

"More original wisecracks, quips and jokes are born during the rush and turmoil of the business hours on the exchange than in any other place—not excepting the stage," Oakie says.

Oakie should know whereof he speaks. Before he won his spurs in motion pictures; in fact before he became a Broadway hooper, this comedian with the mobile mug was an order clerk on the exchange.

Jack Oakie's talent for comedy won him such fame that he was promoted overnight to a Broadway musical comedy production. A few years on the great white way and Oakie came to Hollywood where he smattered his way into talking pictures.

"Fast Company," in which he has his greatest comedy role to date, comes to the Peoples Theatre the last half of next week. It is an all-talking production. Evelyn Brent, Richard "Skeets" Gallagher and Gwen Lee are co-featured with Oakie.

15TH BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Frances Burgwyn was entertained at a party celebrating her 15th birthday, Friday night from 8 till 1 o'clock. The guests played games the refreshments consisting of hot chocolate and cake and fruit were served. Those present were: Misses Ada Bell Strickland, Catherine Hutchinson, Edith Welch, Virginia Armstrong, Ruby Pearson, Rosa Williams, Messrs. Jesses Baird, Yates Brown, Newton Dickens, Gene Dunn, Phillip Wilton, Fred Mills, Walter Matthews, Jimmy Shell, Herman Tickle, Carlton Taylor, Carlton Nethercutt, Joe Lumis, Herman Jenkins, Jessie Jenkins, Herman Williams, Tommy Shearin, Carl Keeter, Earl Keeter and Richard Moss. The hostess received many lovely presents from her guests and friends.

LADIES AID SOCIETY

Mrs. C. T. Johnson was hostess to circle number one of the Ladies Aid Society of the Rosemary Baptist church last Tuesday evening. The leader, Mrs. C. F. Ogletree, presided. The topic was "The Study of the Ministry to the Saints." Several short talks were made and Mrs. J. E. Kirk recited a poem, "What Then?" Mrs. C. C. Shell sang a solo, "Beautiful Words of Jesus." The circle visited the Count Home and Sanatorium on Sunday afternoon taking fruits and flowers to the patients and inmates and holding prayer service for and with them, which was greatly appreciated. Those present were Mesdames C. F. Ogletree, C. C. Shell, J. E. Kirk, B. J. Dunning, J. O. Matthews and C. T. Johnson.

Rev. J. E. Kirk will preach at the Rosemary Baptist church Sunday morning. The subject will be "Fatal Ifts of Unbelief." His Sunday night sermon will be "God's Open and Closed Doors."

Willie Fulghum, employee of Mr. S. M. Thompson, was stricken with paralysis while at his work this week.

New Universal Super Sound Film Easily Rates Advance Praise as The First Million Dollar Talking Picture

A top price Broadway revue and a New York play hit rolled into one at the price of a motion picture—such is "Broadway," the Universal super talking and singing production which opens at the Rosemary Theatre Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

Bargain sales in entertainment are something new, but that is literally what such an all-sound production as "Broadway" gives to the theatre goer. After seeing the film it is easy to believe that Carl Laemmle, Jr., spent $1,500,000 to make it.

The characterization of the play, as enacted by Glen Tryon as Roy Lane, Merna Kennedy as Billie Moore of the "hooper" team; Evelyn Brent as Pearl, Thomas Jackson as Dan McCorn, Robert Ellis as Steve Cran-

ROSEMARY STREETS MARKED

Getting Ready for Free Delivery of Mail; All Houses are Renumbered

NEW MAIL BOXES

To Be Presented by Rosemary Drug Co.; Delivery Starts Soon

Rosemary is busy this week preparing for city mail delivery which will be started in the near future.

Street signs are being installed at all intersections and practically all the houses will be numbered.

As soon as this part of the work is completed, mail boxes will be placed on the front porch of each residence.

Four different agencies are at work to give Rosemary free city mail delivery. The U. S. Government will pay for the mail carriers; postmaster J. R. Vest is attending to the numbering of the houses; Rosemary Manufacturing Company is marking the streets; the Rosemary Drug Company is furnishing the boxes.

Steel markers are being placed at each intersection, showing the names of the two streets at each corner.

The numbers are large and attractive and can be easily seen from the street. The mill company will pay for those on its own houses in the mill villages while private homes are charged 25 cents for the numbers, which are put on for them.

The mail boxes, which will soon be distributed with the compliments of the Rosemary Drug Company, are neatly made and attractively painted.

FOR MISS BURGWIN

Miss Frances Burgwyn was honored on Wednesday evening when Mrs. W. L. Long entertained with 2 tables of bridge at her home on Hamilton street. Lovely dahlias and chrysanthemums were used as a background for the players and five or six interesting progressions were played, after which the scores were collected and Miss Mary Wood Hall was given a lovely string of pink beads and Mr. David Clark a cigarette case as winners of high score. A salad course was served at ten thirty. Those playing, Misses Frances Burgwyn, Mary Wood Hall, Patience Moore, and Annie Faulkner, Messrs. David Clark, Burgwyn of Jackson and Jack Cassada.

ROSEMARY P. T. A.

The Rosemary Parent Teacher Association held their first meeting of the year Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. There were about sixty members present and a talk was made by Miss Clara Hearn, supervisor of elementary work, on "Character Education" was very much enjoyed by those present. The following officers were elected, President, Mrs. V. H. Grantham, vice president, Mrs. T. R. Kirby, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. J. M. Fisher, and the year starts off with new enthusiasm. The halloween idea was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. Orange ice and chocolate cake were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Rev. J. E. Kirk will preach at the Rosemary Baptist church Sunday morning. The subject will be "Fatal Ifts of Unbelief." His Sunday night sermon will be "God's Open and Closed Doors."

Willie Fulghum, employee of Mr. S. M. Thompson, was stricken with paralysis while at his work this week.

HIS FOURTH BIRTHDAY

On Thursday afternoon Master Frank Williams was host to twelve of his little friends at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams celebrating his fourth birthday. Many games were enjoyed. The dining room was decorated for the occasion with the colors of halloween. The birthday cake was iced with appropriate colors. Each child present was given attractive halloween favors, and a most delightful afternoon was spent. Mrs. Williams was assisted by Mrs. R. L. Towe in entertaining and serving the guests. An ice course was served the following children: Master Bill Pruden, Paul Parks, Harry Weathers, Lawrence Clements, A. P. Mustian, Jr., Nick Long, Mack Jarman and Robert Towe. Little Misses Katherine Traynham and Margaret Taylor.

Mrs. Frank Joyner and daughter, Margaret, have returned from a visit to Mrs. Ballard in Richmond, Va.

AN EXPLANATION

For the first time under the new management, The Herald has dropped in size to four pages.

That is necessary this week because of the great amount of work necessary to print the big 12 page edition for the 3 Dollar Days Celebration next week. 7,000 copies of 12 pages each, a total of 84,000 pages, is being drawn up, type set, printed and folded by The Herald force this week.

Day and night work all this week and the first part of next week will be necessary to get this tremendous amount of printing completed in time for distribution over the entire Halifax County and a greater portion of Northampton County.

Action Film of Africa Biggest Hit of Season

Action plus adventure, terrors and perils of such convincing bigness that audiences who beheld them were swept into transports of excitement will be projected on the screen at the Peoples Theatre Monday and Tuesday with the showing of Paramounts epic picture of the wild African Sudan country—"The Four Feathers."

Here is "a" picture—and there is not a word of dialog in its entire footage. This alone, in a day when talkers are rapidly establishing a new show world, is ample recommendation for your seeing it twice or three times. It is a big picture—one which is to big even for dialog.

The story is based on the famous novel of British soldier life in the Sudan, "The Four Feathers" written by A. E. W. Mason and often referred to as the British "Bible of courage."

Richard Arlen a young officer, is branded as a coward by his comrades. He swears he will come back and he does. How the youth conquers the stigma of cowardice forms the theme for the story which carries him and his three comrades, Clive Brooks, William Powell and Theodor von Eltz through the kind of he-man adventures we have all seen in "Beau Geste," and then some.

MRS MULLEN ENTERTAINS

Mrs. T. W. Mullen honored her house guest, Miss Mamie Housenstein of Pawtucket, R. I., on Thursday afternoon with a delightful bridge party. The guests were invited for three o'clock and after arriving and being presented to the honor guest places were found for playing at five tables which had been placed in the living room and library, by most attractive tally cards carrying out the halloween idea. On each table was a bon-bon dish of mints and peanuts. Mrs. J. M. Jackson was the winner of high score and was presented an attractive flower bowl. Mrs. W. L. Long was given a string of lovely blue beads as a consolation prize. The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Andrews, and daughter, Miss Priscilla Mullen in serving a delicious salad course. Mrs. J. A. Moore, Mrs. A. L. Taylor and her house guest came in for tea. Those playing: Mesdames Hunt Parker, Hugh Camp, R. P. Beckwith, C. R. Emory, Pat Ransome F. G. Jarman, T. W. M. Long, W. L. Long, Julian Allsbrook, J. M. Jackson, Pendleton Grizzard, David Traynham, W. C. Williams, George Hayes, W. S. Dean, Frank Hawley, Misses Minnie Housenstein, Susan Holliday, Frances Burgwyn, and Winifred Beckwith. Miss Housenstein the guest of honor, was presented with a scarf by the hostess.

WOMANS CLUB TO MEET

There will be a meeting of the Womens Club on Monday afternoon at three o'clock in the Vocational building of the High School. The meeting will be under the direction of the Garden Department and the main paper for the afternoon will be given by Mrs. J. A. Moore. All members are urged to be present and any one interested in the club will be cordially welcomed.

MRS. ZOLLIFFER HOSTESS

Mrs. Allen Zolliffier in her delightful manner entertained the Monday night bridge club on October 28. Three tables for players were placed in the living room, where vases of lovely chrysanthemums were effectively used. Attractive halloween tallies were used and a very interesting game was played. Mrs. Cooper Grizzard was awarded a lovely set of book ends as the holder of high score. A lovely plate of salad was served and on each plate was a halloween basket of nuts. Those playing: Mesdames David Traynham, Cooper Grizzard, Howard Pruden, Julian Allsbrook, Frank Hawley, Hugh Camp, George Hayes, J. W. Ross, Misses Margaret Clark and Ruth Transou. Guests Mrs. Wm. Jackson and Miss Lucile Carlon.

WELDON IS SCENE OF ROBBERY

Coca Cola Bottling Company Is Victim of Safe Robbery; Heavy Loss Sustained

$362 IN CASH

Stocks, Bonds, Checks and Other Valuables in Loot; Can Find No Clues

A hold robbery was successfully manipulated Tuesday night when thieves entered the office of the Weldon Coca Cola Company, broke into the safe and escaped with over $350 in cash and checks, stocks and bonds and other valuable papers amounting to a considerable sum not yet arrived at.

The thieves broke a pane out of one of the office windows and effected an entrance through the window. Entering the office, they knocked off the combination of the safe with some sort of heavy instrument and then proceeded to prize their way into the interior of the safe.

The exact amount of cash taken was $362.00. The stocks, bonds, checks and other papers were of great value to the owners. Manager B. W. Dutch Seifert states it will take some time to straighten out the mess left by the robbers to ascertain the exact amount of the loss.

No clues could be found but the type of entrance and safe opening was exactly the same employed by thieves who entered and robbed the Anderson Store here several weeks ago.

Mr. Seifert had a dog in the plant which he was training for a watch dog, but the dog on Tuesday night was tied up in another part of the plant. It is apparent that the robbers were aware of this and other details, as their entrance and exit was timed and executed without disturbing anyone or leaving the slightest clue.

MRS. GRIMMER HOSTESS

Mrs. Clarence Grimmer was hostess at a lovely bridge party at her home on Hamilton Street on Thursday evening. The home was lovely for the occasion with the colors of halloween effectively carried out. As the guests arrived they were presented attractive halloween tally cards by Miss Winifred Grimmer. Places for playing were found at six tables which had been placed in the living room and dining room. When the scores were collected after six or seven progressions, Mrs. George Hayes was found to hold high and was given a lovely hand made handkerchief. Miss Margaret Clark was given a lovely party bag as second high score prize. The hostess was assisted by Miss Lila Roper in serving a lovely plate of salad. On each plate was a miniature corsage. Those playing: Mesdames Allen Zolliffier, W. S. Dean, James Walker, Jack Young, Frank Wilson, Julian Allsbrook, Hugh Camp, Frank Hawley, Alfred Martin, George Hayes, Pendleton Grizzard, T. W. M. Long, F. G. Jarman, Paul Parks, David Traynham, Claude Edgerton, W. C. Williams, O. Griffin, J. M. Jackson, Misses Maragret Clark, Susan Holliday, Florine Holt, Ruth Transou, Frances Burgwyn.
