FOREST PRODUCTS
The forest area is approximately 218,711 acres, comprising 57 per cent of the total land area. More than 51 per cent of this is farm woodland including 12,429 acres of woodland pasture. The principal merchantable species are loblolly pine, 65 per cent, gums 15 per cent, oaks 8 per cent.

The estimated total stand of 220,000 board feet of saw timber is fairly accessible by roads and rail.

Nearly 90 per cent of the area is pine land, the remainder being hardwood bottom and swamps along Roanoke river and other streams. The steady demand for pine pulpwood at Roanoke Rapids is of great advantage to the farm woodland owner furnishing him a dependable market for his young timber.

Some 10 sawmills produce about 15,000,000 board feet of lumber per annum. Some 8,000 cords of pulpwood as well as veneers, ties and piling are also produced. The estimated stumpage value of the timber cut annually is around $100,000.

MINERA PRODUCTS
Rather lean brick clays occur along the Roanoke river near Roanoke Rapids. South of the depot near Weldon are brick clays. Near Halifax extensive beds of clay occur. At Scotland Neck in an old lake basin, brick clays are found. Brick production in the county for 1926 was $110,631.

WATER RESOURCES AND POWER
Waters: Roanoke River; Fishing, Beech swamp, Deep Burncott, Quanky, Kehukee, Chockyott, Marsh swamp and other creeks; shallow and deep well supplies. Water: Surface supplies generally of very excellent quality; in point of number of sources, numerous. Underground supplies generally available over county but at different horizons. Wells are in general use in several sections, and water is found to be satisfactory for the most part. In a given section, the quality varies with the horizon from which water is taken. Power: Virginia Electric has a 78,000 h. p. hydro-electric plant at Roanoke Rapids on the Roanoke river; also, a 2,670 h. p., steam plant ther. Scotland Neck has a 1,200 h.p. municipal steam plant. Power is made available in the county over transmission circuits of the agencies named, and from a line of Carolina Power which comes into the Eastern side of the county to Littleton. Estimates indicate that in that stretch of the river forming the boundary line with Northampton county, there is 183,000 of undeveloped horsepower.

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS
The lands adjacent to the Roanoke river, which forms the county's eastern border, are quite fertile, due to occasional overflows and contain some fine, large farms. In the lower part of Halifax County are some of the best money making farms in the State. It has three important cash crops, namely cotton, peanuts and tobacco, all being rotated from one crop to another. Its truck crops are largely Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes and English peas, 77 cars being shipped in 1927. About one-third of the county is under cultivation, 1,292 acres are devoted to field truck other than potatoes, while over 2,300 acres are in home gardens. It employs 8,777 head of work stock and 137 tractors.
