W. BRODIE JONES IS LAID TO REST

Funeral services for W. Brodie Jones, editor of the Warren Record and business manager of the Press Publishing Co., were held from the home of his parents last Thursday afternoon by the Rev. J. A. Martin, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Dr. T. J. Gibbs, and the Rev. E. N. de Foe-Wagner, of the Episcopal church. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery.

It was one of the most largely attended funerals ever held there. Mr. Jones, editor of the Warren Record and business manager of the Press Publishing Co., and interested in several other papers in this section, was widely known, having been for ten years a popular member of the newspaper fraternity and active at meetings of the State Press Association and in local and civic affairs. A large number of beautiful floral designs and numerous messages of condolence told of the high esteem in which the young man was held and of the sympathy felt for the stricken family.

The pallbearers were W. K. Faulkner, W. T. Polk, Alpheus Jones, F. G. Allen, Tim Gilliam, Ed. Gilliam, Hugh White and T. N. Ball.

Fire Spreads And Alarm Is Turned In

Unable to stop the spread of fire which was gradually getting closer and closer to her home, Mrs. H. P. Pope turned in the fire alarm at Weldon Tuesday afternoon for the first time since the fire in the Daniel building before Christmas.

Mrs. Pope was burning leaves in her back yard when the fire began to spread beyond her control. The alarm was turned in and the fire company along with many Weldon citizens came on the run. The fire did no damage other than to give excitement to Weldon citizens.

FACTS ABOUT HALIFAX

Officers Raid Still And Capture Man

Deputy Sheriffs Mitchell and Hux and police officers Dobbins and Green, Gray and Keeter captured a 50 gallon capacity gasoline drum type still during a raid last week.

The still was found in a barn in the yard of E. Clay on the land of Tobe Drexory between Dave's Crossroad and Halifax highway. The officers destroyed the still, four gallons of whiskey and three or four barrels of mash, and then arrested Ed Clay, who said he had the stuff to feed his hogs. Clay was placed in the Halifax jail where he is awaiting a preliminary hearing.

Twenty-nine members of the club were present at this meeting which was devoted largely to deeds of charity.

Mrs. Pattie Fitts Passes Away In Durham

Mrs. Pattie Fitts, age 74, died last Wednesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. R. Tyson, 302 Trinity Ave., Durham. Mrs. Fitts was for many years a resident of Roanoke Rapids, beloved by her neighbors and all who knew her. Before her marriage to Mr. George C. Fitts, she was Miss Pattie Claiborn of Warren County, but her parents were originally from Virginia. Her husband was for many years Sheriff of Warren County and after his death sixteen years ago, she went to Durham to make her home.

Mrs. Fitts was a woman of lovely Christian character, always ready to smile and speak a word of comfort to any who might be discouraged. She was an invalid for some time before her death, but bore her suffering patiently and always saying she was willing to go at any time. She was a devoted member of Cavalry Methodist church in Durham and was active as long as her strength allowed her to be, and after she was unable to attend services, she enjoyed hearing the hymns sung in her church which is next door to her daughter's home.

She was an ideal wife, a devoted mother, and her friends will regret to hear of her passing, but though she is no more of the flesh her spirit will ever live, and her devotion to friends and home will ever be a pleasant memory.

Surviving are the following children: Mrs. S. R. Tyson, Durham, Rev. R. N. Fitts, Oronoke, George C. Fitts, Jr., Henry, Oliver, Mrs. V. T. Lamm and William C. Fitts of Roanoke Rapids and Dr. N. P. Fitts of Richmond, Frank Fitts of Durham. Sixteen grand children and two great grandchildren, George Fitts, Jr., and Richard Cameron Tyson of Durham.

The funeral was held last Thursday, Feb. 7, at Calvary Methodist church with the pastor, Rev. O. D. Hinson, assisted by Rev. Geo. T. Watkins of Grace Baptist church officiating. Interment was made in Fairview cemetery in Warrenton at 4 o'clock.

The following served as pall bearers: J. E. Carpenter, C. W. Ezell, N. D. Holland, J. E. Abernethy, Captain Julian Spring and Robert Whitaker. Special friends who served as floral bearers were, Mrs. J. H. Harris, Mrs. W. A. Beasley, Mrs. J. E. Glenn, Mrs. L. H. Jones, Mrs. Mamie Crim, Mrs. W. J. Woods, Mrs. E. Berger and Mrs. J. O. Renn.

Misses Annie Fitts and Olive Lamm spent several days in Durham last week.

Mr. S. R. Tyson of Durham was a week-end visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Lamm.
