Mrs. Frank Williams spent Tuesday in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. William White and Mrs. W. J. Elmore left Sunday for a motor trip South and a visit to Mr. White's brother in Texas. They will be away about six weeks.

Mr. Job Taylor spent several days last week in New Bern.

Mrs. Robert Cleaton, Jr. has returned from a visit to friends in Norfolk.

Mrs. T. R. Manning left Thursday for New Orleans where she will attend the Bi-Annual convention of Kings Daughters and Sons.

Mrs. Howard Pruden and Miss Simmons spent Tuesday in Rocky Mount, N. C.

The Farmville S. T. C. Club met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Purdy last Tuesday night. There was an attendance of 100 percent. They were distressed to learn the club would soon lose one of the members, Mrs. Hunter Barbee, as they are moving to Richmond, Va., to live. After the business was transacted we enjoyed a social hour. For refreshments the hostess served ice cream, the cream being in the shape of bunnies, which reminded that Easter was almost here. Those present were Mesdames Raymond Purdy, Garfield Bunch, Jas. Leath, Hunter Barbee, E. P. Hyman, and Misses Juanita Taylor, Patience Moore, Omara Daniel, Betty and Virginia Gates.

Miss Margaret Cox celebrated her twelfth birthday Saturday afternoon from 5:30 to 8:30 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Cox, at "Belmont," by inviting about twenty of her little friends to her home. Games and contests were enjoyed by the children. An ice course with cake was served as refreshments.

The Welfare Department of the Womans Club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. N. Wheeler. Several families were reported as having been helped and several cases presented for action. Mrs. A. E. Akers reported that a room had been secured to take care of all the clothing to be used by this department. The room is located over Mrs. K. Jenkins store and the members of the department consider it a most desirable place. Anyone having their "Good Will Bags" filled will please take them to this room in order that the clothing may be used for needy families. At the conclusion of the meeting the hostess was assisted by Misses Ella Outland and Ruth White in serving a nice course. Those present were Mesdames W. L. Long, T. W. M. Long, A. E. Akers, T. M. Jenkins, C. N. Wheeler, Misses Ruth White and Ella Outland.

Mr. W. S. Dean was in Richmond Va., Tuesday.

Mrs. Charlie Smith, daughter of J. E. Cox, was operated on at Roanoke Rapids hospital Saturday and her friends will be glad to know she is getting along nicely.

"Song Of The West" Is All-Talking Epic

Warner Bros., who pioneered talking pictures through the introduction of Vitaphone, are again scoring a sensation with "Song of the West," 100 per cent natural color, singing, talking dancing picture in technicolor, which comes to the Rosemary Theatre Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

This picture is the first all-natural color, all-talking and singing production to be made out of doors, with the vivid high Sierras as a scenic background for the dramatic action of this story, adapted from the operetta "Rainbow" by Oscar Hammerstein II and Laurence Stallings with Vincent Youman's music.

More than $300,000 worth of equipment was installed on a wild, lonely spot two hundred and fifty miles from Los Angeles in order to take these scenes. John Boles, Vivienne Segal, Marie Wells, Joe E. Brown, Sam Hardy, Rudolph Cameron Marion Byron, Edie Gribbon, Ed Martindel, and others are in the cast. Harvey Thew did the adaptation. Ray Enright directed.
