Adults Contract Children's Diseases

Adults can, and do, contract many children's diseases. And, usually, they suffer from them much more than children do. For instance, many adults contract worms, an ailment usually associated with children. Sometimes they suffer intensely and take expensive medical treatments, without realizing that worms are the cause of their troubles. Yet, the symptoms are the same as in children, loss of appetite and weight, grinding the teeth and restless sleep, itching of the nose and anus, and abdominal pains. And, the same medicine that surely and harmlessly expels round and pin worms from children will do the same for adults—White's Cream Vermifuge, which you can get at Taylor's Drug Store, Rosemary, N. C.

er and Miss Hazel Cobb were recent visitors in Rocky Mount.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Highmore of New London, Conn., spent several days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Grimmer.

The Monday night bridge club was entertained last week by Mrs. J. W. Ross at her home on Hamilton street. Mrs. D. L. Traynham and Miss Carrie Faulkner cut for prize and Miss Faulkner winning was given a pair of gloves.

On Tuesday, May 27, Mrs. T. R. Manning was hostess to the Tuesday Literary Club of Henderson at a Luncheon, following which the regular program of the club was carried out, to which members of the Study Club were invited.

It is with much interest that The Herald observes the announcement of honor bestowed on one of its citizens, Miss Minnie Daughtrey, a graduate of the famous 1920 High School class, who has been elected to a teachership at Virginia Intermont College of Bristol, Virginia. Miss Daughtrey is completing her degree at the University of Virginia this June.

On Wednesday morning, May 28, at the regular chapel service of the Roanoke Rapids High School, certificates from the American Red Cross were presented to a class of eighteen who have completed the course of Food and Nutrition. This class was taught by Miss Emily Stribling of the Home Economics department, who has for a number of years given this course in the High School and the Red Cross, and parents of the Twin Cities are most fortunate in having Miss Stribling to teach this course. The certificates were presented by Mrs. T. M. Jenkins, chairman of the Roanoke Rapids Chapter, to the following girls, Virginia Armstrong, Catherine Nethercutt, Jessie Askew, Mildred Tudor, Wilma Edwards, Annie Waddille, Edith Elmore, Montie Williams, Mildred Fisher, Hughio Powell, Pattie Marlow, Liddie Hufton, Catherine Hutchinson, Louise Hux, Marjorie Jenkins, Mable Mills, Gertrude Mosley, Lela Murray.

At the home of her mother, Mrs. George Taylor on Washington Street, little Miss Margaret Taylor celebrated her fifth birthday Saturday afternoon. About twenty five little friends were invited and upon arrival were greeted by Mrs. Taylor, Miss Alice Hicks Smith, Miss Mary Thomas Smith and Miss Virginia Taylor, who also directed many games which were played on the lawn. Refreshments were served from tables which were placed in the yard. On each table was a bowl of pink and white sweet peas, a color scheme of pink and white being effectively carried out both in decorations and refreshments. Each child was given a favor. The boys were given pink crepe horns and the girls were given pink crepe paper dolls. The hostess received many gifts. Enjoying this occasion were, Catherine and Tom Kirby, Betty Waller, Mary Taylor, Hazel Green, Bill Elting, Clara Belle Clark, Ann Clark, Vernon Mustain, A. P. Mustain, Jr., Patsy Whipple, Mary Frances Taylor, Betsy King, Hurley King, Margaret Joyner, Ann Joyner, Ann Campbell Taylor, Margaret Martin, Mary Louise Martin, Jane Knight and Ann Dorson Mohorn.

FILM FACTS

"Seven Days Leave," is the second all-talking picture for Gary Cooper. It is his first picture as a star.

"Seven Days Leave" is a faithful reproduction plus a few additional scenes of Sir James Barrie's play, "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals." Barrie is the author of "Peter Pan" and of "Half an Hour," the story on which was based the highly successful Ruth Chatterton all talking picture, "The Doctor's Secret."

Beryl Mercer, who supports Cooper, made her talking screen debut in "Three Live Ghosts," United Artists hit, in which she won immediate favor with screen audiences by her remarkable character work as Mrs. Gubbins.

Cooper wears the uniform of the Canadian "Black Watch" regiment throughout the picture. He is strikingly handsome in the kiltie regalia of this typically Scotch soldiery.

Get All Set For "The Big Party"—Pep and Petting

A girl who yearns for romance, a boy with the same idea, a pair of goldiggers, two business partners with an eye for blonds, the partners' wives with an eye for their lesser halves, a millionaire with a penchant for installing young ladies in expensive apartments—these form a few of the human ingredients in "The Big Party," John Blystone's latest Fox Movietone production which will make local premiere at the People's Theatre next Friday and Saturday.

The principal roles are played by Dixie Lee, Sue Carroll and Walter Catlett, with Frank Albertson, Richard Keene and "Whispering" Jack Smith heading the excellent supporting cast that includes Ika Chase, Elizabeth Patterson Charles Judels, Douglas Gilmore and Dorothy Brown.

Unintentional Suicide

Many people are slowly poisoning themselves just as surely as if they drank iodine every morning for breakfast. They are daily absorbing the toxins, or poisons, created by accumulated waste matter in their constipated digestive systems. Sooner or later disease will conquer their weakened bodies.

If you have dizzy spells, headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, insomnia, no appetite, bilious attacks or pains in the back and limbs, you are probably suffering from self poisoning caused by constipation. The surest and pleasantest relief for this condition is Herbs, the vegetable cathartic which acts in the natural way. Get a bottle today from Taylor's Drug Store, Rosemary, N. C.

Local Fishermen Report Big Catch

Fishing has been a bit slow here due to low water in the Roanoke, but not so down at Swan Quarter, according to a report brought back by C. P. Dunn, J. W. Cranwell, R. E. and R. L. Martin, who journeyed to Swan Quarter and in a day and a half of fishing caught 634 croakers.

CAMELS are made to smoke

FROM THE DAY the choice leaves of sun-mellowed Turkish and Domestic tobaccos are first selected for Camel Cigarettes, every step in their manufacture is headed toward just one goal—the making of a thoroughly enjoyable smoke.

Pleasure, found at its best in Camels, is the only reason for smoking. That's why Camels make no pretense of being anything but a smoke. Camel is a blend of exquisite smoothness, mild and mellow and marvelously fragrant. Have a Camel!
