Listen here folks, whenever you hear of anything about to happen there must always be a story connected with it or somebody is just too darn lazy to tell you and you are not interested whether or not you hear their story—Well we are so overjoyed with what is about to take place here that the only way in the world we will ever feel relieved and do justice to you would be to shout our story in each one of the ten thousand homes in Northampton and Halifax Counties that this paper will reach. Every employee in this great store has worked hard in preparing what we believe will be without a doubt the biggest venture ever undertaken by any mercantile establishment that stands ready to back up every single word or statement appearing on the face of this paper.

We would indeed feel very hurt if we thought that for one moment that a single copy of this paper bringing our story to you were cast aside and not read line by line, not that it means anything in the way of profits to us because the word profit is left out entirely during this great event but it will be who will be missing something that just as sure as two and two is four cannot or will not ever be repeated and furthermore we offer this broad statement as a challenge to our friendly neighbors who are also in the mercantile business, (not competitors because we haven't any), and defy them to even attempt to show and prove to the public that they can offer you the same quality goods at the same low prices that you will see and buy here when the doors open FRIDAY morning July 18th 9 a. m., at the Great July Clearance Sale of B. Marks, Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina.
